DEAR PARISHIONERS,

As I was reading the scriptures in order to prepare this bulletin article, I felt an obligation to educate you about the Holy Spirit and how it continues to prompt us (call us into action) regarding our fidelity to Jesus Christ, participation in the Church and give firm resolve to our identity as a Catholic community.

In the gospel we read of how Jesus, who is ready to ascend to the Father, will send the "Advocate" the Holy Spirit upon us, in his name, to teach us everything and remind us of what Jesus told us. The word "Advocate" means "to call." In this context Advocate means to promote or plead for another's cause, to speak on behalf of Jesus.

The assistance of the Holy Spirit was readily enlisted by the apostles in the early church as we witness it in the first reading from the Acts of the Apostles. Paul and Barnabas along with the other apostles and elders went up to Jerusalem to confer with each other concerning issues of faith, morality and leadership in what is known as the "Council of Jerusalem" in the year 49 A.D. This is the first known gathering of this magnitude recorded in the Holy Scriptures.

This historic meeting of chosen apostles and presbyters in union with the Holy Spirit is what we know today to be the "Magisterium" which is the teaching office of the Church. Today it includes the Pope and the Bishops. Within this early assembly of the "Magisterium," as these apostles and elders gathered at the Mother Church, which was in Jerusalem at the time, the Holy Spirit made itself manifest teaching us how we are to be Church and reminding us of what Jesus told us.

Down through the ages as more councils were convened; as leadership changes took place through apostolic succession; as membership to the Church increased exponentially; as the geographical area of the church expanded and as the location of the Mother Church was established in Rome; the Holy Spirit continued to make itself manifest through the Magisterium further unfolding how we are to be as Church.

Undoubtedly, through the ages, what the Holy Spirit has revealed to us through the Magisterium hasn't always been affirming of where we are at in our personal faith practices and moral convictions. Rather, it has been quite challenging, urging us to conform more to the ways of Christ and his kingdom rather than to the ways of the world.

Still today, a large part of our Catholic identity and our communal experience of the Holy Spirit is directly associated with the voice of the Magisterium as it is the teaching office of the Church. Yet, how willing are we to listen to the voice of the Holy Spirit through the Magisterium especially if we hear things that are contrary to our American lifestyle and the basic trends that consume our culture or society? How quick are we to stop up our ears and turn our backs to the Holy Spirit who prompts us (calls us to action) regarding our fidelity to Christ, to his Church and to our identity as Catholics?

This issue is a rather hot topic today in the realm of debate regarding the issues of life in a culture of death and our actions or attitudes concerning morality during immoral times. It forces us to face up to the difficult questions regarding our own identity and affiliation. These are difficult questions and how we respond to them is quite telling in regards to our allegiance to God and country.

Are you an American who just happens to be Catholic? Or, are you a Catholic who just happens to live in America? Those two forms of identity, American and Catholic, are not always synonymous as is evident through the vast difference expressed in our secular vision of rugged American individualism of being self-centered and our religious calling as Catholics to be Christ-centered.

The place of the Magisterium and the purpose of the Holy Spirit in the days of the early church and today within the contemporary church are the same. They are to universally unite us in the revealed and inspired ways of Christ and His Church.

The concerns of Paul and Barnabas, Judas, Silas, Peter and the other elders, in union with the Holy Spirit, were to unite these early Christian communities of former Gentiles, former Jews and former pagans into the one true faith, by one baptism to one God and

We will begin meeting in June and hope to celebrate Baptism, Confirmation and Communion with these adults in August. So, this process will be somewhat condensed from the usual track of Sept – April. We'd be grateful to have some fellow parishioners who are already Catholic participate in the process as well. We will likely meet weekly during these 2 months on a weeknight around 6:30 pm for 60 minutes, in the Cathedral Center. Please invite folks to participate in this discernment and preparation.

A FAMILY PERSPECTIVE

Today Jesus gives this advice: "Do not let your hearts be troubled." Worry and anxiety can consume our lives preventing us from seeing the love which surrounds us and binds us to one another. Don't miss the forest for the trees. We are living today what we worried about yesterday. – Bud Ozar

MARRIAGE ENRICHMENT

"Do not let your hearts be troubled or afraid...I am going away and I will come back to you" (John 14:27-29). Separations like business trips or military deployments can strain a marriage. Plan a daily way to reconnect, even if it is simply to pick a common time to pray for each other.

WORLDWIDE MARRIAGE ENCOUNTER

MARRIED COUPLES. Give your marriage a well-deserved vacation. Plan to go on a Worldwide Marriage Encounter Experience and come back with a marriage that is refreshed and full of energy! Our next weekend

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL VOUCHER CENTER NEEDS

End Poverty Through Systemic Change

Thank you for your continued support of our Resurrection St. Vincent de Paul Conference as we serve our neighbors in need. In April our downtown Voucher Center filled 301 vouchers that helped 795 people with over 1,000 pounds of donated goods and products. The following items are needed most right now:

- Full or twin bed sheets (new or gently used)
- Boxed cereal
- Ketchup and mustard
- Hygiene products (shampoo, body wash)
- Cleaning supplies
- Cooking oil

A big thanks for the recent donations following the Spring garage sales. Please know that St. Vincent de Paul makes every effort to maximize the value of every donation to help the community. If you wish to make a financial contribution to St. Vincent de Paul, you can use the envelopes in the pew. If you, or someone you know, is in need of assistance, please call the St. Vincent de Paul help line at 563-584-2226.

VOCATION VIEWS

Those who love me will be true to my word. My Father will love them and we will come to them. How will I respond to that love? Am I being called to priesthood or religious life?
(John 14:23-29)

Please pray for all seminarians of the Archdiocese of Dubuque and those in formation for religious life.

Father of all. And so, inspired by the Holy Spirit, they established a moral code; ethical standards; a consistent doctrine; a sense of identity and chosen leaders. These chosen leaders were to be ambassadors of "The Advocate" aka the Holy Spirit keeping these communities faithful to Christ and accountable to the larger Church. These faith communities, in turn, should have expected nothing less from their chosen leaders.

Here is a prayer you can offer for the Magisterium:

Jesus, Good Shepherd, You sent us the Holy Spirit to guide Your Church and lead her faithful to You through the ministry of the successors of Your Apostles, the bishops.

Through the inspiration of the Holy Spirit, grant to Your bishops a wisdom in leading, faithfulness in teaching, and holiness in guarding Your sacred Mysteries.

As they cry out with all the faithful, "Our Father!", may Your bishops be ever more closely identified with You in Your divine Sonship and offer their own lives with You, the one saving Victim.

Renew in Your bishops a deeper faith, greater trust in You, childlike reliance on our Mother Mary, and unwavering fidelity to the Holy Father. Holy Mary, intercede for Your bishops.

We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Fr. Phil Gibbs, Pastor

Our Call to Share - Thank you

Thank you for taking the time to learn about the ministries highlighted in our Our Call to Share - Spring Collection these last few weeks. Your willingness to consider a gift to these ministries means so much—not only to us, but to the many individuals and families your generosity will directly impact.

Every contribution, no matter the size, plays a vital role in supporting the mission of the Church and uplifting those in need throughout our Archdiocese. Your openness to giving to these causes is a beautiful reflection of your faith and compassion.

We are deeply grateful for your prayerful consideration of a gift, and hope you feel the joy that comes from sharing Christ's love with others. May God bless you abundantly for your generosity and kindness during this Easter season.

PARISH ELECTION RESULTS:

Congratulations to the following two parishioners who were the top two vote getters for the council positions: Jeff Schneider and Jeff Johl (reelected for a 2nd term).
