At the Lamb's High Feast

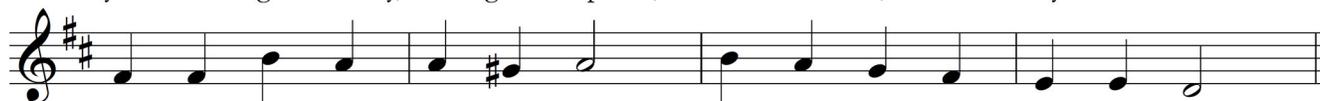

1. At the Lamb's high feast we sing Praise to our vic - to - rious King,
2. Where the Pas - chal blood is poured, Death's dark an - gel sheathes his sword;
3. Might - y vic - tim from the sky, Hell's fierce pow'rs be - neath you lie;
4. Eas - ter tri - umph, Eas - ter joy, This a - lone can sin de - stroy;

Who has washed us in the tide Flow - ing from his wound - ed side;
Is - rael's hosts tri - um - phant go Through the wave that drowns the foe.
You have con - quered in the fight, You have brought us life and light:
From sin's pow'r, Lord, set us free, New - born souls in you to be.

Praise we him, whose love di - vine Gives his sac - red blood for wine, Praise we Christ whose blood was shed, Pas - chal vic - tim, Pas - chal bread!
Now no more can death ap - pall, Now no more the grave en - thrall; Hymns of glo - ry, songs of praise, Fa - ther, un - to you we raise:

Gives his bo - dy for the feast, Christ the vic - tim, Christ the priest.
With sin - cer - i - ty and love Eat we man - na from a - bove.
You have o - pened Par - a - dise, And in you the saints shall rise.
And to you, our ris - en King, With the Spir - it, praise we sing.

PENITENTIAL ACT

I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned,
in my thoughts and in my words,
in what I have done
and in what I have failed to do, (and striking their breast, they say)
through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault;
therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin,
all the Angels and Saints,
and you, my brothers and sisters,
to pray for me to the Lord our God.

CREED

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,

true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,

(all bow through "and became man")

and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified
under Pontius Pilate
he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.
I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

COMMUNION HYMN

Let All Mortal Flesh Keep Silence

- | | |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1. Let all mortal flesh keep silence,
And with fear and trembling stand;
Ponder nothing earthly-minded,
For with blessing in his hand
Christ our God to earth descendeth,
Our full homage to demand. | 3. Rank on rank the host of heaven
Spreads its vanguard on the way,
As the Light of Light descendeth
From the realm of endless day,
That the pow'rs of hell may vanish
As the darkness clears away. |
| 2. King of kings, yet born of Mary,
As of old on earth he stood,
Lord of lords in human vesture;
In the Body and the Blood
He will give to all the faithful
His own self for heav'nly food. | 4. At his feet the six-winged seraph;
Cherubim with sleepless eye,
Veil their faces to the Presence,
As with ceaseless voice they cry,
"Alleluia, alleluia!
Alleluia, Lord Most High!" |

After receiving Holy Communion, please kneel or be seated.

The Most Holy Body & Blood of Christ
From the Rector
June 7th, 2015

This weekend we have the privilege of celebrating the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ. This celebration is popularly called Corpus Christi and is a time for us to renew our devotion to the Real Presence of Jesus in the Eucharist.

I thought it would be appropriate, therefore, to take this opportunity to offer a clarification regarding postures surrounding the Eucharist here at the Cathedral. There has been a fair amount of confusion with some people standing after Holy Communion, some people kneeling, and others looking around in wonder. My hope is to offer a clarification so that we can all demonstrate a greater sense of unity.

The Holy See provides and approves liturgical norms for Mass. These norms are contained in the General Instruction of the Roman Missal (GIRM). The latest edition of the GIRM states the following: In the dioceses of the United States of America, they should kneel beginning after the singing or recitation of the Sanctus until after the Amen of the Eucharistic Prayer, except when prevented on occasion by reasons of health, lack of space, the large number of people present, or some other good reason. Those who do not kneel ought to make a profound bow when the priest genuflects after the consecration. The faithful kneel after the Agnus Dei unless the Diocesan Bishop determines otherwise (43).

I have spoken with Bishop Daly and would therefore like to ask that the following practices be observed regarding postures at Mass. For those who are physically able, please KNEEL after the Agnus Dei (Lamb of God) and please KNEEL after the reception of Holy Communion. I intend to preach about the meaning behind this posture at Masses this weekend. I simply wanted to give you a “heads up” in my column about how I am hoping to resolve the confusion.

I look forward to our celebrations this weekend.

