Stewardship by the Book

October 20, 2019

Twenty-ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Today's theme is perseverance - Moses keeping his hands upraised throughout the battle, Paul urging Timothy to stay with the task of preaching and teaching, and the widow appealing to the corrupt judge. To be faithful stewards of God's gifts, we too must persevere in the roles to which we are called.

Mission Appeal Weekend

We welcome Father Jackson Colon to our Parish this weekend as part of our Mission Appeal Weekend. He is from Haiti and a representative of the Diocese of Hinche, Haiti, his home diocese. He will preach at all the Masses for the annual Co-op Missionary Appeal sharing his faith and the ministry of the church of the diocese of Hinche and soliciting financial support for his home diocese and its seminary system. Life, for most of the people in Haiti has yet to return to normal following the earthquake and other natural disasters, simply because they do not have the resources for even the most basic of daily needs. Father Colon's country has been experiencing the most troubling times after a powerful quake struck Haiti on January 2010.

I pray that you will reach out with your usual generosity to the people of Haiti in a spirit of support, love and prayer. A second collection will be taken up for this mission. This collection is taken up annually in each parish of our diocese to assist a number of missionary endeavors throughout the world. Please be generous in assisting the missionary work of the church in Haiti through your contribution to the Mission Co-operative collection.

Under the Mercy,
Father Haan
