6TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

He said to him, "See that you tell no one anything, but go, show yourself to the priest and offer for your cleansing what Moses prescribed; that will be proof for them." The man went away and began to publicize the whole matter. He spread the report abroad so that it was impossible for Jesus to enter a town openly. - Mk 1:44-45b

DEAR PARISHIONERS,

We pilots are all familiar with the phrase, "Keep the shiny side up and the dirty side down." It is in reference to the correct orientation of our minds as well as our air worthy machines for safe flying. God forbid we ever find ourselves in the predicament of flying inverted or upside down! But it does happen on occasion and when it does we need to apply the correct procedures of "push and roll."

Isn't it interesting that on Ash Wednesday we seem to, at least in appearance, want to keep the dirty side up and the shiny side down regarding the mark of ashes on our foreheads throughout the day. "Remember you are dust and unto dust you shall return." This is the phrase that we either say or receive when our foreheads are marked with ashes in the sign of the cross. We seem to be rather intentionally "inverted" on that day as we openly show the "dirty side."

The sign of the cross, these ashes, those words inform us that today is the beginning of a liturgical season which is a time of conversion, a time when we intentionally strive to right the ship of our spiritual lives. Lent is a time of reorientation from the dirty side up to the shiny side up. This season of Lent confronts us with the darkness of our sinfulness and prepares us to embrace the glory and grace of the Easter light when we are, once again, in straight and level flight.

This movement of faith toward reorientation must also affect the regular movement of our lives. On Ash Wednesday we intentionally show the dirty side – our sinfulness. Throughout Lent we then begin to offer the corrective procedures. We push and roll. We slow down, deny ourselves, give of ourselves, go to confession and pray with more conviction. The practice of fasting, giving alms and praying are considered to be a conditioning for our souls to more deeply appreciate the promises of Christ.

The recognition that we are sinful people is a universal concept. All religions teach that when we have sinned, we are to reconcile with God and with one another as part of the daily living out of our religion. Each religion sets aside a special time to focus on reconciliation with God and others.

The Jewish people have Yom Kippur after ten days of repentance. It is a day of atonement when they have reflected on the past year and make amends for the sins that they have committed. The Moslems keep the month of Ramadan during which they fast from sunrise to sunset in atonement for sins. The Hindu pilgrims bathe in the Ganges River hoping to wash away their sins during a religious festival that occurs once every 12 years.

We are at the beginning of our own special time so that we may review our lives, focus on what might be keeping us from a deeper relationship with God and undergo the necessary reformation needed in our lives. Let us make sure that the ashes are not an empty sign but a sign of our internal conversion of heart.

The sign of the cross that is placed upon our foreheads is a reminder to us that we live in and under the cross which has both its dirty and shiny side. It also reminds us of the one, Jesus the Christ, who conquered the cross. We receive this sign with humility aware of the few times Jesus fell under its weight but also aware of the many times we have fallen and gotten inverted or upside down in our lives. It is in Jesus that we rely for help. Let us fast, pray and give alms to the poor. Let us do this for the sake of reorientation and to make things right side up with the Lord once again.

As we move from winter into spring; from darkness to light; from death to life; from the dirty side down to the shiny side up so we move in hope and grace from Ash Wednesday to Easter Sunday. Blessings to all of you.

Fr. Phil Gibbs, Pastor

IN THE PARISH

This weekend we welcome Fr. Jerry Hackenmueller from UNBOUND.

UNBOUND is an international development organization founded by lay Catholics and grounded in the Gospel call to put the needs of the marginalized and vulnerable first.

We build relationships of mutual respect that bridge cultural, economic and religious divides. We work side by side with people of diverse faith traditions in Latin America, Asia, and Africa.

We believe the surest path out of poverty is a self-directed one. Sponsored individuals and families use your support to work toward goals like education dignified housing, better nutrition and developing livelihoods. PLEASE SEE THE BULLETIN INSERT FOR MORE INFORMATION.

