From the desk of Father James

Jesus said: "I am the Good Shepherd. A good shepherd lays down his life for the sheep."

My brothers and sisters,

This 4th Sunday of Easter is referred to as Good Shepherd Sunday. This designation is due to the Gospel readings we hear each year on this 4th Sunday of Easter, the story of Jesus being the Good Shepherd.

We all need a shepherd in our life, someone that is going to lead us and guide us. I must say that there are many, many people that are willing to be a guide for us. There are those in our world that want us to follow them. Not all of these shepherds though are really looking out for our best interest. They often want us to follow them, but don't really care about what happens to us, especially if something threatens the sheep. These hireling shepherds will leave us high and dry.

Yet, our Gospel reminds us today that there is indeed a Good Shepherd in our world and that Good Shepherd is Jesus. He was sent by our Father in heaven to journey with us and guide us. Unlike the others in our world that want us to follow them, He will be with us no matter what. When storms arise or we are under attack, Jesus is there as the Good Shepherd, leading us to safety. Covering us in the storm, He lays down His life, so that we may be safe.

May the Good Shepherd watch over this flock, keeping us safe and giving us the example of how we can be Good Shepherds to the flock that have been put into our care.

In Easter Joy!

Fr. James

In the Spirit of St. Francis ...THANK YOU!

PARISH OF ST. FRANCIS:

How well was the name chosen for your parish!! I thank you for a wonderful visit and for especially how welcoming and kind you were. I certainly felt privileged to celebrate the liturgy with your community. I visit many parishes during the year and I will recall your parish, you people, as most special.

Thank you to all who so warmly responded to my request to join our UNBOUND Family. Your response was exceptional for choosing to sponsor 44 new individuals....both children and aging. You certainly will enjoy your new friendships that will continue to grow over the course of time. And I was so thankful that many stopped to visit and how many members are already sponsoring through UNBOUND.

And surely I was surprised and felt warmly welcomed by the many people who had family roots in Iowa. Thanks for sharing your stories. My trip home was long which featured a 5 1/2 hour layover in Denver due to mechanical difficulties so I arrived home late Monday eve.

I also enjoyed the warm hospitality of Deacon Bill and his wife Jeananne. They opened their home to me, made me feel most welcome and treated me to some wonderful home cooking as well as being a guest at the students Spaghetti Dinner. I hope you see how this weekend was special in so many ways. Father "Mac" McAleer

Care Ministry

Care Ministry

Volunteers needed! Loneliness and isolation are so detrimental to the health and well-being of us all, but especially our seniors, who may not be able to safely leave their homes and participate in our faith community.

Thankfully, isolation is a problem we can address as a parish. Bringing Christ and community to those who cannot physically be present at church is a vital responsibility of our faith family.

We need both men and women volunteers to help fill this loneliness gap. The commitment is usually one hour per week, at a time that works for both the volunteer and recipient.

Please consider being that special person who lights up the day of a senior at home. Contact Jennifer Mirek in the parish office to learn more about being a Friendly Visitor or Eucharistic Minister.

Mike also has extensive experience in public speaking, radio, television and video production related to Gerontology and aging. He produced and hosted "A Catholic Perspective on Aging" special for Eternal Word Television Network (EWTN), and was a featured guest on the "Franciscan University Presents" program which also aired on EWTN. Mike is also one of the co-authors of a bestselling textbook Introduction to Aging: A Positive Interdisciplinary Approach, published by Springer Publishing Company in 2014. Mike moved from Grand Rapids, Michigan, to Sherwood, Oregon, with his wife, Mary, and three of their six children in September 2015 to take a full-time Gerontology Instructor position at Portland Community College. Next weekend, April 28 & 29 is the collection for the Catholic Home Missions. If you would like to support this worthy cause you can pick up an envelope in the narthex or church entrances and place it in the collection basket next weekend.

Itel—Knights of Columbus—Contreras Scholarships—These scholarships are again available to any high school graduating senior who is a parishioner of St Francis. - put loose change, bills or checks in the bottles during the campaign;
- return your bottles to St. Francis the weekend of May 19 or whenever you fill them.

M&C has been operating continuously since 1971 and the money collected helps them offer hope, support, education and guidance (at no charge) to women who are pregnant and parenting to foster a community of competent, confident mothers. Services are available Monday-Saturday and after-hours through a parenting support line. Call 503-249-5801 for any questions.
