FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Memorial Day is a beautiful time spent with family and friends, good times, and food, and if you're social distancing, possibly catching some part of a TCM movie marathon. But obviously this day is so much more than that, it is about taking time to pause and give thanks for the military personnel who have died. Many years ago, I trained to be an army chaplain and perhaps the most poignant part of that training was learning how to render honors at a military funeral. The crisp salutes, the playing of taps, the silence, and the roll call all were hauntingly beautiful. As a culture we've developed these emotional reminders because the sacrifice demands remembrance. As Catholics, we are no different. Our faith is filled with reminders of what God has done and our own ways of remembering the dead. This Memorial Day I invite you to participate fully in the Memorial Day fun but to also pause and to give thanks by adding your faith to the chorus of remembrances. Offer a prayer of thanksgiving for their sacrifice and please, pray for the repose of their souls.

Fr. Ryan
