REST IN PEACE

Willis Peter Wagner, brother-in-law of Loras Clemen.

DEAR PARISHIONERS,

In August of 2010 the Subaru Car company put out an ad on TV called "Baby Driver" featuring a father handing over the car keys to his daughter as she sets off to drive alone for the first time. The ad starts with a 6-year-old girl behind the wheel of a Subaru Legacy, while her father gives her the "safety talk" through the passenger side window. When he passes her the keys we see that it has really been his 16-year-old daughter that about to take her first drive alone even though her Dad still sees her as his little baby girl.

In January 2011 – American Family Insurance Company produced a Teen Driver Commercial. In this commercial it is a teenage boy who is about to receive the car keys from his father. At that very same moment, the father is having flash backs to this same son who, in earlier years, is intentionally crashing his Big Wheel into the garage door with delight; running his skateboard into the curb and tumbling in the grass; jumping his bicycle over a ramp and wiping out; and finally, destroying cars as he is playing a video game of race cars.

We have Subaru featuring the safety of the car and we have American Family Insurance offering us a Comprehensive Plan. In each ad we have the father handing on the keys to the next generation while having thoughts of times past. Both fathers show an extreme amount of apprehension and anxiety on their faces.

In the gospel we see Jesus entrusting the keys of the kingdom of heaven into the hands of Peter. While Jesus does that he is not having thoughts of the past but rather exciting visions and hopes for the future. However, it is just a few lines later in that same gospel reading that Peter seems to dash the hopes of Jesus as Peter begins to think not as God does but as human beings do.

Peter is not the anointed one but he is the appointed one. So, that reality moves us to pray for the Pope as we should also pray for the Archbishop Elect, pray for your pastor, pray for yourselves as parents.

We may not have been entrusted with the keys to the Kingdom of Heaven but we have been entrusted with the responsibilities of Discipleship being in the driver's seat behind the wheel. We need God the Father's grace in order to think like God does and not as human beings do. It is better for us to envision God's face being filled with exciting visions and hopes for the future rather than being like that of the two fathers in the commercial ads being filled with apprehension and anxiety.

Fr. Phil Gibbs, Pastor

A FAMILY PERSPECTIVE

Like Jesus in today's gospel, we are seen by others in different ways. Perhaps the name our family gives us is closest to our true identity. They know us best. Who do they say you are?

—Bud Ozar

MARRIAGE ENRICHMENT

In today's Gospel, Peter professes, "You are the Christ, the Son of the living God" (Mt 16:16).

Do you proclaim Christ as your Savior in your daily life? In your marriage?

VOCATION VIEWS

Peter received his special call when he acknowledged Jesus as Messiah. We who believe in Jesus as Lord and Savior also receive a special call. Ask the Lord to direct your heart. (Matthew 16:13-20)

Please pray for all seminarians of the Archdiocese of Dubuque and those in formation for religious life.

Prayer for Vocations

God our Father, we thank you for calling men and women to serve in your Son's Kingdom as priests, deacons, religious, and consecrated persons. Send your Holy Spirit to help us respond generously and courageously to your call. May our community of faith support vocations of sacrificial love in our youth. We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Workshop Description:

It can be difficult to understand, communicate, and connect with people who have Alzheimer's or dementia. They may say or do things that don't make sense, or they may become upset or angry. Finding creative ways to react and respond can make a big difference in the quality of their lives and enhance on-going relationships.

Providing state-of-the-art information grounded in Alzheimer's science, and teaching unique techniques drawn from spiritual practices and creative drama, this inspiring caregiver resilience workshop helps participants to:

- Expand their understanding of dementia
- Be present in the moment
- Accept what is
- Meet persons with dementia in their reality
- Let go of the need to control
- Find meaning and healing as a caregiver

Workshop Leader: Rev. Dr. Jade Angelica

Jade is a respected dementia educator who has led workshops and conference presentations throughout the country since 2007. Her workshops have been found to provide effective caregiver education by neuropsychology researchers at The University of Iowa, and she is the author of Where Two Worlds Touch: A Spiritual Journey Through Alzheimer's Disease. Jade's most important and fruitful ministry, to date, has been caring for her mother, Jeanne, who died from Alzheimer's in 2011.
