A message from our pastor…

Looking into the near future without public celebrations of the Eucharist is a bit confusing for me. I am so used to interacting with you the parishioners as we join together to worship and give thanks to our God for all we have received. I will also feel very disconnected to you in greeting you after Masses. This is a very awkward time for us as Church.

On the other hand, we are being challenged to move out of our routines and assumptions. How we respond in the next couple of months as a Church community will define what it means to be a Catholic and follower of Jesus Christ. Our ability to use social mediums to communicate the needs of our community and to continue to share the Good News open new avenues of service.

We are all creatures of habit. Habits are good in that it allows us to free our minds as we do routine things. Habits in caring for our spiritual life can be good but can also lead to routines that lack being intentional. We are in a time where we need to be intentional about the practice of our Catholic Faith.

First, I want to invite you to join the praying community online every day for the celebration of the Mass at 8:30 am. The Mass will be recorded, so you can access it later if you need to. The big downside is that you will not be able to receive the Body of Christ. You will have to do a "spiritual communion" for the time being.

Second, gather with your family to pray together. It is good to pray for others, for the patience to endure this trial and to most of all nurture your family.

Third, be aware of your neighbors, especially the elderly. Even if they don't get sick, they daily are isolated. With everything closing down, they will be even more isolated. Maybe it would be a good idea to develop a system of communication with your neighbors. It might be a good time to exchange telephone numbers. You could develop a card system to place in your windows so you and your neighbor can respond to each other. A green card to indicate all is well. A yellow card indicating help is needed. A red card to indicate there is a need for immediate help.

Make use of group text messaging with family and friends to let each other know you are alright. A daily check-in with family and friends can be a relief to worries.

What I am asking of you is to be intentional in how you pray and take care of each other. This is a call to move beyond our habits and develop new habits that give life and hope to all of us.

We will weather this storm. We can learn so much by these challenging times. We can be better neighbors to each other.

Fr. Joe Robillard

FAST AND ABSTINENCE

Everyone 14 years of age and older is bound to abstain from meat on all Fridays of Lent. Those age 18-60 are to also fast on Good Friday.

Diocese of Orange Masses to be cancelled, but doors remain open for individual visitation.

Updated statement from the Diocese of Orange Office of Communications. Note this information is sometimes changing daily.

GARDEN GROVE, CALIF., (March 17, 2020) – In response to the COVID-19 pandemic, Bishop Kevin Vann today announced that starting Tuesday, March 17, all daily and Sunday in-person Masses in the Diocese of Orange will be temporarily cancelled. However, churches will remain open for parishioners and others who wish to pray and seek spiritual assistance. All Catholics in the Diocese of Orange are dispensed from the obligation of attending Mass. A decision on when Masses will resume will be made in coordination with state and local public authorities.

This prudent step Bishop Vann is taking today is in helping to stop the virus from spreading and one more step in keeping OC Catholics healthy.

"I have grown deeply troubled by the rapid spread of the COVID0-19 pandemic," said Bishop Vann. "While the doors of the church are always open and will never close for individual visits and devotions such as the Rosary and visits to the Blessed Sacrament, I encourage parishioners to follow the protocols communicated by the health professionals."

On March 12, Bishop Vann announced steps to reduce attendance at individual services to less than 250 people and to make Mass simpler and shorter. He dispensed from the obligation to attend Sunday Mass for the ill and those wanting to avoid crowds.

The closure of diocesan Catholic schools was announced Friday, March 13 as students shift to online learning. Schools will remain closed until Monday, April 20. However, if there is improvement in stopping the spread of the virus, the school administration may revise the date to return to class earlier than April 20. Parents should watch for continued messaging from their school's leadership.

In line with the norms of the Universal Church, Bishop Vann earnestly recommends that each priest in our Diocese celebrate Holy Mass daily (but not public Mass), "since, even if the faithful cannot be present, it is the act of Christ and the Church in which priests fulfill their principal function" (canon 904). Mass intentions accepted at the parish are to be offered by the priests so as to keep continuity.

Funerals, weddings and quinceañeras should be celebrated, ensuring that social distance norms be enforced.

We anticipate a significant reduction in donations, and encourage donors to continue contributing either online or by mailing checks to the parish.

Times for confessions will be scheduled (still to be determined at St. Justin).

