From the desk of Father James

“So then the Lord Jesus, after he spoke to them, was taken up into heaven
and took his seat at the right hand of God.
But they went forth and preached everywhere,
while the Lord worked with them and confirmed the word through accompanying signs.”

This weekend in our Church, we celebrate the Feast of the Ascension of the Lord. This celebration's proper day of remembrance was actually last Thursday, 40 days after the Lord's Resurrection. Jesus, after He was crucified, was taken from the cross and put into the tomb. When the disciples came the next morning, He was gone and for the 40 days following, He appeared to the first disciples and the apostles. This was a sign to them that what He said was indeed true, that He was alive and well. He helped to encourage the apostles to come out from their place of hiding and to start to carry out their mission of spreading the Gospel.

We are all called to be a part of this task as well. We are called to go out into the world and carry on the same task that Jesus started when He came and was born of our Blessed Mother. As I mentioned last weekend when I spoke about Mary and her crowning as Queen of heaven and earth, we honor her during these May days. This is due to her saying yes to God in bringing forth Jesus into the world.

We too carry out this task. We too are asked to say yes to God and His plan for us. We all work together in bringing about the kingdom here and now in our world today. As we start to get ready for the feast of Pentecost and the descent of the Holy Spirit, let us ask ourselves how this Holy Spirit can help us to bring about the Kingdom in our own community and lives each day. In what area's might we need some encouragement and extra help? How can the Spirit help us to be more fully connected to the Body of Christ?

On a second note, I want to take a moment to wish all of our mother's here in the church a very blessed and happy mother's day! May our loving and gentle God watch over you all and bless you as you continue to say yes to the task of loving the children that have been put into your care!! God bless.

In the Spirit of St. Francis...

- ♦ To Francis Gavin for making our sacristy candles from all the donated, recycled candles.
- ♦ To Merlie Hoffarber for the loan of the beautiful statue of Our Lady of Fatima displayed in the narthex.
- ♦ To St. Francis school children who all brought flowers to the Crowning of Mary on May 2.
- ♦ To Yvonne Nimeh for the lovely Irises that decorate our altar.
- ♦ To the staff of St. Francis for the delicious volunteer appreciation dinner.
- ♦ To Denny Devlin for mowing the field by the old hall.

In the Spirit of St. Francis ...THANK YOU!

We welcome you as we welcome Christ!

BOOK-OF-THE-MONTH

Prepare to celebrate our Blessed Mother during the month of May.

This month's Book-of-the-Month is Hail, Holy Queen:

The Mother of God in the Word of God

By Scott Hahn

ISBN: 9780385501699

In Hail Holy Queen: The Mother of God in the Word of God, Dr. Hahn brings to light the small but significant scriptural details revealing that just as Jesus is the "New Adam," so Mary is the "New Eve." He unveils the Marian mystery at the heart of the Book of Revelation and reveals how it is foretold in the very first pages of the Book of Genesis. He also finds evidence for Mary's Queenship in the story of the Davidic monarchy, which speaks of a privileged place for the Queen Mother and much, much more.

LOVE, WITH HELP FROM THE QUEEN OF THE PEACE

“In the spring a young man's fancy lightly turns to thoughts of love.” Lord Tennyson wrote these words more than a hundred years ago, articulating the behavior we of maturity have observed in young adults immediately as the rains abate and the snows melt.

Nearly 2000 years ago Jesus spoke about another type of love that He expected to observe in all people, young and mature, “This I command you: love one another.”

Paul repeats these words – “love one another” – and explains why, “because love is of God.” Then in direct and blunt fashion Paul articulates the reason for contrary behavior, “Whoever is without love does not know God, for God is love.”

We are called as Christians to thoughts and acts of love every season, every day and every hour. Love of neighbor becomes inseparable from ourselves as we integrate the unflinching practice of love for all into our core being.

In “God is love” (Deus Caritas Est) Pope Benedict XVI wrote that “everything has its origin in God's love, everything is shaped by it, everything is directed towards it. Love is God's greatest gift to humanity, it is His promise and our hope”

Pope Benedict later wrote that “Charity [love] is at the heart of the Church's social doctrine. [It] is the synthesis of the entire Law (cf. Mt 22:36-40).” “If we love others with charity, then first of all we are just towards them. Not only is justice not extraneous to charity, not only is it not an alternative or parallel path to charity: justice is inseparable from charity, and intrinsic to it.” Charity in truth (Caritas in Veritate)

The effect of our work of charity is peace. Respect for and development of human life requires peace, which is more than the mere absence of war. (Catechism of the Catholic Church: 2304) That is, peace is the fruit of our loving one another.

