Liturgy

08.01.21 Eighteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Reading I — Ex 16:2-4, 12-15

The whole Israelite community grumbled against Moses and Aaron. The Israelites said to them, “Would that we had died at the LORD’s hand in the land of Egypt, as we sat by our fleshpots and ate our fill of bread! But you had to lead us into this desert to make the whole community die of famine!” Then the LORD said to Moses, “I will now rain down bread from heaven for you. Each day the people are to go out and gather their daily portion; thus will I test them, to see whether they follow my instructions or not. “I have heard the grumbling of the Israelites. Tell them: In the evening twilight you shall eat flesh, and in the morning you shall have your fill of bread, so that you may know that I, the LORD, am your God.” In the evening quail came up and covered the camp. In the morning a dew lay all about the camp, and when the dew evaporated, there on the surface of the desert were fine flakes like hoarfrost on the ground. On seeing it, the Israelites asked one another, “What is this?” for they did not know what it was. But Moses told them, “This is the bread that the LORD has given you to eat.”

Responsorial Psalm — Ps 78:3-4, 23-24, 25, 54

R. (24b) The Lord gave them bread from heaven.

- What we have heard and know, and what our fathers have declared to us, we will declare to the generation to come the glorious deeds of the LORD and his strength and the wonders that he wrought.
- He commanded the skies above and opened the doors of heaven; he rained manna upon them for food and gave them heavenly bread.
- Man ate the bread of angels, food he sent them in abundance. And he brought them to his holy land, to the mountains his right hand had won.

Reading II — Eph 4:17, 20-24

Brothers and sisters:

I declare and testify in the Lord that you must no longer live as the Gentiles do, in the futility of their minds; that is not how you learned Christ, assuming that you have heard of him and were taught in him, as truth is in Jesus, that you should put away the old self of your former way of life, corrupted through deceitful desires, and be renewed in the spirit of your minds, and put on the new self, created in God’s way in righteousness and holiness of truth.

Gospel — Jn 6:24-35

When the crowd saw that neither Jesus nor his disciples were there, they themselves got into boats and came to Capernaum looking for Jesus. And when they found him across the sea they said to him, “Rabbi, when did you get here?” Jesus answered them and said, “Amen, amen, I say to you, you are looking for me not because you saw signs but because you ate the loaves and were filled. Do not work for food that perishes but for the food that endures for eternal life, which the Son of Man will give you. For on him the Father, God, has set his seal.” So they said to him, “What can we do to accomplish the works of God?” Jesus answered and said to them, “This is the work of God, that you believe in the one he sent.” So they said to him, “What sign can you do, that we may see and believe in you? What can you do? Our ancestors ate manna in the desert, as it is written: He gave them bread from heaven to eat.” So Jesus said to them, “Amen, amen, I say to you, it was not Moses who gave the bread from heaven; my Father gives you the true bread from heaven. For the bread of God is that which comes down from heaven and gives life to the world.” So they said to him, “Sir, give us this bread always.” Jesus said to them, “I am the bread of life; whoever comes to me will never hunger, and whoever believes in me will never thirst.”

July 31—In the year 1521 a cannon ball fractured the left leg of Captain Ignatius Loyola, the future founder of the Jesuits. While he was convalescing, Ignatius read about Christ and His saints and thus turned wholly to God. He then undertook to equip himself for Christ's service by acquiring a good classical and theological education. The members of the Society of Jesus became the shock troops of the Church in the battle against the spread of Protestantism in Europe, as well as one of the greatest foreign mission organizations that the world has known. Ignatius died on July 31, 1556.

Ministries: Altar Servers, Eucharistic Ministers, Lectors, and Ushers/Greeters

As we get back to in-church services, additional volunteers are needed to join the team of Liturgical Ministers.

Lectors, Ushers and Eucharistic Ministers are needed to assist in the sharing the Word at Mass, guide people in church and assist the priest to distribute the Eucharist at Mass. If you were thinking of ways you could get involved in our parish community, kindly consider being part of these ministries. Contact the parish office at 914.949.2323 or email at HNJVValhallaNY@gmail.com to volunteer.

Please continue to help keep our Church community safe and healthy by wearing a mask indoors as per CDC guidelines. Holy Name of Jesus and the Archdiocese of NY follow the CDC guidelines for masking indoors during the ongoing pandemic.

If you or your family, including children 2-12 are unvaccinated, PLEASE wear masks indoors in our Church. This will help reduce the spread of the Covid virus, especially the new Delta variant which is highly contagious.

Just a few facts to consider...as of 7/22, per the Westchester County dashboard; only 51.7% of Valhalla's residents have been vaccinated, which means 48.3% have not and are still of risk to themselves and others. If you have been full vaccinated, feel free to wear your mask in church for additional protection.

Let's continue to be vigilant in protecting one another. "Love thy neighbor as thy self".

In Christ Alone

Keith Getty and Stuart Townend

In Christ alone my hope is found, he is my light, my strength, my song; this cornerstone, this solid ground, firm through the fiercest drought and storm. What heights of love, what depths of peace, when fears are stilled, when strivings cease. My comforter, my all in all, here in this love of Christ I stand.

Miracle of Grace

Curtis Stephan

Miracle of grace, mystery of faith, calling us to venture to the deep. Though our senses fail, your graces still prevail, and we become the love that we receive.

Refrain

Bread of life, bread of life. Those who eat this bread shall live and never die. Bread of life, bread of life. Your true presence in this holy sacrifice. Bread of life.

We Remember

Marty Haugen

We remember how you loved us to your death, and still we celebrate, for you are with us here; and we believe that we will see you when you come in your glory, Lord. We remember, we celebrate, we believe.

Here, a million wounded souls are yearning just to touch you and be healed. Gather all your people, and hold them to your heart.

We remember how...

Now we recreate your love, we bring the bread and wine to share a meal. Sign of grace and mercy, the presence of the Lord.

Glory and Praise to Our God

Daniel L. Schutte

Glory and praise to our God, who alone gives light to our days. Many are the blessings he bears to those who trust in his ways.

1. We, the daughters and sons of him who built the valleys and plains, praise the wonders our God has done in ev'ry heart that sings.

2. In his wisdom he strengthens us, like gold that's tested in fire. Though the power of sin prevails, our God is there to save.
