During Advent there are three prevalent themes we see as we wait patiently for the coming of Christ. We long for the Messiah, are urged to be alert for Jesus' Second Coming, and meditate on Christ's presence in our lives now.

It is important to consider how we can grow in spiritual wholeness during such a busy commercial season. Take time for silence and reflection each day with Scripture, a devotional prayer, or with an Advent calendar. Sit with a Nativity scene. What is it like to imagine the journey of Mary and Joseph and to be with them as the baby Jesus comes into the world?

Look around to see who in your life could use a loving response. It might be your wife, who is overwhelmed with responsibilities and could use a helpmate to shoulder some of those duties, a son or daughter is in the midst of finals and needs an encouraging word. Or it might be that my parish offers me the chance to help make Christmas happier for a family in need. The Advent gift this week is the love God places in our hearts.

STOP AND BE DELIBERATE

Plan a gathering—set time aside for yourself— to decide how you want your holidays to be this year. What might you do differently? Brainstorm creatively, then refine your ideas make a plan.

SET GOOD HOLIDAY INTENTIONS

Be clear about your holiday intentions early, from children's gifts to how elaborate your parties will be to how you want to spend time together.

MAKE ROOM FOR GOD

Set time aside for personal and family prayer (such as around an Advent wreath). Decide now what Mass you will attend as a family on Christmas Eve/Day.

CHANGE SLOWLY BUT SURELY

Don't try to dramatically change everything this year if that will meet with strong resistance and frustration. Try making a couple of meaningful changes each year.

WATCH THE WORK

Are there members of your family who become stressed during the holiday season because they do more of the work (cooking, cleaning, decorating, shopping)? How can you change that this year?

GIVE INTENTIONALLY

Find ways to make gift giving more fun, personal, practical and joyful. Help someone in need.

START A NEW TRADITION

Is it time to try a new activity that will bring you closer together with family or friends? Let go of a less life-giving activity to make room for this one.

Find more ideas to help make this Advent more meaningful at our website: www.stjudeparish.com/advent-resources or go to this bulletin on our website and use the clickable links in this article to get more ideas.

Parish News

Giving Tree Update

Thank you to everyone who took a tag from the Giving Tree in the Reception Hall! Due to your generosity, some of the neediest families in our local community and the Dallas metroplex will have a joy-filled Christmas. Look for more information in next week's bulletin with number of gifts and organizations you helped.

Reception of Holy Communion

The General Instructions of the Roman Missal notes the following as the Norm to receive Holy Communion. "The norm for reception of Holy Communion in the Dioceses of the United States is standing." For unity sake, and for the ability for almost all of us (young or mature) to be united as we receive as One Body of Christ, the Bishop's see this is the best way to be united together as we receive the one Christ. Since the celebration of Mass by its nature "has a communitarian character" (GIRM 34) this outward sign of communal celebration will foster and bring about communion between priest and people. Communicants will not be denied if they kneel, but I thought it would be helpful to make clear the norm.

Fr. Andrew Sanker

Reception of the Host

- Approach with a profound bow (more than a head bob and less than bending past the waist).
- When the minister says "The Body of Christ", respond clearly with AMEN.
- If receiving in the hand, support one hand under the other at chest level – create a throne to receive the Body of Christ (dominant hand underneath). Using the dominant hand pick up the Host and place in your mouth.
- If receiving on the tongue, slightly tilt your head back, open wide and extend your tongue.
- Consume the Host immediately.

Reception of the Precious Blood

- Approach with a profound bow (more than a head bob and less than bending past the waist).
- When the minister says "The Blood of Christ", respond clearly with AMEN.
- Carefully, take the cup from the minister ensuring you have a solid hold of the cup.
- Take a small sip of the Precious Blood.
- Return the cup to the minister, releasing the cup when the minister has control of the cup again.

We respond with AMEN to signify we profess in the presence of the saving Christ, body and blood, soul and divinity in the Eucharist. This precious gift and grace God offers us from His immense love provides strength and comfort to do His work as we go forth from the mass.
