FOR THE DIOCESE OF BURLINGTON

Christmas 2023

Glory to God in the highest and on earth peace to those on whom His favor rests. — Luke 2:14

My dear family in Christ:

The song of the angel choir announced to the shepherds and to the world the birth of the Prince of Peace; however, we all know that this promise of peace is still unrealized in our world. Daily we are reminded of the violence which shatters the lives of so many people throughout the world.

Whether it is the on-going wars in Ukraine, the Holy Land, Sudan or other war-torn lands; the violence resulting from the drug trade in many areas of the world; the gun violence which infects our cities and even our own local communities; the violence resulting from human trafficking; and the countless other ways peace is destroyed, we may wonder if God's favor rests on anyone. These harsh realities demand that this Christmas we ask ourselves what we may do to bring the peace of Christ into our world.

While some of us may feel called to go to violence-plagued areas to make a difference for others, many of us are more likely being asked to make Christ's peace present where we are. To quote a familiar and popular hymn, "Let peace begin with me." This Christmas, we must reject the hatred and anger that fills society, social media, and the airwaves. We must welcome the peace of Christ into our hearts and let go of any anger, hatred, or thoughts of violence we may harbor personally. If we don't have Christ at the center of our own lives and allow Him to inspire our thoughts, words, and actions, how can we hope to have peace in our hearts or be instruments of His peace in the lives of others? How can we have peace in our world if we don't have peace in our own hearts, homes, families, and communities? As Catholic Christians it comes down to this simple statement this Christmas, "No Christ. No Peace. Know Christ. Know Peace."

It is my prayer this Christmas that we all take the steps necessary to open our lives more and more to Christ so as to cast hate and anger from our own hearts so that the peace of God may rest upon us and we in turn can bring that gift of peace to others. Let's especially seek to be reconciled with family members, friends, and those closest to us.

Be assured of my prayers for the entire diocese, especially for those suffering most at this moment in time.

In Christ the Prince of Peace,

Msgr. John J. McDermott
Diocesan Administrator

P.S. Please pray for me and for the appointment of our new bishop. Wouldn't that be a blessed Christmas gift?
