21ST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

FROM THE DESK OF
FATHER ABRAHAM

21ST SUNDAY
IN ORDINARY TIME

*“And so I say to you,
you are Peter,
and upon this rock
I will build my church,
and the gates of the netherworld shall not prevail against it.”
- Mt 16:18*

Scripture lessons summarized: The first reading, taken from Isaiah, tells us how God hates unfaithful and selfish officials. He removed the proud “master of the royal palace” from his office, taking from Shebna the power and responsibility of which he had proven unworthy, and gave both to the humble and faithful Eliakim. The robe, the sash, and the keys are the insignia of this office. In today’s Responsorial Psalm (Ps 138), David thanks God for having raised him from lowly origins and given him authority as king over the people of Israel. In the second reading, St. Paul praises God for the depth of His wisdom, knowledge, and correct judgments, asserting that He is the Source of all authority on earth and in Heaven. Today’s Gospel passage shows us how Peter confesses Jesus as his Lord and Savior and how Jesus, in turn, approves Peter’s words and gives him teaching and ruling authority in his Church. Thus, Jesus establishes a “Magisterium” in his Church to serve the spiritual and physical needs of the Church members. By Jesus’ statement, “I will give you the Keys to the Kingdom of Heaven,” he gives Peter and his successors the power to bind and to loose in the Church, and the assurance that their decisions will be ratified in Heaven.

Messages: 1) We need to accept and experience Jesus as our Lord and personal Savior: First, we should accept Jesus as the Son of God and our personal Savior. Next, Jesus should become a living experience for us – as our God protecting us and providing for us in our life’s journey, loving us, forgiving us, helping us, and transforming our lives and outlook. This is made possible by our listening to Jesus through the daily, meditative reading of the Bible, by talking to Jesus through daily, personal, communal and liturgical prayers, by offering our lives on the altar with Jesus whenever we participate in the Holy Mass, by receiving him in Holy Communion, and by leading exemplary lives as we cooperate with His grace. Our personal experience of Jesus will also lead us to praise and thank God in all the events of our lives, both good pleasant and painful, realizing that God’s loving hands are behind everything.

IN THE NEWS

FINANCIAL HELP OFFERED FOR THOSE IN NEED

St. Jude's People Helping People (PHP) Financial Ministry continues to help our community with rental assistance, utilities, and various other financial needs through the generosity of our parish. At this time the compassion of others is truly a blessing.

If you know of a family in need, please go to the St. Jude website and find "Emergency Assistance" under the 'OUTREACH' tab for more information.

Assistance is also offered by the following:

- Collin County: Families that qualify for the grant could receive help with mortgage, rent, utilities and groceries. Go to collincountytx.gov for the Housing, Living Assistance Program application.
- Catholic Charities of Dallas: CCD has partnered with a number of counties and cities in North Texas to administer their emergency financial relief programs including emergency rent, mortgage and/or utility assistance to qualified residents. Go to ccdallas.org/covid-19-assistance-application.

NEW ADULT STUDIES BEGINS IN SEPTEMBER

New adult faith formation studies are scheduled to begin in September including the first in-person class since the pandemic. All of the current bible studies remain to be conducted online via Zoom. The list of new class offerings is on page 5.

PARISH PREPARES FOR NEXT COMMUNITY EVENT

The parish is getting ready for a drive-in concert as the second HOPE (Helping Our Parish Encounter) community event on Saturday, September 5. Details about the event are on page 6 and on our website at stjudeparish.com/hope.

Thank You

FOR SUPPORTING
THE ST. JUDE BLOOD DRIVE

PROTECT YOURSELF FROM COVID-19.

Please be aware that all gatherings pose a risk of infection and that all the protocols of social distancing as well as hand sanitizing are to be followed. Masks are most important during these days and should be worn on parish property. All Catholics remain dispensed from the obligation to attend Mass at this time. Please take all the necessary steps to protect yourself and others.

CATHOLICS AWAKENED

Monday evenings
September 21 to November 9
6:30 to 8:30 PM
via Zoom

Our very own Deacon Ken Steponaitis is hosting the new series, Catholics Awakened. The 7-week series which talks about our faith with an eye to understanding not only what the Church teaches, also why, and more importantly, how to apply our faith to our daily 21st century lives.

