From the desk of Father James

On this 12th Sunday in Ordinary Time, Jesus is asking his disciples that are with Him a question. This same question can also be directed to us, "who do you say that I am?"

This is an important question for us to reflect upon. Who DO we say that Jesus is? We answer this question in many different ways each day of our life. I am sure that if we wrote down what the answer to this question is for us, while our answers may vary, would in many ways be very similar. But what if we compared that written answer with how we live our lives?

We answer the question about who Jesus is to us and who we say that He is to the world by how we live our lives. We encounter the familiar question, "if you were to be arrested and put on trial as a Christian, what would the evidence be that would be brought against you?" Is there enough to convict us of being a Christian? This evidence that could be used against us, is the very answer to the question of who Jesus is. Would there even be enough evidence to arrest us?

We answer the question of who Jesus is by our actions and how we live our lives. Are we compassionate, loving? Are we a voice for those that do not have a voice? Are we kind, just, merciful? Do we stay away from gossip? Do we include others? Do we put others needs before our own needs? Do we proclaim the good news? These are just a few examples of what we can reflect upon and what our actions in these and many other areas say about who Jesus is.

Who do you say that the Son of God is?

On another note, these past couple of weeks have been very busy for us here in the parish. We have celebrated two weddings, one on June 4 (Sterling and Amy Langrell), the second was this weekend (Tom and Jucell Rogers).

We have laid to rest our brother Gary Thomas+ and our sister Shirley Steyaert+. May they rest in peace and may their families know of the prayers and support of our St. Francis community during this time.

I celebrated my third year anniversary as a priest (June 8) and began my 4th year of priestly ministry. It has indeed been a blessed three years and I look forward to the coming year ahead.

Finally, this past Monday we sent off our 8th graders with a great celebration as they graduated from St. Francis School. I am very proud of these kids and I pray that they will continue to succeed as they move on to the next chapter of their lives. And, Friday brought us to the conclusion of our 2015-2016 school year with field day in the morning and then, after noon dismissal, with a picnic in Snyder Park. Have a great summer kids and we will see you in the fall!!!!

In the Spirit of St. Francis...

LIVING THE JUBILEE YEAR OF MERCY WITH WORKS OF MERCY:

June:

Visit the sick

- Those who are sick are often forgotten or avoided. In spite of their illness, these individuals still have much to offer to those who take the time to visit and comfort them.

Serve

- Next time you make a meal that can be easily frozen, make a double batch and give it to a family in your parish who has a sick loved one.
- Give blood.
- Cook and deliver meals to the sick and homebound.
- Take communion to a homebound parishioner.
- Waste sites are always located in the poorer neighborhoods, which contributes to the higher rate of health issues in the low-income community: Clean up a local waste site.

Accompany

- Volunteer for St. Francis' new Care Ministry by contacting Jennifer Mirek
- Reach out to the friendless in your local nursing homes. Make time for those who may be "sick at heart" from being lonely and forgotten and who are regularly deprived of the basic human need called "friendship."
- Spend time volunteering at a nursing home - Get creative and make use of your talents (e.g. sing, read, paint, call Bingo, etc.)!
- Take time on a Saturday to stop and visit with an elderly neighbor.
- Offer to assist caregivers of chronically sick family members on a one-time or periodic basis.
- Give caregivers time off from their caregiving responsibilities so they can rest, complete personal chores, or enjoy a relaxing break.

Catholic Corner

After children have come of age, do they still have obligations to their parents? After children have come of age they are still obliged to love and respect their parents, and they have a serious obligation to care for them in time of need or in their old age. St. Paul Family Catechism, 653

Next Week: Which are the duties of parents towards their children?

Respect Life

This Sunday is Father's Day. It's a good time for all of us to remember something we don't hear enough: the relationship between a dad and his baby is precious. In honor of selfless, fearless, protective dads all around the world, let's spread the truth about the value of fatherhood.

The guys who fear becoming fathers don't understand that fathering is not something perfect men do, but something that perfects the man. ~First 1000 Days: A Catholic Culture of Life Initiative

Happy Father's Day to the Dads in our parish! Thank you for modeling God's love for your children! ~Your Parish Respect Life Ministry

Sunday June 19 Where All Are Welcomed and Loved With Mercy - Day 462 I cannot think of any need in childhood as strong as the need for a father's protection.
