From the desk of Father James

I first off want to start off by wishing you all a Merry and Blessed Christmas. We have now entered this season of joy in which we celebrate the birth of the Christ Child. We welcome the Word Made Flesh that our loving and merciful God sent into our earthly reality to bring us light, joy, hope, and peace! I pray that you all had a very blessed and holy Christmas and I want you to know that I am so happy to be here at St. Francis and to have had the blessing of spending my first Christmas here with all of you. It has been 6 months since I was asked to come and be the administrator here and I must say that I love being here more and more each day.

This Sunday after the the Nativity of Our Lord, we celebrate the Feast of the Holy Family. This is an important feast for us because we are all part of a family. Each family may be different, each family has it's struggles, but this feast is a reminder to us that we are not meant to live our lives in isolation. We are born into a family that raises us, and the influence of this family helps us to become who we are.

I am sure that we have experienced the fact that our families are not perfect. Sometimes we may feel abandoned by our families. We may even have a history of abuse or have experienced other tragedies in our families. In these cases, we can turn to the Holy Family for inspiration and assistance. The Holy Family also points us to the family that we have in the Body of Christ.

During this Christmas season, let us ask the Holy Family to intercede for us that our families will be holy and sacred, no matter what our family may look like. Let us also strive to be family for those that do not have their own families. Let us provide them with a family they can call their own.

Christmas Blessings!!

Fr. James

"Instruct the Ignorant": The First Spiritual Work of Mercy

by Philip Kosloski for the National Catholic Register

For the Jubilee Year of Mercy, Pope Francis has repeatedly stressed the importance of the corporal and spiritual works of mercy. In the Bull of Indiction he wrote, "It is my burning desire that, during this Jubilee, the Christian people may reflect on the corporal and spiritual works of mercy."

In a letter to the Pontifical Council for the Promotion of the New Evangelization, the Pope gave his appeal even more weight by confirming the promise of a Jubilee Indulgence for performing merciful acts: "I have asked the Church in this Jubilee Year to rediscover the richness encompassed by the spiritual and corporal works of mercy. The experience of mercy, indeed, becomes visible in the witness of concrete signs as Jesus himself taught us. Each time that one of the faithful personally performs one or more of these actions, he or she shall surely obtain the Jubilee Indulgence."

The Catechism of the Catholic Church (2447) says the following:

The works of mercy are charitable actions by which we come to the aid of our neighbor in his spiritual and bodily necessities.

Corporal Works of Mercy: To feed the hungry; To give drink to the thirsty; To clothe the naked; To harbour the harbourless; To visit the sick; To ransom the captive; To bury the dead.

Spiritual Works of Mercy: Instruct the ignorant; Counsel the doubtful; Admonish sinners; Bear wrongs patiently; Forgive offences willingly; Comfort the afflicted; Pray for the living and the dead.

To Instruct the Ignorant—The first spiritual work of mercy is to "instruct the ignorant." Biblically speaking, this action comes directly from Jesus when He instructs His apostles, "Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you." (Matthew 28:19-20)

This applies to us today as much as it did in the first century. While much of the world has heard about Jesus Christ, most are ignorant of what Jesus actually taught. This is due to many factors, including the numerous false interpretations of the Gospels. What doesn't help is the fact that we are sheep. We follow blindly whatever the culture tells us, or even what our priest preaches about on Sunday. This means that many in our world don't have the fullness of the Faith. However, this does not give everyone a mandate to instruct those they know in the intricacies of Church teaching. We must be careful, as we could be instructing our fellow neighbor in falsehood, when we think we are giving them truth. Above all things we must remember that Jesus gave His "apostles" the direct mandate to "teach." Bishops are the primary catechists in their geographical region and priests are cooperators with him. After priests come deacons and after deacons come lay catechists. Most dioceses have a certification program that "certifies" a specific catechist for teaching the faith. This is important as the local bishop is ultimately responsible for the souls in his care. What follows is that each catechist assists the bishop in his mission and can only operate with his permission.

In cases where local leaders fail to teach the truth, we can confidently turn to the Pope for guidance. He and the magisterium of the Church protect the truth and their official teachings are infallible. At the same time, we have a duty to evangelize our coworkers or family members, but we must do so realizing that we can only take them so far. We must act like arrows, pointing to the truth, bringing these precious souls to those who can instruct them properly. Also, as parents, we have the duty to instruct our children in the Faith to the best of our ability. When our knowledge fails, we turn to the Church for assistance.

In two weeks, we will see what it means to "counsel the doubtful.

Gift Tags on the Giving Tree

You may have noticed that the Giving Tree continues to have tags on it, even though we completed Christmas Food Boxes and presents. These white tags will go to babies in the community who are in need of basic care items and to Operation Baby Lift. We are grateful for any donations.

Operation Baby Lift is a wonderful outreach program that is expanding under Social Action Ministry. Parishioner Cheryl Scott is passionate about celebrating new life by welcoming newborns of inmates at Coffee Creek Correctional Institution. When a baby arrives, volunteers provide a layette and a stuffed animal, visit and pray over baby and mother. This ministry has received many recognitions including State of Oregon Correctional System Volunteers of the Year.

If you would like to donate, please take a tag and bring the unwrapped present with the tag attached to the bassinet in the narthex through January 10.

St. Francis and the Christmas Creche

In the year 1223, St. Francis was visiting the town of Greccio to celebrate Christmas. St. Francis realized that the chapel of the Franciscan hermitage would be too small to hold the congregation for Midnight Mass. So he found a niche in the rock near the town square and set up the altar. However, this Midnight Mass would be very special, unlike any other Midnight Mass.

St. Bonaventure (d. 1274) in his Life of St. Francis of Assisi tells the story the best:

It happened in the third year before his death, that in order to excite the inhabitants of Greccio to commemorate the nativity of the Infant Jesus with great devotion, St. Francis determined to keep it with all possible solemnity; and lest he should be accused of lightness or novelty, he asked and obtained the permission of the sovereign Pontiff. Then he prepared a manger, and brought hay, and an ox and an ass to the place appointed. The brethren were summoned, the people ran together, the forest resounded with their voices, and that venerable night was made glorious by many and brilliant lights and sonorous psalms of praise. The man of God, St. Francis, stood before the manger, full of devotion and piety, bathed in tears and radiant with joy; the Holy Gospel was chanted by Francis, the Levite of Christ. Then he preached to the people around the nativity of the poor King; and being unable to utter His name for the tenderness of His love, He called Him the Babe of Bethlehem.

Although the story is long old, the message is clear for us. Our own Nativity scenes which rest under our Christmas trees are a visible reminder of that night when our Savior was born. May we never forget to see in our hearts the little Babe of Bethlehem, who came to save us from sin. We must never forget that the wood of the manger that held Him so securely would one day give way to the wood of the cross. May we too embrace Him with all of our love as did St. Francis. ("St. Francis and the Christmas Creche" Fr. William Saunders www.catholiceducation.org)

Wishing you peace and joy this Christmas season and throughout the new year.

Respect Life

"Our faith in God's word calls us to support families in their mission in society, to accept children as a blessing for our world, and to defend the dignity of each man and woman, for all of us are brothers and sisters in the one human family."

~Pope Francis, Nov 2015 Kenyan visit

"The family is the basic cell of society. It is the cradle of life and love, the place in which the individual 'is born' and 'grows.'"

These words of St JP2 remind us that the family has a fundamental and formative role, both in society and in the life of each person.
