Confirmation

Next Sunday, Bishop Brennan will be here to celebrate the 11:30 a.m. Mass and confirm a number of young people from St. Peter and St. Mary parishes. This is an exciting time for them and for our parishes. Please keep them in your prayers as they prepare to receive this Sacrament, which strengthens in them the spiritual gifts bestowed by the Holy Spirit.

A reminder from the Catechism about the gifts and fruits of the Holy Spirit:

The seven gifts of the Holy Spirit are wisdom, understanding, counsel, fortitude, knowledge, piety, and fear of the Lord. They belong in their fullness to Christ, Son of David. They complete and perfect the virtues of those who receive them. They make the faithful docile in readily obeying divine inspirations. (CCC 1831)

The fruits of the Spirit are perfections that the Holy Spirit forms in us as the first fruits of eternal glory. The tradition of the Church lists twelve of them: "charity, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, generosity, gentleness, faithfulness, modesty, self-control, chastity." (CCC 1832)

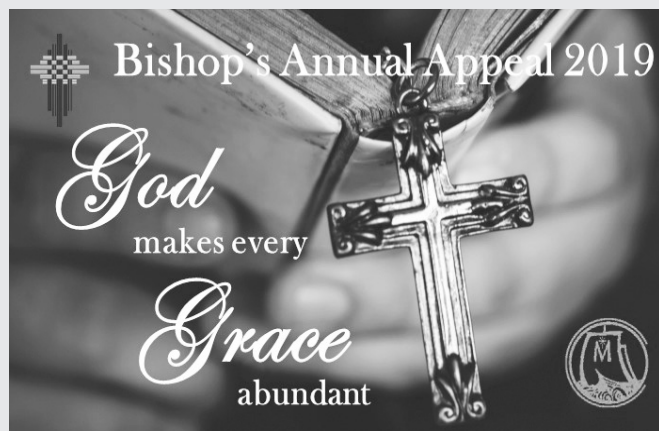

May we pray that all of us be open to the promptings of the Holy Spirit and as docile and willing as the Blessed Mother Mary. Mother Mary, Spouse of the Holy Spirit, Pray for Us!

Memorial Day

As we celebrate Memorial Day this weekend, we remember the sacrifices made in order to ensure that we live in freedom and peace. We pray for all of those who have given the ultimate gift of their life, in order that we might be free and we pray for those who are in harm's way in their service to their country. We also thank all those who have served or continue to serve their country through the armed forces.

A reminder that Mass will be celebrated on Memorial Day at St. Margaret's Cemetery at 11:00 a.m. (In event of rain, Mass will be held at St. Peter). The Military Committee of St. Peter will be providing refreshments afterwards. Please join us to honor our veterans and pray to God for them and in thanksgiving for their service.

In Christ,
Fr. Hahn

Fill the shelves of the food pantry!! As a reminder, items always in need are canned fruit, corn, and peas, pasta meals in pull-top cans, pasta sauce, cereal, tuna, peanut butter, and SOUP. Items can be placed in the baskets found in the vestibule of Church or brought to the parish hall during office hours. A great opportunity to do this will be on Saturday, June 8...the 1st Annual food drive for the Food Pantry. From 10:00 a.m.-3:00 p.m., you can drive up to the side of the building and volunteers will be there to take your donations. No need to get out of the car! Invite your family and friends to do the same! When school is out for the summer, the Food Pantry is hit harder with families needing additional food to supplement the school breakfasts and lunches their children would normally receive. This is a way to live out the mission statement of the parish! Contact Ann Hamm for additional information.

What was the early Church like?

Contrary to popular belief,

Rod Bennett shows there is a reliable way to know.

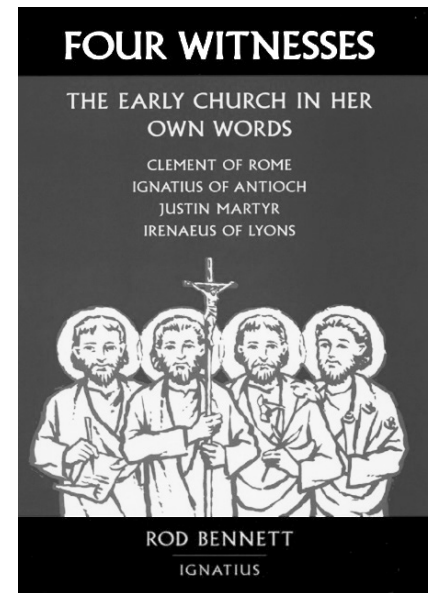

Four ancient Christian writers, four witnesses to early Christianity left us an extensive body of documentation on this vital subject, and this book brings their fascinating testimony to life for modern believers.

With all the power and drama of a gripping novel, this book is a journey of discovery of ancient and beautiful truths through the lives of four great saints of the early Church:

Clement of Rome, Ignatius of Antioch, Justin Martyr, and Irenaeus of Lyons.

YEAR OF THE FAMILY

Celebrating Saints and Feasts to Enrich Hearts and Homes

Week of May 26th-June 1st

The Visitation of The Blessed Virgin Mary (May 31st)

When the Angel Gabriel announced to the Virgin Mary that she was to conceive the child Jesus in her womb, her reply was "How shall this be, as I know not man?", to which Gabriel responded with the extraordinary news that her cousin Elizabeth had conceived of a child in her old age and was 6 months along already. Although this news could have been construed as simple proof of the truth of the Angel's message, Mary went "...in haste..." to visit her cousin, not to verify the truth of the Angel's words but in an act of love and service born of the Supreme act of love of the Incarnation that had just occurred in her – Love begets love, and Mary is our prime example of this. The picture to the right depicts the moment of Mary's arrival at the home of Elizabeth and their mutual joy and celebration of one another's presence and pregnancy. Mary arrived at her cousin's home to be of service to Elizabeth in her time of need, but also to celebrate the Love and Mercy of God that had been bestowed upon them both in superabundance. Thus Mary is also our example of the Joy and Celebration that should flow naturally from us as a result of the Love and Mercy God constantly pours into our lives. Take some time this week to consider how you can share the Love and Mercy of God with your relatives, neighbours or friends, perhaps even with a "visit" in imitation of our Lady. (Bring along some blueberry muffins – recipe below.)

FEASTING WITH THE SAINTS

Visiting Blueberry Muffins

3 cups all-purpose flour
1 1/2 cup white sugar
1 teaspoon salt
4 teaspoons baking powder
2/3 cup vegetable oil
2 eggs
2/3 cup milk
2 teaspoons vanilla
3 cup fresh or frozen blueberries

Crumb Topping:

2/3 cup brown sugar
1/4 cup all-purpose flour
3 Tbs. butter, cubed

Preheat oven to 400 degrees F (200 degrees C). Spray muffin pan with Pam or other non-stick spray or line with muffin liners. Combine flour, sugar, salt and baking powder in large bowl. In a 2-cup measuring cup, place vegetable oil, eggs, vanilla, and enough milk (just over 2/3 cups) to fill to the 2-cup mark. Mix this with flour mixture. Fold in blueberries. (Note: The batter is extremely thick.) Fill muffin cups right to the top for oversized muffins. To make the crumb topping: mix together 2/3 cup brown sugar, 1/4 cup flour, 3 Tbs. butter, and 1/2 teaspoons cinnamon. Mix with a fork, and sprinkle over muffins before baking. Bake for 20 to 25 minutes in the preheated oven, or until done. This recipe yields approximately 12-16 extra generously sized delicious muffins.
