Dear Parish Family,

The Feast of Epiphany is our celebration today! May we live as followers of the light and always trust in our treasure of faith that the Lord receives more lovingly than any other gift.

As we resume faith formation classes after the Christmas recess, please consider a Catholic school education for your child here at Saint Joseph Parish School. We are currently celebrating 100 years of the finest learning together with the values of Christian living and morality. At this time, we are offering early registration for the 2023-2024 school year.

Please consider volunteering as a catechist in our parish religious education program. Each week, 125 students gather to learn about and get to know the Lord in a deeper way as they prepare for the sacraments of First Holy Communion and Confirmation.

Finally, please remember those youth who are in our adult catechumenate program for the Sacraments of Initiation which they will receive at the Easter Vigil. The support of parishioners to be guides and sponsors during these RCIA classes are always welcome.

Our Christmas flower displays at the altar and in the Narthex area will be taken down today. Between today and the January 29 weekend, we will ask a family attending each Sunday Mass to take a poinsettia with a family prayer home with them for the week as a 'Royal Bloom'. This signifies the 40 days between Christmas and Candlemas Day, February 2. Thank you to all who can participate.

God bless you!

Msgr. John

POPE EMERITUS BENEDICT XVI

APRIL 16, 1927 – DECEMBER 31, 2022

IN MEMORIAM

In Memoriam

POPE EMERITUS BENEDICT XVI

April 16, 1927 – December 31, 2022

Papacy:

April 19, 2005 – February 28, 2013

Joseph Alois Ratzinger was born in Marktl am Inn, Bavaria, on April 16, 1927—Holy Saturday—and baptized that same day—the first person baptized in the new Easter water. It was a sign of blessing, he wrote in a memoir, that his life from the beginning was thus immersed in the Easter mystery. He entered the minor seminary in 1939 at the age of twelve, but his studies were interrupted by World War II, when the seminary was closed and Joseph, along with most of his class, was drafted into the army at the age of sixteen.

After the war he resumed his education in philosophy and theology, and together with his brother, Georg, was ordained a priest in 1951. During the course of a twenty-year career as a professor of dogma and theology at several German universities, he earned a reputation as a gifted lecturer and learned scholar, and was present as a peritus, or theological advisor, at all four sessions of the Second Vatican Council.

He was ordained an archbishop in May of 1977 and elevated to the College of Cardinals a month later. He settled in Rome in 1981 and went on to become one of the most influential men in the Roman curia. Of the many offices he held, he was best known as the Prefect of the Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith, an authoritative advisor on doctrinal issues during his predecessor's pontificate. When he was elected the 265th successor of Peter in 2005 at the age of seventy-eight, he became the first German pope since Victor II in the eleventh century. A central theme of his papacy was the staunch defense of core Christian values against what he saw as moral decline across much of Europe. At the same time, he sought to improve relations with other religions, trying to determine if a “cultural synthesis” was possible without losing the identity of the faith while engaged in discourse with the Lutheran World Federation, Judaism, Islam, the Anglican Communion, and Christian Orthodox Churches. He also spoke out against human rights abuses and ongoing political conflicts and warfare, and advocated better protection of the environment. He called for a radical rethinking of the global economy, criticizing the growing divide between rich and poor, and pressed for a “true world political authority” to oversee the economy and work for the common good.

Ever true to his episcopal motto, “Fellow Worker in the Truth,” Pope Benedict XVI’s teaching and prolific writings always defended traditional Catholic doctrine and values.

On February 11, 2013, Pope Benedict XVI announced that on February 28, 2013, he would resign as supreme pontiff due to his advanced age and deteriorating health and that a conclave would be convened shortly thereafter to elect a new pope. He returned to Rome and remained there as Pope Emeritus after Jorge Bergoglio succeeded him as Bishop of Rome.

Eternal rest grant unto him, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon him.

Updates from the DIOCESSE OF

METUCHEN

Our world is hurting. We all need healing, yet many of us are separated from the very source of our strength. Jesus Christ invites us to return to the source and summit of our faith: his Real Presence in the Eucharist. The National Eucharistic Revival is a movement to restore understanding and devotion to this great mystery.