MUSIC

Coordinator of Liturgical Music
Amy Dolan

As we begin the penitential season of Lent, the feel of the Mass and the music will change. We will sing the Mass of Spirit and Grace setting for our Gospel Acclamation and Eucharistic responses. As in the past, we will echo the Kyrie Eleison (Lord have mercy) as part of our Penitential Rite at the beginning of Mass, and we will chant the Agnus Dei (Lamb of God) before Communion. During these six weeks we “bury” the Glory to God and the Alleluia, and we “fast” from these joyful hymns during our time of repentance. They will be “resurrected” on Easter when we celebrate with joy the new life which Jesus brings to us. During Lent, the music will be more somber and reflective, and we use more melodies which are in minor keys. We will not have a prelude hymn and we will sing a song of praise at the end of Communion instead of at the dismissal, allowing the priest to recess out of the church in silence at the end of Mass. Our Lenten journey will feel more sparse and quiet, more time for reflection and individual prayer. We will be singing a new hymn which was used at our celebration of Confirmation in January. It's called Christ in Me Arise by Trevor Thomson. We will also sing a hymn called “There is A Longing” by Anne Quigley which is also somewhat new to our repertoire. To hear these hymns, you can click on the links found on the Liturgical Ministry page of our parish website. May you have a blessed Lenten journey.

A FAMILY PERSPECTIVE

Family life is about decisions. The leper in today's gospel knew this when he said to Jesus. "If you will, you can make me clean." Jesus knew this when he said, "I do will it." Love is not an emotion. It is a decision to be with and for another person in "good times and bad," even when we don't feel like it. - Bid Ozar

MARRIAGE ENRICHMENT

"Be imitators of me, as I am of Christ" (1 Cor 11:1). Be beacons of love and joy for all to see. Have you thought about how you can go out of your way to show your spouse that you love them?

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL VOUCHER CENTER NEEDS

End Poverty Through Systemic Change

Thank you for your continued support of our Resurrection St. Vincent de Paul Conference as we serve our neighbors in need. In January our downtown Voucher Center filled 226 vouchers that helped nearly 700 people with over 1,500 pounds of donated goods and products. The following items are needed most now at our downtown Voucher Center:

- Cold cereal
- Pancake mix and syrup
- Hygiene products (shampoo, body wash, bars of soap)
- Cleaning supplies
- Cooking oil

Please be sure to return the blue bags with your donations. If you wish to make a financial contribution to St. Vincent de Paul you can use the envelopes in the pews. If you, or someone you know, is in need of assistance, please call the St. Vincent de Paul Voucher Line at 563-584-2226.

Lent Challenge

Lent is a time for prayer, reflection and fasting. The Dubuque Interfaith Green Coalition is challenging all congregations to consider a "plastic bag fast" during Lent. Contrary to popular belief, only a fraction of those single use plastic bags are recycled. They are toxic to the environment because they photo-degrade, producing tiny plastic particles that bleed into the environment. Pope Francis states, "There is nobility in the duty to care for creation through little daily actions..." (Laudato Si' [211]) For more information on the detrimental effects of plastics on our environment, visit the Res Social Justice or the Dubuque Interfaith Green Coalition Chapter of Iowa IPL Facebook pages.

NEXT MEETING of Res Social Justice Committee:

Monday, February 19, 2024, 7:30 pm. In the Community Room of the Parish Office. ALL ARE WELCOME!

VOCATION VIEWS

This is the time of fulfillment. The reign of God is at hand. Let us reform our lives and believe in the Good News.

(Mark 1:12-15)

Please pray for all seminarians of the Archdiocese of Dubuque and those in formation for religious life.

Prayer for Vocations

God our Father, we thank you for calling men and women to serve in your Son's Kingdom as priests, deacons, religious, and consecrated persons. Send your Holy Spirit to help us respond generously and courageously to your call. May our community of faith support vocations of sacrificial love in our youth. We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

STEWARDSHIP

In today's second reading, St. Paul urges the Corinthians to "do all for the glory of God." If we follow that advice in everything we do, we cannot help but be good stewards!

Catholic Charities: A Beacon of Hope for Families

Catholic Charities offers life-changing ministries throughout the Archdiocese of Dubuque, including Mental Health Counseling, Affordable Housing, Immigration Legal Services, Jail & Prison Reentry Services, Case Management, Post-Adoption Search, and Crisis Pregnancy Counseling.
