Pope Leo XIV

Like many, I was surprised and excited to hear we have a Pope from the United States! I grew up for much of my life under the pontificate of St. John Paul II. I remember someone shared with me that the Church gives us a Pope for our time. And I believe that is true even to today with the recent election of Pope Leo XIV. I find myself listening and reading his homilies and spoken words. I have been drawn to Pope Leo's motto, "In the one Christ, we are one." I spoke of his motto at the evening Mass on May 8 at St. John the Baptist. Likewise, I am sharing excerpts from the homily of Pope Leo XIV during his installation Mass on May 18. I would like to you prayerfully (read in prayer or adoration) read Pope Leo's homily and reflect on love and unity in your life and love and unity in our pastorate. This is a beautiful homily and I hope you find the beauty that lies within.

"I was chosen, without any merit of my own, and now, with fear and trembling, I come to you as a brother, who desires to be the servant of your faith and your joy, walking with you on the path of God's love, for he wants us all to be united in one family. Love and unity: these are the two dimensions of the mission entrusted to Peter by Jesus.

In the words of Saint Augustine: "The Church consists of all those who are in harmony with their brothers and sisters and who love their neighbor" (Serm. 359,9).

Brothers and sisters, I would like that our first great desire be for a united Church, a sign of unity and communion, which becomes a leaven for a reconciled world.

In this our time, we still see too much discord, too many wounds caused by hatred, violence, prejudice, the fear of difference, and an economic paradigm that exploits the Earth's resources and marginalizes the poorest. For our part, we want to be a small leaven of unity, communion and fraternity within the world. We want to say to the world, with humility and joy: Look to Christ! Come closer to him! Welcome his word that enlightens and consoles! Listen to his offer of love and become his one family: in the one Christ, we are one. This is the path to follow together, among ourselves but also with our sister Christian churches, with those who follow other religious paths, with those who are searching for God, with all women and men of good will, in order to build a new world where peace reigns!

This is the missionary spirit that must animate us; not closing ourselves off in our small groups, nor feeling superior to the world. We are called to offer God's love to everyone, in order to achieve that unity which does not cancel out differences but values the personal history of each person and the social and religious culture of every people.

Brothers and sisters, this is the hour for love! The heart of the Gospel is the love of God that makes us brothers and sisters. With my predecessor Leo XIII, we can ask ourselves today: If this criterion "were to prevail in the world, would not every conflict cease and peace return?" (Rerum Novarum, 20).

With the light and the strength of the Holy Spirit, let us build a Church founded on God's love, a sign of unity, a missionary Church that opens its arms to the world, proclaims the word, allows itself to be made "restless" by history, and becomes a leaven of harmony for humanity.

Together, as one people, as brothers and sisters, let us walk towards God and love one another."

In the one Christ, we are one!
St. Isidore the Farmer, Pray for Us!

Peace,
Fr. Sean
