Sanctifying Each Day with Bells

There are some extra bells sounding from the bell tower at noon each day, and I'll admit that I'm the one who asked for them! 3 sets of 3 bells, each set separated by 10 seconds, followed by the peeler bell, are called the "Angelus bells." The Angelus prayer is a Marian devotional prayer with origins in 11th Century monasteries. It commemorates Mary's "yes" to the angel Gabriel and the great mystery of the Incarnation, or God-made-flesh in Jesus. It is traditionally prayed at 6am, noon, and 6pm. The bells are played to remind us to stop and pray in the midst of our work.

One of my family's favorite paintings is The Angelus by Jean-Francois Millet. You've probably seen it before: It depicts a man and woman pausing to pray during their potato harvest. Now that you know the name of the painting, you now know why they stopped: they heard the Angelus bells! (You can see the church steeple in the background.)

Even if you don't live near the church and can't hear the bells to remind you to pray, you can set your smart phone to "alert" you each day at noon. Our days should be peppered with prayer to God, and those of us who are busy need regular reminders. Make it a goal to pray the Angelus at noon each day this week!

(Special thank you to John Brost (St. Pat's) and Jack Hubertz (St. Charles) for their help in making those bells ring!)

The Angelus Prayer

V. The Angel of the Lord declared unto Mary:

R. And she conceived by the Holy Spirit.

Hail Mary...

V. Behold the handmaid of the Lord;

R. Be it done unto me according to Thy word.

Hail Mary...

V. And the Word was made Flesh:

R. And dwelt among us.

Hail Mary...

V. Pray for us, O Holy Mother of God,

R. that we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ.

Let us pray:

All: Pour forth, we beseech Thee, O Lord, Thy grace into our hearts; that we, to whom the incarnation of Christ, Thy Son, was made known by the message of an angel, may by His Passion and Cross be brought to the glory of His Resurrection, through the same Christ Our Lord.

Amen.
