From the desk of Father James

Merry Christmas and Happy New year!

Yes, it is still appropriate to say Merry Christmas. We must remember for Catholics, the Christmas season comes to an end with the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord which takes place, January 10th. So, I would encourage you all to be bold and continue to wish everyone a very Merry and Blessed Christmas.

It is also the beginning of a new year! While we ushered in our new Church year with the beginning of Advent at the end of November, on January 1 we celebrated and welcomed a new civil year with the feast of Mary, the Mother of God. I do hope that in these early days of January, they will be a blessed beginning for all for the year 2016.

This Sunday is also the feast of the Epiphany. This day, we remember in our Church as the day in which the three Kings came from a far distant land to worship our newborn King, the child that was born in a manger. We don't know much about the kings. We don't know who exactly they were or where exactly they came from, but we do know that they followed a star to come and bring gifts. These gifts represent not only the fact that He is a great king, but also point to His death. Myrrh, one of the gifts, is a resin used to pack a body as it is prepared for burial. Even as an infant, we can see these gifts as signs pointing to His death, a death for which He was brought into our world to endure so that we can have new life in Him.

As we reflect upon the gifts that these wise men brought to this King, let us reflect upon the gifts that we bring to our King. What do we offer to Jesus? And more importantly, how do we use the gifts that He has given to us?

May the three men from the Orient continue to inspire us to follow the star that brings us to new life!!

Fr. James

"Instruct the Ignorant": The First Spiritual Work of Mercy
by Philip Kosloski for the National Catholic Register

For the Jubilee Year of Mercy, Pope Francis has repeatedly stressed the importance of the corporal and spiritual works of mercy. In the Bull of Indiction he wrote, "It is my burning desire that, during this Jubilee, the Christian people may reflect on the corporal and spiritual works of mercy."

In a letter to the Pontifical Council for the Promotion of the New Evangelization, the Pope gave his appeal even more weight by confirming the promise of a Jubilee Indulgence for performing merciful acts: "I have asked the Church in this Jubilee Year to rediscover the richness encompassed by the spiritual and corporal works of mercy. The experience of mercy, indeed, becomes visible in the witness of concrete signs as Jesus himself taught us. Each time that one of the faithful personally performs one or more of these actions, he or she shall surely obtain the Jubilee Indulgence."

The Catechism of the Catholic Church (2447) says the following:

The works of mercy are charitable actions by which we come to the aid of our neighbor in his spiritual and bodily necessities.

Corporal Works of Mercy: To feed the hungry; To give drink to the thirsty; To clothe the naked; To harbour the harbourless; To visit the sick; To ransom the captive; To bury the dead.

Spiritual Works of Mercy: Instruct the ignorant; Counsel the doubtful; Admonish sinners; Bear wrongs patiently; Forgive offences willingly; Comfort the afflicted; Pray for the living and the dead.

To Instruct the Ignorant—The first spiritual work of mercy is to "instruct the ignorant." Biblically speaking, this action comes directly from Jesus when He instructs His apostles, "Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you." (Matthew 28:19-20)

This applies to us today as much as it did in the first century. While much of the world has heard about Jesus Christ, most are ignorant of what Jesus actually taught. This is due to many factors, including the numerous false interpretations of the Gospels. What doesn't help is the fact that we are sheep. We follow blindly whatever the culture tells us, or even what our priest preaches about on Sunday. This means that many in our world don't have the fullness of the Faith. However, this does not give everyone a mandate to instruct those they know in the intricacies of Church teaching. We must be careful, as we could be instructing our fellow neighbor in falsehood, when we think we are giving them truth. Above all things we must remember that Jesus gave His "apostles" the direct mandate to "teach."

Bishops are the primary catechists in their geographical region and priests are cooperators with him. After priests come deacons and after deacons come lay catechists. Most dioceses have a certification program that "certifies" a specific catechist for teaching the faith.

This is important as the local bishop is ultimately responsible for the souls in his care. What follows is that each catechist assists the bishop in his mission and can only operate with his permission.

In cases where local leaders fail to teach the truth, we can confidently turn to the Pope for guidance. He and the magisterium of the Church protect the truth and their official teachings are infallible. At the same time, we have a duty to evangelize our coworkers or family members, but we must do so realizing that we can only take them so far. We must act like arrows, pointing to the truth, bringing these precious souls to those who can instruct them properly. Also, as parents, we have the duty to instruct our children in the Faith to the best of our ability. When our knowledge fails, we turn to the Church for assistance.

Next week, we will see what it means to "counsel the doubtful."

Gift Tags on the Giving Tree

You may have noticed that the Giving Tree continues to have tags on it, even though we completed Christmas Food Boxes and presents. These white tags will go to babies in the community who are in need of basic care items and to Operation Baby Lift. We are grateful for any donations.

Operation Baby Lift is a wonderful outreach program that is expanding under Social Action Ministry. Parishioner Cheryl Scott is passionate about celebrating new life by welcoming newborns of inmates at Coffee Creek Correctional Institution. When a baby arrives, volunteers provide a layette and a stuffed animal, visit and pray over baby and mother. This ministry has received many recognitions including State of Oregon Correctional System Volunteers of the Year.

If you would like to donate, please take a tag and bring the unwrapped present with the tag attached to the bassinet in the narthex through January 10.

St. Francis School

Accredited through June 2020

We are at full stride in the computer lab. Kindergarten students are working on navigating, mouse skills, key-boarding, and various fun activities that reinforce classroom learning. I have extended the computer programming that Ms. Skipper started with the first graders into their technology class, along with keyboarding skills. The second grade class is participating in the Hour of Code and beyond using Star Wars characters for computer programming. Inserting a table, sizing/cropping photos, and researching are a few of the skills the third grade class is learning while creating a flyer about Oregon. The Lewis and Clark Expedition discoveries are the topic for the fourth grade Infographic they are making in Microsoft Word. The middle school students learned how SWAY works and created some interesting and creative biographies that were then presented to the class. Excel is the program of choice for designing a large format poster on responsible digital citizenship for the seventh grade class.

Your generous donations toward technology have made it possible to extend the technology into the classrooms opening up many new and exciting learning opportunities.

Merry Christmas
Mrs. Veith
Technology and Library Teacher

Thank you for your generous support of the technology programs at St. Francis School. With the financial support from the Special Appeal at the auction and the generous giving of time and talent from our technology committee, this Fall we were able to initiate a 1:1 Ipad program in the seventh and eighth grade. Beginning in January we will implement an Ipad cart system for kindergarten through sixth grade.

Respect Life

Lord Jesus,
Reawaken in us respect for every unborn life, make us capable of seeing in the fruit of a mother's womb the miraculous work of the Creator, open our hearts to welcome generously every child that comes into life. Bless all families, sanctify the union of spouses, make fruitful their love. Console married couples who suffer because they are unable to have children and in Your goodness provide for them. Teach us all to care for orphaned or abandoned children, so they may experience the warmth of your Love, the consolation of Your divine Heart. Together with Mary, Your Mother, the great believer, in whose womb You took on our human nature, we wait to receive from You, our Only True God and Savior, the strength to love and serve life, in anticipation of living forever in You, in communion with the Blessed Trinity. Amen.