Asking for the prayers of Our Lady of Lourdes, I remain,

Sincerely,

Rev. Darrin Connall
Rector

Knights of Columbus 2nd Sunday Breakfast

On Sunday, June 14th, breakfast will be served after all morning Masses. Enjoy pancakes, scrambled eggs, biscuits & gravy, sausage, coffee & juice! Your donations help us support two seminarians. Thank you, Parish, for all the support you give the Knights of Columbus, Council 14922!

Please join the members of the Knights of Columbus and their families on Sunday, June 14th at 8:30 a.m. in the Cathedral as we honor our Blessed Mother by praying the Rosary.

The bishops' stewardship pastoral asks, "And what do Christians bring to the Eucharistic celebration and join there with Jesus' offering?" The answer: "Their lives as Christian disciples; their personal vocations and the stewardship they have exercised regarding them; their individual contributions to the great work of restoring all things in Christ."

In every age consecrated men and women must continue to be images of Christ the Lord, fostering through prayer a profound communion of mind with him.

Youth Group Announcement

Grotto Youth Group has ended it's weekly meetings. You can find information on any youth group summer activities in the church bulletin and on Flocknote. The Grotto Youth Group would like to thank Father Connall, Father Hiner, the Altar Society, and the Knights of Columbus for supporting our amazing youth!

SEE YOU IN SEPTEMBER!!!

- The Grotto Leadership Team

VBS

Vacation Bible School at the Cathedral will be August 11th - 14th, and we are in need of volunteers! VBS is a great event for our young parishioners to spend a week learning about their faith and we cannot do it without you!!! If you would like to volunteer to help with VBS please contact our youth coordinators Rich & Delia Breedlove at faithfulfour@comcast.net.

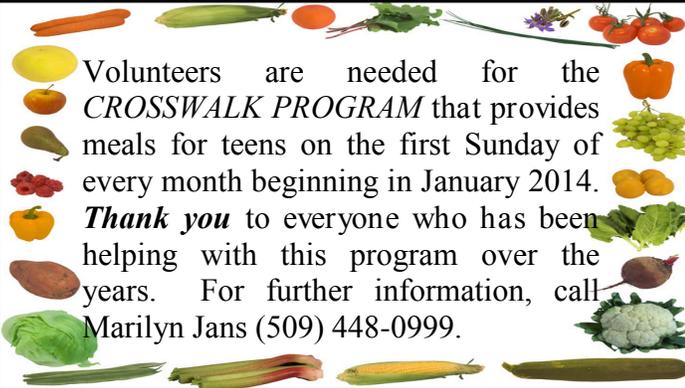

RCIA

In response to the Church's ongoing mission of evangelization, The Cathedral of Our Lady of Lourdes will be offering a program of instruction for those interested in the Catholic Faith and in living a full sacramental life within the Church.

This program may be of interest to the unbaptized, or to the baptized non-Catholic Christians who wish to become fully initiated into the Catholic Church.

The exact starting date and time has not yet been determined. The program will begin in September and prior to the starting day there will be an information session for all those interested.

For further information or questions, please contact Deacon John at the Parish Office: 358-4290.

Volunteers are needed for the CROSSWALK PROGRAM that provides meals for teens on the first Sunday of every month beginning in January 2014.

Thank you to everyone who has been helping with this program over the years. For further information, call Marilyn Jans (509) 448-0999.

Justice for Immigrants

The Prayer Intention of Pope Francis for June is that "immigrants and refugees may find welcome and respect in the countries to which they come." It is appropriate, then, that the Social Justice and Solidarity Committee takes this as its major focus, beginning with a special meeting on Monday, June 8, to which we invite all who are interested in pursuing this intention locally.

Time: 6:00 PM

Scriptural Reflection

June 7, 2015 – The Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ
Ex 24:3-8; Ps 116: 12-13, 15-18; Heb 9: 11-15; Mk 14: 12-16, 22-26

We celebrate today the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ — Corpus Christi. As Catholics we have celebrated this since the 13th Century. On Holy Thursday we celebrate the Last Supper, but the Church, feeling that the proximity of Easter might lessen that, instituted this Solemnity to occur right after the Solemnity of the Holy Trinity, which we commemorated last Sunday.

We often speak of Holy Days of Obligation. This is one of the ten Holy Days of Obligation in the Latin Rite Church, but here in the United States it is celebrated on Sunday. Sunday, of course, is always a Holy Day of Obligation for us. As stewards of the Church it is vital that we understand our Catholic traditions and practices and are able to explain them.

The emphasis on this Feast Day is Holy Communion, the Eucharist. At Communion we receive the True Body and Blood of Jesus Christ. We are a gifted people, and this is an incredible gift to us. On this day especially we are called to focus on this gift. In Communion we receive gifts that affect us both physically and spiritually. From a spiritual perspective we are united with Christ. Communion should increase our love of God and of our neighbor. This is lived out in the action of stewardship.