Pope Paul VI observed that if you want peace, work for justice. The effect of our working for justice is peace.

In a world where the unborn, the unfed, and the unloved are ignored, we show our love for one another by working for justice. By working for justice we intend to achieve peace, a universal peace where all life is respected and all life is shown proper dignity by having opportunities to flourish. When we love one another as Jesus commanded then peace is the result of our efforts. When we work for peace we are manifesting our love for one another.

When people of faith work for justice to achieve peace from no other motivation than to love our neighbors we will come to know God. Though our motivation comes from within, we must rely on the intercession of the saints for our continued strength and for the success of our labor: peace.

Pope Paul VI wrote that peace is not solely the work of man but also, and primarily, a gift from God. Peace comes from heaven. We shall obtain peace by praying particularly for the intercession and protection of the Blessed Virgin Mary, who is the Queen of peace. Mense Maio

Almost forty years later Pope John Paul II asked us to pray for peace by using a prayer that he wrote, “To Mary, the Light of Hope.” As we work for justice and demonstrate our Christian love for all as Jesus commanded, let us commemorate the month of May, Mary's month, and pray to the Queen of Peace for her help.

St. Francis School: Second Grade Showcase

St. Francis School is an amazing place to grow and learn together. We are here to nurture and develop the whole child to become the best-version-of-themselves, in order to share God's love with everyone.

In second grade we have a very special year together learning about God and participating in two Sacraments for the first time. In February, we made our First Reconciliation, and on Saturday, May 19th, we will make our First Holy Communion. We are so blessed to be able to learn about God and all of His creation in our classroom each day. Here at St. Francis School we can grow in faith in each subject and realize how blessed we are.

In the words of some of our second graders, as they describe our community.

We are...

...a HOME that welcomes...

"Just like I have family at home, my friends at school are like family." - Maddi

...a PARISH that evangelizes...

"We are lucky because we can go to church when we are at school." - Jack

We are...

...a SCHOOL that prepares for life...

"The best thing is that, at my old school, I didn't learn as much. Now, I learn more and I've learned to take responsibility for my own things and not blame other people." - Elijah

...a PLAYGROUND where friends meet...

"I like playing with my friends. They are caring, and help you out!" - Jordan

- Mrs. Larsen's second grade class

Happy Mother's Day!

We thank you, Creator of us all, for our mothers.
We thank you that she gave us life, and loves us still.

She gave us our faith, and introduced us to Jesus.
She teaches us how to love and sacrifice for others.

Bless her with the graces she needs, and help her to know I love her.

Give her strength, compassion and peace.
Bless her this day with your love.

Catholic Corner

Which are some of the chief duties of today's Catholics?

- 1) To keep holy the day of the Lord's resurrection: to worship God by participating in Mass every Sunday and holy day of obligation: to avoid those activities that would hinder renewal of soul and body.
- 2) To lead a sacramental life: to receive Holy Communion frequently and the Sacrament of Penance regularly: - minimally, to receive the Sacrament of Penance at least once a year; (annual confession is obligatory only if serious sin involved.) - minimally, to receive Holy Communion at least once a year, at Easter time, that is, between the First Sunday of Lent and Trinity Sunday. For good reason, the precept may be fulfilled at another time during the year.

St. Paul Family Catechism.

Respect Life

"Thank you, women who are mothers! You have sheltered human beings within yourselves in a unique experience of joy and travail. This experience makes you become God's own smile upon the newborn child, the one who guides your child's first steps, who helps it to grow, and who is the anchor as the child makes its way along the journey of life." So wrote Saint Pope John Paul II in his "Letter to Women." And as Saint Mother Teresa said, "That special power of loving that belongs to a woman is seen most clearly when she becomes a mother. Motherhood is the gift of God to women."

Motherhood...making our world something beautiful for God! As a small token of our appreciation for you we have donated the flowers in front of the Mary and Joseph statues in the sanctuary. Happy Mother's Day!
