RESPECT LIFE

GOVERNMENTS MOST SACRED DUTY: Our governments most sacred duty is to safeguard the lives of all Americans beginning with the most vulnerable and weakest, the unborn child. As we deal with these new attacks on the unborn, we Catholics must strongly, publicly preach and teach our biblical belief confirmed by clear scientific evidence that the unborn are human beings entitled to all the protections of life, liberty, property, and health guaranteed by the 14th Amendment. We bishops and all pro-lifers must follow and give greater witness to the pro-life teaching of the many strong statements of both St. Pope John Paul II and Pope Francis who have clearly stated, we must have a great love and support with all our means for each new child of God and their mothers and fathers. Both Popes have clearly stated that abortion is murder. For some, these words may be shocking, but they are based on the clear truth of the revealed word of God and confirmed by scientific fact about the personhood of the unborn. More than ever, we need to pray for the guidance of the Holy Spirit to help us live each day the gospel, principles and values of Jesus supported by his and our dear mother Mary who simply tells us, "Do whatever He tells you". We constantly encourage our president and congressional leaders to show more concern for all women who are struggling with a pregnancy issue. Pope Francis stresses the closeness, the compassion, and tenderness we must have in all our parishes for all pregnant women and all those considering an abortion decision and offer them spiritual, human, emotional, health, legal and financial means to assist them with their many needs and to encourage them to save their babies. And we must work without elected officials to provide the proper aid to cover the cost of the birth and the early and ongoing care and education of their children. God created the human person in the divine image and likeness as the pinnacle of all creation. Each of us including the unborn share in the image of God's glory. Human life as a gift from God is sacred and inviolable. - Pro-Life Pastoral Letter

WEEKLY
STEWARDSHIP

THANK YOU
FOR YOUR SUPPORT

If, then, we have died with Christ, we believe that we shall also live with him. We know that Christ, raised from the dead, dies no more; death no longer has power over him. As to his death, he died to sin once and for all; as to his life, he lives for God. Consequently, you too must think of yourselves as dead to sin and living for God in Christ Jesus.
Romans 3:8-11

From the Grapevine by Deacon Randy J

I recently returned from a trip to the southeastern portion of the U.S. to visit relatives. For me, that part of the country is interesting to tour with all its history, charm, slower pace of life, and unique cuisine. The people are friendly; usually welcoming you with a smile and a warm greeting. Wherever my family went we would hear "Yes sir or mame". Whether at a hotel, restaurant or shop, hospitality to guests was extremely important to them.

In the first reading this weekend, Elisha (a prophet) was traveling through a town and was invited to dine with a family. In other journeys through the town, Elisha would stop at the home and was offered a meal. Eventually, the family prepared a place at their home for Elisha to stay when he passed through the area. What gracious hospitality he was shown! In return, Elisha offered a blessing for the childless couple that they would conceive a baby boy.

Hospitality to a stranger can often have a lasting impact on a person. As a parish community, we also need to offer hospitality to visitors at our churches. We need to greet strangers with a smile and a friendly hello, reach out to them during the sign of peace, or wish them a good day. We need to extend an invitation to our guests to our social events, or to come back and worship with us again. How we worship is also a sign of our hospitality. When we sing and pray together, we show unity and a welcoming spirit to our guests.

Bring a smile and personal warmth with you wherever you go!
