DEAR PARISHIONERS,

The following families have joined Resurrection parish in August:

Colleen Sroka

Eunice Kokemiller

Charles & Patricia Bismack

We are in the midst of Labor Day weekend. During this time many people have been granted a day of rest from their work on Monday. As millions of people in this country enjoy a respite from their labors, our hope is that they take some time to reflect on the goodness of life and the blessings that come from the work of their hands. We also remember the hard workers that have gone before us and the great labor they put forth to support their families, communities and churches in order to give glory to God.

We should, at this time, also reflect on the goodness of the Lord and the gifts that came from the work of God's hands. We should because it is through the work of Jesus, that labor of love, that we have been granted our salvation. It was through Jesus' precious blood, sweat and tears that he shed on the cross that has established a place for us in the eternal kingdom of heaven.

St. Paul's second letter to the Corinthians (2 Corinthians 4:14-5:1) addresses this by describing that our salvation is fixing our gaze and directing our efforts, not on the here and now, but on what is "unseen and hoped for." St. Paul claims that no believer is really at home in the world but that we should look for and long to live in the "Newness of Life."

Our Earthly dwelling is only a part of the meaning of our existence. We await our full redemption and one day we will be with God at last in heaven. As St. Paul mentions, we walk by faith and not by sight. We find our confidence in the Spirit. And so, our Earthly lives must be marked by acts of faith which are labors of love. Our faith gives our lives a dynamic in which we place total confidence in our desire to be with the Lord.

The purpose of the life of faith is not to completely understand God's will but to acknowledge that there is a God; that God oversees all of us; and that the life of faith that we are called to live includes doing labor for the Lord.

The Gospel of Matthew (Matthew 11:25-30) reminds us that Jesus awaits those who do his work. "Come to me, all you who labor and are burdened, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, for I am meek and humble of heart; and you will find rest for yourselves. For my yoke is easy and my burden is light."

If our actions speak louder than words, then our labors must really speak of how we understand our sense of purpose and direction in this life. And, as we go about our daily work, our faith in God needs to be expressed through these actions so that we might give reverence to the one who gives us these opportunities.

St. Benedict's motto is Ora et Labora (Pray and Work). We do so for the coming of the kingdom. Living for Christ and laboring for the Lord is what our lives, as believers, are all about.

So, perhaps we need to recommit ourselves to the labor of the Lord as we prepare to celebrate this Labor Day weekend? We join in the labor of the Lord through our own efforts while we live here on earth. Today we especially realize that Earthly living is not our ultimate goal nor should it be our only desire.

Fr. Phil Gibbs, Pastor

IN THE PARISH

I was hungry and you feed me...Matthew 25: 31-40

On the weekend of Sept. 9 & 10, the Resurrection Food Pantry representatives will speak at all Masses. Our last financial appeal was in the fall of 2022. In order to continue this ministry, we will need your financial support for 2024 and beyond. Our funds will be nearing depletion after our October 2023 event. A second collection will be taken up that weekend. You may also donate by sending a check to the parish office or via the Resurrection website.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

We are in need of volunteers to make phone calls to some of our families we haven't seen at Mass in a while. For further explanation of what that entails and answer any questions you may have, please call Wendy at the parish office at 556-7511. Thank you!

FASTING BROTHERS

Men are needed to become Fasting Brothers for our pastor. For more information please contact Carolyn Mockler at 563-543-0565.

Social Justice Committee Facebook Group

The Resurrection Social Justice Committee would love to hear from you! Check out our Facebook group below to find out about what we are doing and to share your own experiences and ideas.

If you have any questions, contact the Scrip Office at scripoffice@gmail.com

VOCATION VIEWS

If you wish to follow Jesus, deny yourself, take up your cross and follow. Are you courageous enough to follow as a priest or deacon, brother, or sister? (Matthew 16:21-27)

Please pray for all seminarians of the Archdiocese of Dubuque and those in formation for religious life.

