Twenty-First Sunday in Ordinary Times

"Jesus went into the region of Caesarea Philippi and he asked his disciples, 'Who do people say that the Son of Man is?' They replied, 'Some say John the Baptist, others Elijah, still others Jeremiah or one of the prophets.' He said to them, 'But who do you say that I am?' Simon Peter said in reply, 'You are the Christ, the Son of the living God.' Jesus said to him in reply, 'Blessed are you son of John...'"

First Reading: Isaiah 22:19-23

This passage refers to the use of authority and indicates the Key as the symbol of authority. The words "open" and "shut" refer to the power that will eventually be given to Peter.

Second Reading: Romans 11:33-36

Paul writes ecstatic and praise-filled words about God's plan for his people. In him, he writes, "all things are."

Gospel: Matthew 16:13-20

When Jesus asks his disciples, "Who do you say that I am?" Peter exclaims, "You are the Messiah!" Christ then declares that Peter is the "Rock" upon which he will build his Church, promising him the power "to bind" and "to loose."

Prayer for the Poor

God of Justice, open our eyes to see you in the face of the poor. Open our ears to hear you in the cries of the exploited. Open our mouths to defend You in the public squares as well as in private deeds. Remind us that what we do to the least ones, we do to You. Amen.

Prayer for the Sick

God of goodness and love, hear our prayers for the sick and for all who are in need. Amid mental and physical suffering may they find consolation in your healing presence. Show your mercy as you close wounds, cure illness, make broken bodies whole and free downcast spirits. May these individuals find lasting health and deliverance and so join us in thanking You for all your gifts. Amen.

Prayer for Respect Life

O Mary, bright dawn of the new world, Mother of the living, to you do we entrust the cause of life. Look down, O Mother, upon the vast numbers of babies not allowed to be born, of the poor whose lives are made difficult, of the men and women who are victims of brutal violence, of the elderly and the sick killed by indifference or out of misguided mercy. Grant that all who believe in your Son may proclaim the Gospel of life with honesty and love to the people of our time. Obtain for them the grace to accept that Gospel as a gift ever-new, the joy of celebrating it with gratitude throughout their lives, and the courage to bear witness to it resolutely in order to build, together with all people of good will, the civilization of truth and love, to the praise and glory of God, the Creator and lover of life. Amen.

Prayer For Priestly Vocations

Almighty and Eternal God, in Your unfailing love You provide ministers for Your Church. We pray that more men may hear Your call to serve the Church of Metuchen as priests. Inspire in them a generous response. Grant them courage and vision to serve Your people. May their lives and service as Men of the Eucharist call Your people to respond to the presence of Jesus Christ so that we may all be reconciled to God, announce glad tidings to the poor, proclaim liberty to captives, set prisoners free and renew the face of the earth. Amen.

Pope Francis

"The Human Family"

"Recognize human dignity in every person"

"My Dear Brothers and Sisters:

Pope Francis, continuing his catechesis on the effects of the current pandemic in light of the Church's social doctrine, noted how Covid-19 has highlighted how vulnerable and interconnected everyone is. "If we do not take care of one another, starting with the least, with those who are most impacted, including creation", he said, "we cannot heal the world."

Pope Francis went on to say that at times others are seen as objects to be "used and discarded." In reality, he said, "this type of gaze blinds and fosters an individualistic and aggressive throw-away culture, which transforms the human being into a consumer good". But if we are guided by faith, noted the Pope, we recognize God creates men and women, not as objects, "but as people loved and capable of loving, in His image and likeness."

Vatican Publishing House publishes downloadable .pdf publication containing Pope Francis's daily homilies from Casa Santa Marta and prayers suggested for the Coronavirus pandemic.

While the world awaits a cure to the coronavirus, Pope Francis stressed that "faith exhorts us to commit ourselves seriously and actively to combat indifference in the face of violations of human dignity; faith always requires us to let ourselves be healed and to convert from our individualism, both personal and collective."

May the Lord "restore our sight", the Pope said, "so as to rediscover what it means to be members of the human family."

The Maritimes World

We pray for all those who work and live from the sea, among them sailors, fishermen and their families.

