Liturgy

05.08.22 - Fourth Sunday of Easter

Reading I — Acts 13:14, 43-52

Paul and Barnabas continued on from Perga and reached Antioch in Pisidia. On the sabbath they entered the synagogue and took their seats. Many Jews and worshipers who were converts to Judaism followed Paul and Barnabas, who spoke to them and urged them to remain faithful to the grace of God. On the following sabbath almost the whole city gathered to hear the word of the Lord. When the Jews saw the crowds, they were filled with jealousy and with violent abuse contradicted what Paul said. Both Paul and Barnabas spoke out boldly and said, "It was necessary that the word of God be spoken to you first, but since you reject it and condemn yourselves as unworthy of eternal life, we now turn to the Gentiles. For so the Lord has commanded us, I have made you a light to the Gentiles, that you may be an instrument of salvation to the ends of the earth." The Gentiles were delighted when they heard this and glorified the word of the Lord. All who were destined for eternal life came to believe, and the word of the Lord continued to spread through the whole region. The Jews, however, incited the women of prominence who were worshipers and the leading men of the city, stirred up a persecution against Paul and Barnabas, and expelled them from their territory. So they shook the dust from their feet in protest against them, and went to Iconium. The disciples were filled with joy and the Holy Spirit.

Responsorial Psalm—Ps 100:1-2, 3, 5

R (3c) We are his people, the sheep of his flock.

- Sing joyfully to the LORD, all you lands; serve the LORD with gladness; come before him with joyful song.
- Know that the LORD is God; he made us, his we are; his people, the flock he tends.
- The LORD is good: his kindness endures forever, and his faithfulness, to all generations.

Reading II—Rev 7:9, 14b-17

I, John, had a vision of a great multitude, which no one could count, from every nation, race, people, and tongue. They stood before the throne and before the Lamb, wearing white robes and holding palm branches in their hands. Then one of the elders said to me, "These are the ones who have survived the time of great distress; they have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb. "For this reason they stand before God's throne and worship him day and night in his temple. The one who sits on the throne will shelter them. They will not hunger or thirst anymore, nor will the sun or any heat strike them. For the Lamb who is in the center of the throne will shepherd them and lead them to springs of life-giving water, and God will wipe away every tear from their eyes."

Alleluia—Jn 10:14

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

I am the good shepherd, says the Lord; I know my sheep, and mine know me.

Gospel —Jn 10:27-30

Jesus said: "My sheep hear my voice; I know them, and they follow me. I give them eternal life, and they shall never perish. No one can take them out of my hand. My Father, who has given them to me, is greater than all, and no one can take them out of the Father's hand. The Father and I are one."

May 10—St. John of Avila, was declared a Doctor of the Church by Pope St. John Paul II in 2012. After studying law, he left the university to be a hermit. He was ordained in Alcalá. John drew great crowds with his fiery enunciations of evil and his many sermons. A brief imprisonment by the Inquisition in Seville made him even more popular. His missionary efforts were centered on Andalusia, and his letters and other writings have become Spanish classics. John was canonized in 1970.

May 12—Our Lady of Fatima —The Blessed Virgin Mary is venerated under this title Our Lady of Fatima following apparitions to three shepherd Children; Lucia, Jacinta and Francisco in Portugal in 1917. The message of Fatima includes a call to conversion of heart, repentance from sin and a dedication to the Blessed Virgin Mary, especially through praying the Rosary.

Happy Mother's Day!

Dear Lord, Bless every Mother, grandmother and Mother figure with the finest of your spiritual blessings today. Confirm in her heart and spirit the work of her hands and the love that she has so freely given to those children under Your care. Let her joy be contagious; let her passion be pure; and let her life overflow with all the blessings she deserves—on special days, and on every day of her life. In Jesus's name, Amen

Food Donation Weekend

Our May food collection will be the weekend of May 21/22.

All food will be given to the Interfaith Food Pantry of Mt Pleasant. Please place all donations in the black bins in the church vestibules before or after all weekend Masses.

Most needed items this month- canned and dried beans, canned and dried fruit, Parmalat milk, coffee and tea, tuna fish, diapers size 5, and toiletries.

Please only donate food that has not yet reached it's "sell by" date. No glass jars and no perishable food items please.

Thank you for helping people who are food insecure in our community.

Also needed are large plastic bag, similar to the bags from Fresh Direct, Hello Fresh, etc. The pantry needs the bags for their clients to take home their donated items. The bags may be dropped off in the Social Concern bins in the vestibules. Thank you!

Food Pantry Transportation Help Needed

Help is needed to transport food from our church to the Mt Pleasant Interfaith Food Pantry after the 10:00am and 12:00 Masses on Sunday, May 22. You can drop off the food at the pantry or stay and help to put the food on the shelves.

Please contact Maureen at 946-9334, or MMCL16@optonline.net if you can help.

All Lenten Rice Bowls should now be returned. If you have not already done so, please drop off your bowl at the rectory, the RE office, or put it in the Sunday collection basket. So far we have collected about $3000.00 for Catholic Relief Services. Among their many projects, they are helping the people of Ukraine. Thank you all so very much for your generosity and helping this most worthwhile charity.

We are collecting the following items year-round:

NEW men's underwear, NEW men's socks, travel sized toiletries, men's sneakers, and backpacks.

All items may be dropped off in the Social Concerns bins. Thank you!

Credo Young Adult Group: Credo is a group for 18-35 year olds. We're based primarily in St. Patrick's in Yorktown, but are open to all people/parishes in Westchester and surrounding counties.

Vision Statement: We want to lead as many young adults to the Faith as possible for the renewal of the Church and the culture at large. Our meetings and events help young adults to 1) know 2) love 3) and serve God better.

What We Do: Along with our monthly faith formation meetings we have retreats, adoration, dances, sport games, Men's and Women's colloquies, and many other activities! All are welcome!

Catholic Social Widows and Widowers Group.

We meet monthly, at Church of St Pius X, 91 Secor Rd, Scarsdale to honor our deceased spouses with a Mass at 7 PM in the main church, followed by a social meeting with refreshments, masks are required regardless of vaccination status. We plan activities and have meals at local area restaurants.
