Have you ever been caught red handed doing something that you shouldn't be doing? You know, stealing from the cookie jar; sneaking a peek at your classmate's exam paper; taking that loose change off the counter top that doesn't belong to you; slipping downstairs to the kitchen at 2:30 in the morning and trying to devour the remaining pieces of that double fudge, caramel, praline peanut butter cheesecake? Then somebody catches you - red-handed - you are as guilty as can be. You may be scolded as you should be. You may be reprimanded; required to return what you have taken or required to stay out of the kitchen in the wee morning hours as you should be. There should be some consequence, don't you think?

Those who commit sin need to be caught and taught about the gravity and the impact of their sin. If you steal then someone is left without what is rightfully theirs. If you cheat then you do no good for your own intellect. If you sneak a sweet treat you deprived someone else the pleasure of what you have just gobbled down. You have been caught but have you ever been condemned? Has it ever been so bad that you have been doomed to death? Maybe you have been sent to the principal's office, put in a time out or restricted from the kitchen but that is not the same as being condemned.

Just so it is with the woman in the Gospel. She has been caught in adultery. "Has no one condemned you?" "No one sir," she answered. Jesus said, "Nor do I condemn you. You may go. But from now on, avoid this sin." This is a very powerful and pointed statement that not only applies to the adulterous woman but to all of us. This gospel story conveys the message that Jesus has come to accept sinners in God's name. His Will is not to condemn them but to save them and not just one person but the whole of humanity.

We have been taught to believe that we should love the sinner but hate the sin. However, I think that we are a far cry from putting the significance of that saying into action. For the most part we still need to give the sinner the benefit of the doubt because we are all sinners ourselves thus, no one can, "be the first to throw a stone at her."

Jesus comes not to condemn the sinners but to confront and challenge the sinners while condemning the power of sin itself. We are invited into that same mission. And honestly, we could do a much better job of confronting and challenging sinners and condemning the sin in our own midst. Yet, we hesitate thinking that it is none of our business.

We shirk our responsibility because of complacency and relativity convincing ourselves that as long as they don't hurt me or my family, I don't care. Some may be surprisingly unclear or ignorant of what is sin or sinful behavior. When that happens, our sinfulness becomes seen or understood as expected or acceptable behavior.

I think that it is important to recognize the fact that we, as a culture, are increasingly apathetic when it comes to confronting and challenging sin and sinful behavior. For the most part, with the mentality of our culture, sin is okay as long as we don't get caught.

The gospel story opens us to the truth of our sinfulness. Who can cast the first stone? Who among us has not sinned? Who among us can condemn a fellow sinner? Yet, the community in the gospel that surrounded the adulterous woman was very aware of the presence of the sin and how sin destroys the integrity of the community itself. So adamant they were that they wanted to eliminate even the sinner, herself. Jesus was very much aware of the same thing so much so that after he saved her he told her to "Go, and commit this sin no more."

In the same way, Jesus does come to confront us in our sinfulness but not to condemn us for our sinfulness. Jesus comes to us in the spirit of saving life rather than destroying it for the sake of ourselves and the faith community to which we belong. A better life for us not only takes on an individual benefit but also contains communal significance.

MUSIC

Coordinator of Liturgical Music
Amy Dolan

"No Greater Love" by Michael Joncas has been a standard hymn during Holy Week at our church for many years. Using text from the Gospel of John 15:9-17, this hymn says so much about what Jesus' asks of his disciples and how we are to live. The refrain says "There is no greater love says the Lord than to lay down one's life for a friend." Of course, this speaks so powerfully of Jesus, as he laid down his life for us, thus we sing it on Passion Sunday (next week!), remembering his great sacrifice. This has been our Lenten calling: sacrificing in small ways to grow closer to Jesus. God asks us to keep his commandments and remain in his love. He also reminds of his great commandment not once but twice in this passage: "Love one another as I have loved you." Why does he repeat this message? "I have told you this so that my joy may be in you and your joy may be complete." As we come to end of our Lenten journey, please walk with us through HOLY WEEK and celebrate the three most holy days of the year: THE TRIDUUM. Here are the service dates: Holy Thursday, April 17, 7 pm, Good Friday, April 18, 3 pm and Easter Vigil April 19 at 8 pm. May your joy be complete having walked with Jesus through his suffering, death and rising this Lent and Holy Week this year.

