Coffee Social Hosts - November 25

No Coffee Social – Happy Thanksgiving!

If you are unavailable for your scheduled time, please find a replacement Minister.

This Sunday's Gospel is from the Gospel of Mark 13:24-32. There are some obscurities in this extract from St. Mark. Firstly, because Christ was discussing and answering questions on two distinct topics : the destruction of the temple and the end of the world. Secondly, because we may not have the ipsissima verba of Christ here, as many exegetes suggest. The message we must learn from today's gospel comes across without any ambiguity or doubt : we must always be ready to face our judgement for we know not the day nor the hour when we will be called from this life. When or how this world will end is of no great importance to us; what is important is that we shall leave this world very soon and our eternity will depend on the state of our consciences at the moment of our departure.

This is the steady thought the Church, in her wisdom, wishes to put before our minds today. We all know that we must die someday. We are strangers and pilgrims on this earth; we have not here a lasting city, as St. Augustine says. No sane person among us will try to deny this and yet, many of us are so immersed in the things of this world that we forget or try to forget that we must leave this world soon. This is very natural : life is a precious gift and as our earthly life is the only one of which we have experience our every inclination is to hold on to it at all costs. Even when our intelligence tells us that it can, in spite of all our endeavors, end very soon we try to convince our-selves that that "very soon" is really in the distant future.

We have God's word for it and the example of Christ's resurrection to a life of glory. Let us appreciate the truth that our death on earth is not the end of life but rather the beginning of the true life that will never end. As the liturgy says in the Mass for the Dead : "Life is changed (by death) not taken away." Our death is the doorway through which we pass into the unending life. The years on earth are a gift of God to enable us to earn the infinitely greater gift which in his loving mercy he has prepared for us from all eternity.

God in his mercy is calling on each one of us to be ready when our call comes. We can do nothing about the when or the where of that call, but we can do much about the state of our relationship with God when death comes; in fact, aided by God's grace we can ensure that all will be well with us. We cannot avoid a sudden death, but we can avoid an unprepared death by striving always to live in peace with God. This does not mean that we must be always on our knees praying to God and that we must take no interest in the things and the joys of this world. Far from it. God wants us to use the things of this world, but to use them so that they will not hinder us on our journey.

A very practical way to see how we stand in relation to God and to the things of this world, is for each one of us to ask himself today : "How would I fare if I were called to render an account of stewardship tonight?"

This is the practical question that God, through today's readings, is asking us to put to ourselves. If, to our dismay, we find there are several things which have to be put right before facing our judge we will start right away to put them right. We may get another chance, another warning, and we may not. If we value our eternal happiness we will take this warning; we will put our books in order; we will make peace with God and our neighbors—and with God's grace we will do all in our power to persevere in this good resolution.

BOOK-OF-THE-MONTH

November's Book-of-the-Month is

Saints for Sinners
Nine Desolate Souls Made Strong by God
Archbishop Alban Goodier
ISBN#: 978-1-933184-28-9

These pages remind us that God's grace can conquer every human flaw. Christ came not to call saints but to make them — often out of weak and sinful men. That's why the saints are not only models of holiness for us to imitate; they're reminders that God's grace can outshine every human flaw.

As Alban Goodier's classic Saints for Sinners shows us, even the greatest saints had to battle the same stubborn vices, temptations of the flesh, and bouts of spiritual dryness that afflict you and me today. In these pages, with a style that perfectly blends hagiographical detail, spiritual meditation, and a skilled storyteller's touch, Archbishop Goodier brings us the tales of:

- + The mercenary fighting man and itinerant gambler who left behind his rough soldier's habits and founded a religious order to care for the sick
- + The willful Tuscan beauty with a bad reputation who forsook vanity and lust to answer God's call to live in poverty and penitence
- + The brilliant, brooding Spanish nobleman who gave up everything to be a missionary — only to see most of his efforts fail
- + The royal chaplain and daring Counter-Reformer who escaped the gallows but had to endure a lifelong interior martyrdom of doubt and discouragement
- + The hedonistic heretic and womanizer who traded worldly pleasure for divine happiness, and became one of the Church's greatest theologians
- + And other inspiring tales of imperfect souls "made perfect in infirmity"

Read these stories and find in them delight and encouragement, as well as hope. You'll come to see that there is no one so sinful, weak, or desolate that God has not already raised another like him to the heights of glory.

