TWENTY-FIRST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
AUGUST 25, 2019

FROM THE PASTOR

God Bless Our Students and Teachers!

This final week of August sees many of the children and young adults of our parish returning to school or college. As many of us remember, a new school year brings with it lots of excitement but can be equally stressful as students step into the unknown and face new challenges. Let us keep our students and their teachers in our prayers throughout the week.

Tomorrow also begins a new academic year for our parish school. Special thanks to our principal, Harmony Stewart, Director of Advancement, Yvonne Creehan and our teachers who have worked so hard this summer to recruit and prepare for many new students. This year we will welcome a total of 194 children to Saint Anne School, an increase of almost 50 students over last year, and the largest enrollment in more than 10 years! We are both excited and grateful for this opportunity to add so many more members to our school family.

The opening Mass for the Saint Anne School Year is scheduled for this coming Thursday, August 29th at 10am in Saint Anne Church. Of course, all parents of school children are invited and encouraged to attend, but I'd also like to extend a special invitation to all parishioners to come and pray for a successful year and meet and welcome our new students. After all, it has been your tremendous support and generosity that makes a Catholic education possible for the children of our community.

A Back to School Prayer

*God of wisdom and might,
we praise you for the wonder of our being,
for mind, body and spirit.
Be with our children as they begin a new school year.
Bless them and their teachers and staff.
Give them strength and grace as they grow this year;
wisdom and knowledge to their minds
as they search for understanding;
and peace and zeal to their hearts.
We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.*

Lectors and Eucharistic Ministers Needed

While we always welcome new liturgical ministers at anytime throughout the year, there is a dire need right now for both Lectors and Eucharistic Ministers to serve the two weekend Masses at St. Winifred's. In recent weeks many have unfortunately chosen to withdraw and we are finding it very difficult to find sufficient coverage. Training to become a Lector or Eucharistic Minister is rather simple and scheduling flexible. We really need your help, and serving at Mass is a wonderful way to serve both God and neighbor. If you are interested, please contact me (mcaridi@stpaulofthecross.com) or one of our parish sacristans, Mary Weaver or Andrew Barnhart (mweaver@stpaulofthecross.com; akjbarnhart@gmail.com). Thanks for your consideration.

First Day of School

Tomorrow is the first day of school for our Saint Anne School students. Please keep them in your prayers this week as they begin the next year of their academic achievements. The staff is very excited for the students' return and are looking forward to all that the year holds in store. Our Opening School Mass is Thursday, August 29th at 10am at Saint Anne Church. All are welcome to attend.

2019– 2020 Partners in Education Program

As we begin a new school year we are once again asking members of the Saint Paul of the Cross Parish Family, and our local communities, to support Saint Anne School by becoming a Partner in Education. Saint Anne School has been a vital part of St. Anne Church and the South Hills of Pittsburgh for over 125 years. We have succeeded thanks to the commitment of not only our school families, but because of the support of the people of St. Anne Church and the neighborhoods surrounding the school. Our school serves a critical role in the lives of the students who attend. Many of our students face challenges in their family life and come from poor and at-risk communities. It is these students who need us the most.

According to research conducted by the Alliance for Catholic Education, “social class effects on educational achievement are significantly lessened in Catholic Schools....The poorer and more at-risk a student is, the greater the relative achievement gains in Catholic Schools....Catholic Schools excel in offering high quality education, particularly to those most in need.”

Information about how you can help the students of Saint Anne School by becoming a Partner in Education can be found under the fundraising tab at www.saintanneschool.org/support. You may also contact Yvonne Creehan, Director of Advancement at ycreehan@saintanneschool.org or at 412-561-7720. Thank you for your continued support of Saint Anne School and our mission.

Saint Anne Golf Outing

The 12th Annual Saint Anne Golf Outing will be held on Monday, October 14th at Valley Brook Country Club in McMurray, PA. Registration forms may be found in the rectory and school offices, on the parish website at www.stpaulofthecross.com/News and on the school website under the Fundraising tab at www.saintanneschool.org/support. If you aren't a golfer, please consider joining us for dinner! We hope to see you there!

