It is once again time for our annual celebration of Mother's Day. Many moms have told me over the years that one of the best gifts they receive on Mother's Day is when their adult children attend Mass with them – particularly those children who have fallen away from regular practice of the faith.

Perhaps this Mother's Day might inspire each one of us to honor our moms through some act of faith. We could offer a prayer, have a Mass card sent to mom, forgive an old hurt, or renew our Catholic Faith in some specific way. An expression of faith would certainly be a welcomed gift for many of our mothers.

All of us could certainly thank God today for how our mothers cooperated with His plan in bringing us to life. Through our moms we learned how to walk and talk. We learned our prayers and the importance of loving God and our Catholic Faith. Through our moms we were taught to make moral decisions and right choices. Thank God for all our mothers who embraced the challenge of raising us and modeling for us the virtues of compassion, hope, and love.

I will be spending the afternoon with my own mom and family. I wish her and all of you who are mothers, a very special and blessed day.

Asking for the prayers of our Mother in Heaven, I remain,

Sincerely,

Darrin Connall

Scriptural Reflection

May 10, 2015 – Sixth Sunday of Easter

Acts 10: 25-26, 34-35, 44-48; Ps 98: 1-4; 1 Jn 4: 7-10; Jn 15: 9-17

“This I command you: love one another.” Note that in this direct quote from today’s Gospel that the Lord does not offer this as a suggestion nor as an option. It is a command. He reinforces this several times in Holy Scripture as He offers it as one of the two most important commandments. If we make an effort to genuinely love one another, we will have gone a long way to living out discipleship and stewardship.

It is appropriate on this Sixth Sunday of Easter when we celebrate Mothers’ Day throughout the United States that our readings are filled with the message of love. The love of a mother is one of the great blessings anyone can receive. We should have no difficulty on this day letting our mothers — in fact, all those women who have provided support and forgiveness to us — know that we love them.

If loving one another is one of the hallmarks of stewardship as a way of life, showing that love to our mothers, and for mothers, showing and expressing their love to their children is paramount on this day. As Christ said in today’s Gospel, “No one has greater love than this, to lay down one’s love for one’s friends.” Mothers do that constantly, sacrificing so much for their children. We are blessed; let the “mothers” in our lives know that they are a blessing.
