16th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Jesus entered a village where a woman whose name was Martha welcomed him. She had a sister named Mary who sat beside the Lord at his feet listening to him speak. - Lk 10:38-39

Active and contemplative. At work and at rest. These are dynamics we all face in our lives, and if we're honest, we might not always balance perfectly! In this Sunday's Gospel, our daily tensions play out in two sisters. Mary "sat beside the Lord at his feet listening to him speak." Martha, on the other hand, is "burdened with much serving." This, as it turns out, is not necessarily "the better part."

All of us reading this have some sort of labor we engage in. We have different trades or careers. We have responsibilities as family members, some of which may take up most of our time. In the time of Scripture, showing hospitality to guests was one of the most important values in society. Our work is important. Jesus himself spent decades as a carpenter. So what's the problem with Martha? Martha is burdened, anxious, and worried. Not only that, but she resents her sister's choice. "Tell her to help me," she demands of Jesus.

How easy it is to get very busy doing good things. We need to provide for our families and plan for retirement. We need to make sure children are clothed, fed, and educated. Our committees, ministries, and sports schedules need to stay on track. However, without a balance of work with rest, without contemplation in the midst of our action, we will miss the point. While many parts are required for our life in the world to function, the better part is our relationship with God. This week, make time in your busy schedule to sit at Jesus' feet. Maybe this is 20 minutes with Scripture, participating in a daily Mass, or a quiet walk alone in the park. Receive what Christ wants to speak to you.

Our Mission: To build a parish community that shares God's love through prayer, service and evangelization so that all feel welcome in making St. Jude their home.

Our sister is calling

In 2008, St. Jude adopted St. Cecilia Catholic School as one of our outreach schools. St. Cecilia's is an underprivileged Catholic school located in South Dallas that serves kindergarten through 8th grade students. Most of the parents of the students work two or more jobs to be able to provide a Catholic education for their children.

Over the years, St. Jude has helped St. Cecilia's in various ways both financially and physically. A portion of each year's St. Jude Carnival Raffle proceeds help to fund common items for the school's proper functioning. In addition, in past years a group of volunteers have traveled to the school to lend a helping hand in physically caring for the school's aging infrastructure.

If you want to help our Toolbox Ministry team on August 3 as they travel to St. Cecilia's for a morning of service. Please contact Jerry Vaughn at jevaughn@swbell.net. Their work will be focused on trimming plants and bushes, as well as painting and power washing the walls and floors.

TUESDAY, JULY 30
TUESDAY, AUGUST 27

Mark your calendars now for The 635 Summer Series! The diocesan movement takes place at the Granada Theater (3524 Greenville Ave, Dallas, TX 75206) with hundreds of young adults from across the diocese coming together for a night of community, praise and worship, and a message. All the scheduled events are from 6:35 PM to 9:35 PM. Grab a few friends, and we'll see you at these inspiring evenings.

If you would like to ensure you receive the latest news on what's happening in Young Adult Ministry, contact Michael Ingram (mingram@stjudeparish.com) to have your e-mail added to the distribution list.

YOUNG ADULT BIBLE STUDY

The study on the Gospel of Luke will continue meeting every Thursday at 7 PM at Frogg Coffee Bar & Creperie (Watter's Creek in Allen). We always love seeing new as well, as returning faces. Bring your Bible, bring a friend (or come make new ones), and show up when you can. We hope to see many of you at Frogg!

ADULTS MINISTRY

THE MASS by Bishop Barron

Wednesdays, Started July 17 through Aug. 28 (7 Weeks)
7:00 PM - 8:30 PM, Lecture Hall
Class is still OPEN!

Walk through the Liturgy (Mass) with Bishop Barron and you'll be transformed through insights on this most privileged and intimate encounter with our Lord Jesus Christ. See how the Mass brings us out of the fallen world and into the heavenly realm, how it resonates with a call from God and a response from his people, the Church, and, most importantly, how we are intimately joined with the Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity of Jesus through the Holy Eucharist.

To sign up and reserve your workbook ($25 each), please contact Patrick McKenna at pmckenna94@gmail.com. Nursery reservations available at nursery@stjudeparish.com.

LISTEN. The gospel this Sunday invites us to be like Mary, to take a break to do just that - listen, an extraordinary word that demands effort especially to most of us who want to do the most in our daily life for our family, careers and even in our volunteer work. And so we ask, in your mission to carry out God's word, are you a Mary or a Martha? There is nothing wrong with being one or the other. All of us are called and given unique gifts so we can fulfill our mission, but let's face it, we should applaud the Marys amongst us and face the reality that we need more of them. Today, we focus on ministries at St. Jude that are more like Mary, the sister who will meet and listen to Jesus in the face of the elderly, the homebound, the sick, the grieving and the destitute.

Hospital Ministry

This group is comprised of people who bring communion to infirm Catholics who are in local hospitals and healthcare facilities. We are encouraged, in this ministry of compassion, by the fact that caring for the infirm is a Corporal Work of Mercy. If you feel called to this ministry, please contact Deacon Ron at deaconron@stjudeparish.com.

Homebound Ministry

This ministry's members bring Communion to Catholic individuals who are homebound, and unable to come to Mass. These extraordinary ministers must be safe environment cleared as well as attend a homebound ministry training. Please contact Jack DeSimone at jack.desimone@gmail.com for more information.

Visitation Ministry

This ministry is devoted to alleviating what Mother Teresa called "the terrible poverty of loneliness" by providing weekly visits to the elderly and homebound in our area. Our volunteers form bonds of friendship with those at home or in care facilities through book studies, birthday celebrations, card games or just being present. If you have an hour a week, you can provide a much needed connection for them.

The Visitation Ministry will have new volunteer training/recertification meeting on Saturday Aug. 3, 9:45 AM in the Lecture Hall. Please email Katalina Lee (Katalinale3@gmail.com) for more information.

Alzheimer's Caregiver Support Group

This is a support group for caretakers of people afflicted with Alzheimer's disease. The group meets the first Thursday of each month from 1 - 2:30 PM in PLC 305. Contact Brett Branch at alzsupallen@gmail.com.

Grief Support Group

This ministry provides fellowship for those who have suffered a loss. Meetings are held the 2nd and 4th Thursday's of the month in PLC 309 following the 6 PM Mass, and for dinner the third Wednesday of each month at a local restaurant. Contact Jim Chase at thegunny731@yahoo.com.

Collin County Juvenile Detention Center (CCJDC) Ministry

This ministry team offers faith enrichment, career preparation and financial planning skills to juveniles incarcerated in the CCJDC multiple times a month. Volunteers will be required to be Safe Environment cleared at St. Jude, pass fingerprinting and a criminal background check, and attend PREA training by the COLLIN COUNTY JDC.

The CCJDC is requesting the women of St. Jude to hear the call to mission to join your sisters in bringing Christ and His message of love, forgiveness, and mercy to incarcerated young women, ages 13-19. The team currently meet these young women every 1st Tuesday of the month at the JDC in McKinney, TX for 1 hour from 7:30 - 8:30 PM. Please prayerfully consider joining this ministry to allow a second day to visit each month.

Please come and meet the CCJDC team on Monday, August at 7 PM at Black Walnut Cafe in Allen. For any questions, please contact Patricia Connolly Stephan at (952) 428-8068 or patricia.connolly@smc2.com.

"I thought, who will serve and provide a bit of hope to these girls? Could we make a difference? Then on one night, as we were about to leave the JDC, the girls asked if they could give our small ministry team a hug. How these girls longed for simple kindness, an act of mercy, caring without judgement. We saw the immense love of Christ in action that night." - a CCJDC Ministry volunteer