Thank you to our 2018-2019 Saint Anne School Partners in Education!

Gestures and Postures of the Congregation at Mass

An excerpt from Adoremus Bulletin, February 2010

In Sacramentum Caritatis, Pope Benedict stressed the need for formation and instruction about the Sacred Mysteries of the Eucharist (“mystagogical catechesis”), so that Catholic people will more fully understand and be able to unite themselves interiorly with the action of the Eucharist. The Holy Father specifically mentions signs and gestures.

The Church’s great liturgical tradition teaches us that fruitful participation in the liturgy requires that one be personally conformed to the mystery being celebrated, offering one’s life to God in unity with the sacrifice of Christ for the salvation of the whole world. For this reason, the Synod of Bishops asked that the faithful be helped to make their interior dispositions correspond to their gestures and words. Otherwise, however carefully planned and executed our liturgies may be, they would risk falling into a certain ritualism. Hence the need to provide an education in eucharistic faith capable of enabling the faithful to live personally what they celebrate ... (Sacramentum Caritatis 64)

Part of this instruction about the mystery of the Eucharist, the pope writes, involves the meaning of ritual gestures:

A mystagogical catechesis must also be concerned with presenting the meaning of the signs contained in the rites. This is particularly important in a highly technological age like our own, which risks losing the ability to appreciate signs and symbols. More than simply conveying information, a mystagogical catechesis should be capable of making the faithful more sensitive to the language of signs and gestures, which together with the word, make up the rite. (64b. Original emphasis)

The vocabulary of ritual gestures Catholics make during worship is by now, quite clearly, endangered—as has happened with other written languages. As there are relatively few explicit rules (and even these are often not followed), little uniformity of practice, and considerable confusion, it seems worthwhile to compile a sort of “dictionary” of ritual gestures, their meaning and grammar, in order to relearn our historic language of ritual worship.

By our ritual gestures—this “body language” - we unite the physical and mental/spiritual aspects of our worship of the Lord, and express our unity with Him with our entire being. Recalling this may help remind each of us to make the effort to restore this ineffable and powerful “form of speech” in our own acts of worship. With our bodies and our minds united, we express our love for Christ and witness to others His love for all.

Entrance Rites

- Make the sign of the cross with holy water (a sign of baptism) upon entering the church.
- Genuflect toward the tabernacle containing the Blessed Sacrament and the Altar of Sacrifice before entering the pew. (If there is no tabernacle in the sanctuary, or it is not visible, bow deeply, from the waist, toward the altar before entering the pew.)
- Kneel upon entering the pew for private prayer before Mass begins.
- Stand for the entrance procession.
- Bow when the crucifix, a symbol of Christ’s sacrifice, passes you in the procession. (If there is a bishop, bow when he passes, as a sign of recognition that he represents the authority of the church and of Christ as shepherd of the flock.)
- Remain standing for the entrance rites. Make the sign of the cross with the priest at the beginning of Mass.
- Strike your breast at the “mea culpa(s)” (“through my fault”) in the Confiteor.
- Bow and make the sign of the cross when the priest says “May Almighty God have mercy...”
- Bow your head when you say “Lord, have mercy” during the Kyrie.
- If there is a Rite of Sprinkling (Asperges), make the sign of the cross when the priest sprinkles water from the aspergillum in your direction.
- Throughout the Mass, bow your head at every mention at the name of Jesus and every time the Doxology [“Glory be”] is spoken or sung. Also, when asking the Lord to receive our prayer.
- Gloria: bow your head at the name of Jesus (“Lord Jesus Christ, only begotten Son,” “You alone are the Most High Jesus Christ...”)

Stay tuned for more information about gestures and postures that we use during Mass each week in upcoming bulletin publications.
