From the desk of Father James

My brothers and sisters, this 2nd Sunday of Advent, we are introduced to our friend John the Baptist. He is the forerunner, the one sent ahead of the Messiah who preached a baptism of repentance. John calls us to take a good look at our lives and calls us to turn away from our sins and repent. He calls us to make room in our hearts and let Jesus fully reside within us.

What are some things that we need to repent of this Advent to help make more room in our heart for Jesus? How can we make time in our life to just be still a few minutes each day? Maybe during this season of Advent we might want to consider signing up for an hour of adoration in the Blessed Sacrament Chapel to spend quiet time with our Lord. Maybe we might want to start coming to daily mass? These are two options, there are many others. Let us use this time of Advent wisely to help prepare to greet our Lord Jesus when He comes in Glory.

This coming Tuesday we have the opportunity to come to Mass on December 8 at either 8:30 am or 7:00 pm to celebrate the Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception. This IS a HOLY DAY OF OBLIGATION. All Catholics are obligated to attend Mass on this day. This feast is not only the patronal feast of our Archdiocese, but also of the United States.

St. Mary of the Immaculate Conception, pray for us!

Fr. James

Prayer for the Jubilee Year of Mercy Archdiocese of Portland

Excerpted and amended from Pope Francis' prayer for the Year of Mercy

Lord Jesus Christ,
Help us to turn our hearts toward you.
You have taught us to be merciful
like the heavenly Father, and have told us that whoever sees you sees Him.
Show us your face and we will be saved.

You are the visible face of the invisible Father who manifests his power above all by forgiveness and mercy.
Let each of us, members of the Church in the Archdiocese of Portland, be your visible face in the world.

Send your Holy Spirit to sanctify each one of us with his anointing, so that the Jubilee of Mercy may be a year of grace from the Lord, and that we, your Church, with renewed enthusiasm,
may bring good news to the poor,
proclaim liberty to captives and the oppressed,
and restore sight to the blind.

We ask this of you, Lord Jesus, through the intercession of Mary,
Mother of Mercy;
you who live and reign with the Father and the Holy Spirit
forever and ever.

Amen.

Catholic Corner

What is perjury? Perjury is the serious sin of swearing an oath falsely—deliberately asking God to be a witness to a lie.

"And you shall not swear by my name falsely, and so profane the name of your God: I am the Lord" (Lv. 19:12.)

St. Paul Family Catechism, 620

Next Week: ? Are we obliged to keep an oath taken in order to promise something wrong or impossible?

Respect Life

God chose Mary at the Immaculate Conception to be our "mold of holiness" in much the same way that DNA plays an integral role in our genetic code: from the inside, not from the outside. At Mary's conception, a new way of being human happens, and we are "chosen, destined" to share it. The following is a blessing for all expectant mothers, newborn infants and young families.

Loving Father, during this holy season of Advent, keep us watchful and alert. Fill our hearts with expectation so that, through the hope and tenderness of Christmas, we may shake off our indifference. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

First 1000 Days: A Catholic Culture of Life Initiative reflection for Sunday December 6, Where All Are Welcomed and Loved With Mercy - Day 266 Children who suffer the most from environmental exposures are those yet unborn because they are the least capable of fending themselves from toxic exposures. Early exposure to neurotoxins like lead and mercury may result in lifelong developmental effects, permanently altering a child's intelligence and/or their development.