Bishop Checchio delivers a homily from the Cathedral of St. Francis of Assisi for the Solemnity of Corpus Christi and the official launch of the National Eucharistic Revival in the Diocese of Metuchen.

Location: Cathedral of St. Francis of Assisi

Lecture Series

The Mystery of the Eucharist in the Life of the Church

Let us explore together the USCCB document on the eucharist. As Christians, we know that we need Christ to be present in our lives. He is our very sustenance as he reminded us: unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you do not have life within you (Jn 6:53) The Lord accompanies us in many ways, but none as profound as when we encounter Him in the Eucharist. Presenter: Very Rev. Timothy Christy

Respect Life Sunday

Please consider joining us for the Annual Diocesan Respect Life Mass on Sunday, January 22, 2023 at 12:00 noon at the Cathedral of St. Francis of Assisi, Metuchen. Bishop James F. Checchio will be the celebrant. Youth who have been active in pro-life volunteering will be recognized. There will be a light reception immediately following the Mass. All are welcome to attend. For more information, contact amarshall@diometuchen.org or 732-562-1543.

Feast of the Baptism of the Lord

January 9th

"...when Jesus also had been baptised and was praying,

the heaven was opened and the Holy Spirit descended upon him in bodily form, as a dove and a voice came from heaven,

"Thou art my beloved Son with thee I am well pleased."

Luke 3:21-22

CATHOLIC PRAYER CORNER

Prayer at the Manger: With the Magi

Let your light shine on us, O God,
as the star showed the way
to those who searched for Christ.
Fill us with wisdom;
help us walk in your ways,
now and forever. Amen.

The more I do God's will,
the more he will prove
his love for me.

BLESS ALL WHO ENTER HERE

The word "January" is derived from ianua, the Latin word for "doorway." January is the doorway to a new year. Doorways are special places that can open new worlds for us. We go through doorways every day and enter new adventures at work, school, or play. We open our doors and welcome family members and visitors into our homes and our lives.

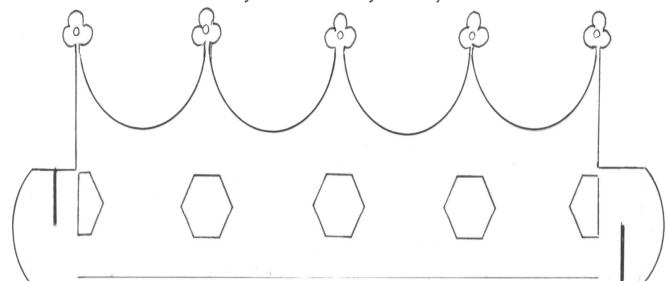

When Jesus was born Mary and Joseph welcomed some very unusual visitors. They came from faraway lands, riding camels and dressed in royal robes. Tradition tells us their names were Caspar, Melchior, and Balthasar. The story of the Three Kings, or magi, reminds us that Jesus came to reveal God's love to the whole world. No one is turned away at the door.

Today we bless our doorways for the year. Ask an adult to help you put these crosses, letters, and numbers above the front door of your home. You can write them with a piece of chalk or cut the symbols from a piece of construction paper and tape them over the door.

20 + C + M + B + 20

The numbers stand for the New Year. The letters are the initials of the names of the magi. The crosses stand for the four seasons of the year. When you finish putting these signs over the door your family can say this prayer together.

Bless all who pass through this doorway.
When we leave, keep us safe until we return.
May we welcome all with love and joy.
May we open the doors to our home and our hearts
so that God may enter in and stay with us forever. Amen.

As a special symbol of welcome you might make a crown to give to the first person who enters your house today. Remember to treat everyone who enters your home with love and respect.

Then they opened their treasures and offered him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh.

Matthew 2:11

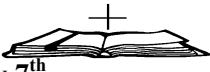

The more I do God's will,
the more he will prove
his love for me.