Most Reverend

James F. Checchio

Bishop of Metuchen

"Thanks for return to Mass, sacraments, new clergy - Part I"

"My Dear Brothers and Sisters:

These days our lives seem like anything but normal. Our usual and planned vacations this summer have been cancelled or disrupted by restricted travel. Most summer camps and vacation Bible schools are either not opened or have been scaled back. Even simple family barbecues are not held.

Since March there have been very few people I have socialized with in person. In fact, to be cautious, I only visit my 83-year-old mother outdoors, even though I have had no symptoms of COVID-19. The warmer weather has certainly helped us in this regard, as it seems the virus is less contagious outside, and I know we try to focus our gatherings accordingly.

As the routines of our life continue to change, so have our religious practices and prayer. Pastors tell me that the number of people coming for confession is thankfully getting back to the numbers previous to the virus outbreak. The number of people attending weekday and Sunday Mass in person is still down quite a bit, but many still choose to participate virtually. Some families come during the week for Mass when the crowds are smaller, and then participate in Sunday Mass online. Thanks be to God for the option of virtual Mass and spiritual communion, especially for the elderly and those with underlying medical conditions.

Virtual celebration of sacraments, however, will never become the "new" normal. These "virtual" celebrations are helpful measures for an extraordinary time. The sacraments, one of the greatest gifts the Lord left to His Church, are designed to be personal. Ours is a "bodily religion," which means that we admit we are both body and soul. The act of bringing our "body" to the gathered community in Church for worship of the Father is the unique way that Christ has designed for us to receive His sacramental grace.

Congratulations to Rev. Fredy Triana-Beltran, Rev. David Keys, Rev. Thomas Lanza, Rev. Gustavo Rodriguez, and Rev. Gilbert Stracher, on their ordination to the priesthood. We pray that God will continue to bless them in their priesthood and keep them close to His son, Jesus Christ.

Thank You, Thomas!

We wish Thomas Pluhar well as he returns to the Seminary this week. He has been a blessing to our parish this summer and we are thankful for his ministry and presence here at Mary, Mother of God. He will be with us once again on his Christmas and Easter breaks. Please remember to pray for Thomas and all our Seminarians as they continue their journey to the priesthood.

Bishop's Annual Appeal 2020

Even in these uncertain and challenging days, the mission of our Church is relevant and critical to truly be Disciples of Christ and to bring Him to those that need Him the most. Thanks to the generosity of our parish family, Mary, Mother of God Church is presently at 97.5% of our parish Bishop's Annual Appeal Goal of $166,000. Your personal commitment will help us to reach our goal and will allow many programs to Step Forward in Faith and to put Grace in Action.

Mass Book 2021

The 2021 Mass Book opened on Sunday, June 28. In addition to requests for daily and weekend Mass intentions, enrollments in the Mary, Mother of God Memorial Society are now being accepted. Members share in the following spiritual benefits:

- a monthly Mass offered on First Mondays at 7:30 p.m. through 2021.
- a remembrance in the All Souls' Day Mass – November 2, 2021.

The forms for these requests are available in the Parish Office and on the website. The stipend for a Mass Intention is $10. The stipend for an enrollment in the Memorial Society is $50. Please be aware that this year Mass requests will be limited to five Masses. If you have any questions, or need any additional information, please call the parish office at 908-874-8220, Ext. 302.

Stewardship Reflection

Twenty-First Sunday in Ordinary Time

"Or who has given the Lord anything that he may be repaid?" (Romans 11:35)

St. Paul reminds us of a central fact of stewardship. We cannot give the Lord anything - God already owns it all. God made everything. All we can do is return a portion of God's many gifts back to Him. Sincere gratitude for our gifts opens our hearts to joyful generosity! Through your generous sharing, you just may be the answer to someone's prayer.

Adult RCIA

Session begins in October for those thinking of or wanting to become Catholics. If interested, please contact Betty Buettner at RCIA@marymotherofgod.org or call the parish office (908) 874-8220 to leave your name and contact information.

Parish Office

The Parish Office is now open daily from 9:15 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Monday-Thursday and Monday evenings from 7:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m. Please wear a mask and only one person at a time will be allowed in the office. Summer schedule, the Parish Office will be closed on Fridays through Labor Day weekend.