Prayer for Vocations

God our Father, we thank you for calling men and women to serve in your Son's Kingdom as priests, deacons, religious, and consecrated persons. Send your Holy Spirit to help us respond generously and courageously to your call. May our community of faith support vocations of sacrificial love in our youth. We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

AROUND TOWN

Volunteer Companions Needed

Only a couple of hours a month can bring joy to one of God's special people. Deacon Steve and Kathy MacDonald direct the Spiritual Enrichment program at Hills & Dales Development Center. In order to attend each student is in need of a volunteer companion. Professionals will be on duty the entire time to take care of personal care issues and health concerns. Volunteers are needed to be a friend by reading children's bible stories, assisting with art activities, coloring, and the like. Training will be provided. If interested or for more information please email Deacon Steve at: stevekathymac@gmail.com

A FAMILY PERSPECTIVE

Relationships live in a careful balance. If a person changes, the balance is altered requiring a shift in the relationship. In today's gospel Jesus announced a change and Peter resisted. Sometimes, those we count on for support may actually get in the way. Jesus told Peter: "You are an obstacle to me." – Bud Ozar

MARRIAGE ENRICHMENT

"Whoever wishes to come after me must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me" (Mt 16:24). We never have to carry our crosses alone. Turn to Christ, and allow your spouse to help you carry your cross as well.

Worldwide Marriage Encounter

Do you know a couple who have been married over 70 years? Worldwide Marriage Encounter highlights and honors couples who have very long marriages. Every state in the US will honor one nominated couple who is married the longest. Please nominate a couple by going to wwme.org and nominate them at the top of the page. Nominations should be in by September 15th. For questions call 641-753-6953.

Take a fresh look at your Marriage. Consider making a Worldwide Marriage Encounter Weekend and enrich your lives together. It is a unique approach aimed at revitalizing Christian Marriage. For more information call 563-920-9419.

Upcoming dates: April 12-14, 2024 in Epworth; September 27-29, 2024 in Dubuque; and November 8-10, 2024 in Holstein.

Workshop Description:

It can be difficult to understand, communicate, and connect with people who have Alzheimer's or dementia. They may say or do things that don't make sense, or they may become upset or angry. Finding creative ways to react and respond can make a big difference in the quality of their lives and enhance on-going relationships.

Providing state-of-the-art information grounded in Alzheimer's science, and teaching unique techniques drawn from spiritual practices and creative drama, this inspiring caregiver resilience workshop helps participants to:

- Expand their understanding of dementia
- Be present in the moment
- Accept what is
- Meet persons with dementia in their reality
- Let go of the need to control
- Find meaning and healing as a caregiver

Workshop Leader: Rev. Dr. Jade Angelica

Jade is a respected dementia educator who has led workshops and conference presentations throughout the country since 2007. Her workshops have been found to provide effective caregiver education by neuropsychology researchers at The University of Iowa, and she is the author of Where Two Worlds Touch: A Spiritual Journey Through Alzheimer's Disease. Jade's most important and fruitful ministry, to date, has been caring for her mother, Jeanne, who died from Alzheimer's in 2011.

Presentation Lantern Center: Hospitality and Tutor Volunteers

Hospitality Volunteers: Are you friendly, like meeting people from other parts of the world, and have a few hours to spare during the week? You could be a "Hospitality Volunteer" at the Presentation Lantern Center. Responsibilities include greeting visitors, setting up beverages and snacks, helping people find needed resources, and light cleaning. High schoolers and adults are encouraged to inquire.

Tutor Volunteers: Have you wondered what you could do to help immigrant and refugees? We provide training and tutor materials so you can help an adult refugee or immigrant improve their English skills or study for the Citizenship test. Volunteer tutors must be age 18 and older.

Your commitment is only two-hours, one day a week. We will work around your short or long vacation plans. You do not need teaching experience. Training and support are provided. To find out more, call or text Sue Ellis, Education Director at 563-557-7134 or apply online at <https://thelanterncenter.org/volunteer/>