Week 1 – An overview of the series, introductions, an honest look at where we stand with our faith, and misconceptions about being Catholic

Week 2 – God waits for you! Why we lose our faith and what causes us to search again

Week 3 – Sin, forgiveness and reconciliation and how to deal with the dreaded “Confession”

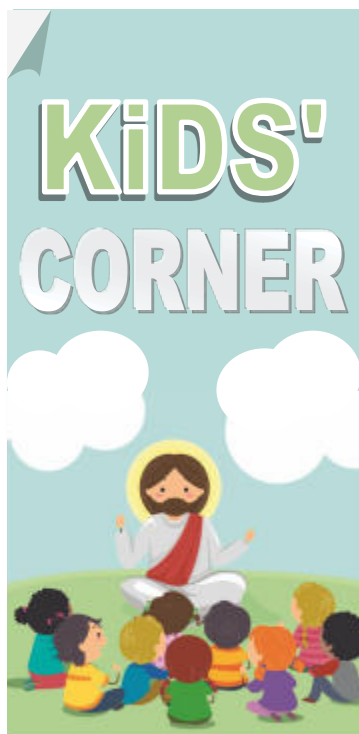

Week 4 – A discussion of what’s new in the Church (Vatican II) and a change of perspective

Week 5 – What many Catholics believe and what they “should” believe

Week 6 – How to enjoy the Mass by improving your understanding

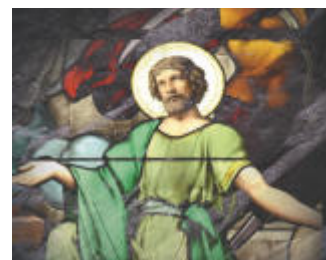

(Week 7 – Myths and facts of our faith and (if time permits) Interesting Facts of the Bible

LEARN ABOUT OUR SAINTS

Saint JOHN THE BAPTIST

St. John the Baptist was the son of Zechariah and Elizabeth, and a relative of Jesus. When Elizabeth was pregnant with John, she was visited by the Blessed Mother Mary who was also pregnant. John leapt in his mother’s womb when Elizabeth saw Mary and thus they know that the Son of God, Jesus, is in Mary’s womb.

St. John the Baptist is the Patron Saint of Baptism. He baptized Jesus in the river Jordan. He was known for living simply in the wild, wearing clothes made from camel's hair, and eating locusts and honey. He is celebrated in the Catholic Church with two feast days, his birthday on June 24 and his death on August 29.

ST. BRIGID Needle Arts Ministry

This week we shine the spotlight on St. Brigid Needle Arts Ministry. The members continue to work diligently from their homes to make lapghans, baby blankets, prayer blankets, hats and scarves for those in need.

YOU CAN HELP

If you have a stash of cotton fabric or acrylic yarn (no wool, please) and would like to donate it to the Ministry, please contact ddoss@stjudeparish.com and we will gladly pick it up. Gift cards for Joann's, Hobby Lobby and Michaels are also appreciated.

FROM THE DESK OF FATHER ABRAHAM (Continued)

2) We need to surrender our lives to Jesus, our Lord and Savior. That surrender requires that we freely give all areas of our lives to Jesus and radiate to all around us Jesus' sacrificial agápe love, unconditional forgiveness, overflowing mercy, and committed service. The joy, the love and the peace that we find in Jesus need to be reflected in the way we live our whole lives. We also surrender our lives to Jesus by rendering humble, loving service to others with the strong conviction that Jesus is present in every person.

The Church has been gathering in small Christian communities since the beginning. During these unsettled times of COVID, small groups offer us a time-tested model that enables us to still gather in community, grow in friendship, learn about the faith, and pray together.

Along with many parishes throughout the diocese, St. Jude will be offering RISE small groups this fall for adults 18-39 years old.

We are so excited to offer these small groups with content created by Katie & Tommy McGrady that specifically addresses the realities of a Dallas young adult. The small group content follows the liturgical calendar, are based on the Sunday Gospel Scriptures, and are tailored to various life stages. The first season focuses on the Ordinary Time of the Church and meeting the Saints.

We would love for you to consider being a part of our small groups, whether or not you have ever been involved with our parish before!

We have 5 different types of groups available:

Single Men ages 18-29

Single Women ages 18-29

Co-Ed Single for 30-39

Married

Married with Child(ren)

Let us climb together.