A FAMILY PERSPECTIVE

Stoning is not just an ancient act of violence. Each day in our homes we throw stones of ridicule, criticism, name-calling and put-downs. All of it is deadly. Hear Jesus in today's Gospel: "Whoever is without sin can throw the first stone." Rid your home of violence. Stop verbal stoning! – Bud Ozar

MARRIAGE ENRICHMENT

"Forgetting what lies behind but straining forward to what lies ahead, I continue my pursuit toward the goal, the prize of God's upward calling, in Christ Jesus" (Philippians 3:14). How might you let go of something from the past that hinders your loving relationship with your spouse? How are you accompanying your spouse on the path "toward the goal" of holiness?

MARRIED COUPLES: Is it time to disconnect from the world and reconnect with one another? The upcoming weekends in Iowa are April 25-27 in Epworth and September 12-14 in Dubuque. For more information contact Greg and Denise at 563-920-9419 or sign up for an upcoming Worldwide Marriage Encounter Experience on www.me.org. Early registration is highly recommended.

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL VOUCHER CENTER NEEDS

End Poverty Through Systemic Change

Thank you for your continued support of our Resurrection St. Vincent de Paul Conference as we serve our neighbors in need. In February the Dubuque St. Vincent de Paul organization provided over $26,000 in community assistance (food, rent, and utilities). This generation is made possible through the donations made to the retail store on Radford Road. The following items are needed most right now at our downtown Voucher Center:

- Bed sheets (full or twin)
- Hygiene products (shampoo, body wash)
- Ketchup and mustard
- Snack bars
- Boxed meals
- Cooking oil

Please be sure to return the blue bags with your donations. If you wish to make a financial contribution to St. Vincent de Paul, you can use the envelopes in the pew. If you, or someone you know, is in need of assistance, please call the St. Vincent de Paul help line at 563-584-2226.

VOCATION VIEWS

What am I racing after: fame, fortune, or life in Jesus? What is the prize I seek at the finish line? (Philippians 3:8-14)

Please pray for all seminarians of the Archdiocese of Dubuque and those in formation for religious life.

Prayer for Vocations

God our Father, we thank you for calling men and women to serve in your Son's Kingdom as priests, deacons, religious, and consecrated persons. Send your Holy Spirit to help us respond generously and courageously to your call. May our community of faith support vocations of sacrificial love in our youth. We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Therefore, each individual believer and each faith community has a role in confronting sin and the sinner.

Lent is a time of confrontation, not condemnation. It is a time when we focus on our personal troubles (personal sin) while also recognizing the impact of communal problems (social sin). So, we are confronted, challenged and invited to look at the presence of sin in our lives and in the life of the world. How do we participate in that sinfulness, personally and communally? If there is any guilt then seek reconciliation and go to confession this Lenten season.

CRS RICE BOWL

UNITED IN GENEROSITY AS ONE GLOBAL FAMILY

Amid the harsh conditions of the Sahel region's 1976 drought, millions faced hunger. That same year, Catholics worldwide gathered at the 41st International Eucharistic Congress in Philadelphia, focusing on "The Eucharist and the Hungers of the Human Family." As Lent draws to a close, let's reflect on how our prayers, fasting and almsgiving can help ensure no one goes hungry in the middle of today's global food crisis. Visit crsricebowl.org/week-5 to learn more.

STEWARDSHIP

In today's second reading, St. Paul says, "For his sake I have forfeited everything; I have accounted all else rubbish so that Christ may be my wealth." Does my stewardship suggest that I could say the same?

THANK YOU to all of the volunteers for making our food pantry distribution on March 29 a success. We served 150 guests. This would not be possible without all of the volunteer efforts from the parish. It was wonderful to see all the new families assisting in this effort.

Our next event will be held on July 26. Mark your Calendars! THANK YOU!

The Resurrection Food Pantry Committee.

KC ANNUAL BABY SHOWER

Knights of Columbus will be holding their 20th Annual Baby Shower until April 13. All donations will be given to Birthright. Donations can be placed in the baby crib on display. A list of requested items (diapers, newborn outfits, blankets, etc.) will be available in the cribs. Please be generous.

SENIOR SOCIAL LUNCHEON/CARDS

The next Senior Social will be held on Monday, April 21, 2025, in the Church Social Space. A potluck meal will be served at 11:30 am. The cost is $5 if you are not bringing a dish to pass. If you do not wish to partake in the potluck meal, you are welcome to come for cards at 12:15 pm. Please notify us whether you are coming for the meal and cards, or just for cards. Sign-up on the bulletin board in the Gathering Space or call Julie at 563-663-2034.