THANKFULNESS

Thanksgiving in the Kindergarten classroom involves not only turkeys, but also what it really means. In Religion we discuss the importance of saying "thank you." It means we like what another has done for us. When we hear someone thank us it gives us a happy feeling inside. We know to say thank you to others and also to God for giving us all that we have.

SERVICE PROJECT

Our class service project is a thank you to the soldiers of the 41st Infantry Division of the Oregon National Guard. First, we made cards thanking them for protecting us and presented them when several soldiers visited us for Veterans Day. Now we are collecting toys for their children. We have a few more days for our toy drive! If you'd like to donate a new, unwrapped toy please bring it to the school office by Wednesday, the 21st.

We hope to collect over 300 toys!

THANKSGIVING

We also have kept busy learning about the history of Thanksgiving through many activities: pilgrim coloring pages; turkey letter and number sorting games; stories about Plymouth, the Mayflower, turkeys and Thanksgiving; writing about our favorite food items from the meal; and Charlie Brown's classic cartoon. What we have learned is we are truly thankful for our families, our friends and our many blessings from God.

The Kindergarteners wish you a blessed Thanksgiving!

Catholic Corner

Which are the theological virtues? The theological virtues are faith, hope, and charity (or love.) St. Paul Family Catechism.

So faith, hope, love abide, these three; but the greatest of these is love (1 Cor. 13:13).

Next week: What is faith?

Announcements

Happening this Week:

This collection supports programs to empower people to identify and address the obstacles they face as they work to lift themselves out of poverty. By supporting this collection you give people a hand up, not a hand out. Learn more about the Catholic Campaign for Human Development at www.usccb.org/cchd/collection. Envelopes can be found in the narthex and the church entrances.

The Strong for Life exercise class will NOT meet the week of Thanksgiving, Monday, November 19 and Wednesday, November 21.

The Knights of Columbus will be hosting the monthly Rosary this Tuesday, November 20 at 7:00 pm in the chapel. All are welcome to honor our Blessed Mother by praying the Rosary with us.

Parish Announcements:

Come and make an Advent Wreath with your family after the 8:00 am and 10:30 am Masses on Sunday, December 2. An Advent Wreath is a sacramental that helps us as families prepare for the coming of Jesus at Christmas.

We are putting together a children's choir for the 5:00 pm Christmas Eve Mass on Monday, December 24. If you are in elementary school, and would like to be part of the choir for the Christmas Eve Mass, please call the parish office to sign up. We will have one practice before Christmas Eve. The practice will take place on Sunday, December 16 at 9:15 am in the church. Thank you for singing in our choir on Christmas Eve.

Children in Elementary and Middle School: We are going to have a Living Nativity Scene during the Gospel at the 5:00 pm Christmas Eve Mass. We need shepherds and angels and a few other parts. There are no speaking parts for this, just a willingness to be part of the Nativity Scene and to walk up to the altar when prompted. We will provide the costumes. We will have a practice on Sunday December 16 at 11:30 am in the church. If you would like to take part in this, please call the parish office and leave your name and phone number. We need to know how many of you will be participating, so please call the parish office by Monday, December 3.

During the season of Advent, we are asking a family each week to come up and light the Advent Wreath during the singing of the Prelude song just before Mass starts. If your family would like to participate in lighting the wreath, please email the parish office at church@stfrancissherwood.org and leave your name, the Sunday, and Mass time you would like to participate in lighting the wreath. Thank you for your participation in our Advent liturgies.