- Parishioners are encouraged to view Mass via Livestream. (St. Justin's is working on this) As of this writing, St. Edward the Confessor livestreams their 8:15 a.m. morning Mass from Monday through Saturday and 9 a.m. on Sunday at http://stedward.com/stedcast/. Christ Cathedral livestreams daily Mass in English (6:30 a.m.) and Vietnamese (5:30 p.m.), in addition to the Sunday livestream Masses already communicated to you at facebook.com/christcathedralca.
- On television a Sunday Catholic Mass is on channel KDOC (6 on U-Verse) at 6 a.m. and 9 a.m., and on channel WGN (180 on U-Verse) at 5 a.m. (check your guides)
- Daily Catholic Mass is on EWTN (562 on U-Verse), usually at 5 a.m., 9 a.m., 4 p.m., and 9 p.m. Times may vary. Check your guide.
- Note that EWTN also is having The Holy Rosary from Lourdes. Our Bishops have asked us to pray to Our Lady of Lourdes for health and healing. This is usually on at 4:30 a.m. and 8:30 a.m. on Saturdays and Sundays.

Errors printed on some donation envelopes

It has come to our attention that some of the last batch of Sunday donation envelopes that were mailed out had errors printed on them. We assign specific membership numbers to each registered family and these are entered into our computer system. These numbers are printed by a printing company every month on our donation envelopes. Some of this month's numbers did not match up to the names.

When we record the envelope donations every week, we go by the number and the name. Please be sure to include your NAME AND NUMBER on any donation envelope that you use.

LIGHT

"Awake, O sleeper, and arise from the dead, and Christ will give you light" (Ephesians 5:14). We are at the midpoint of our Lenten journey of conversion. As always, God never gives up on us, especially those who have "fallen asleep" along the road to conversion. The most powerful stories of conversion are proclaimed during these final weeks of Lent. They have the power to shake us out of our sleep. Today's Gospel story of the healing of the man born blind exposes the real blindness in the time of Christ—the blindness of the self-righteous religious leaders. In a few weeks, at the Easter Vigil, the Church will proclaim "Christ our Light" as the paschal candle is carried into darkened churches throughout the world. May the darkness of sin that still pervades our lives, communities, and world, be dispelled by the Christ who comes to bring sight to the blind and light to the world. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

Letter from Archbishop José H. Gomez of Los Angeles,

president of the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops

With the worldwide outbreak of the coronavirus, we are confronted once more with the fragility of our lives, and again we are reminded of our common humanity — that the peoples of this world are our brothers and sisters, that we are all one family under God.

God does not abandon us, he goes with us even now in this time of trial and testing. In this moment, it is important for us to anchor our hearts in the hope that we have in Jesus Christ. Now is the time to intensify our prayers and sacrifices for the love of God and the love of our neighbor. Let us draw closer to one another in our love for him, and rediscover the things that truly matter in our lives.

United with our Holy Father Pope Francis, let us pray in solidarity for our brothers and sisters here and around the world who are sick. Let us pray for those who have lost loved ones to this virus. May God console them and grant them peace.

We pray also for doctors, nurses, and caregivers, for public health officials and all civic leaders. May God grant them courage and prudence as they seek to respond to this emergency with compassion and in service to the common good.

In this time of need, I invite all the faithful to seek together the maternal intercession of Our Lady of Guadalupe, and I share this prayer with you:

Holy Virgin of Guadalupe,
Queen of the Angels and Mother of the Americas.
We fly to you today as your beloved children.
We ask you to intercede for us with your Son,
as you did at the wedding in Cana.

Pray for us, loving Mother,
and gain for our nation and world,
and for all our families and loved ones,
the protection of your holy angels,
that we may be spared the worst of this illness.

For those already afflicted,
we ask you to obtain the grace of healing and deliverance.
Hear the cries of those who are vulnerable and fearful, wipe away their tears and help them to trust.

In this time of trial and testing, teach all of us in the Church to love one another and to be patient and kind.
Help us to bring the peace of Jesus to our land and to our hearts.

We come to you with confidence,
knowing that you truly are our compassionate mother,
health of the sick and cause of our joy.

Shelter us under the mantle of your protection,
keep us in the embrace of your arms,
help us always to know the love of your Son, Jesus.
Amen.

Pope Francis left the Vatican on March 15 to visit two churches in Rome to pray for the end of the coronavirus pandemic.

The Holy Father went to the Basilica of Santa Maria Maggiore, and prayed before the icon of the Virgin Mary. Known as Mary, Health of Romans, it is a favorite icon of Pope Francis. This icon was carried in a procession in an effort to help stop a plague in 593 by Pope St. Gregory the Great. In 1837, prayers were offered to the icon by Pope Gregory XVI in an attempt to end a cholera pandemic.

Pope Francis also visited St. Marcello Church whose famous crucifix was carried in in 1522 procession in Rome when the city was stricken with the plague. Believers claim that it helped to save the Romans from the plague. The procession lasted 16 days. Legend has it that the plague ended on the day the procession with the crucifix reached St. Peter's.

In a statement, the Vatican said the Holy Father prayed for an end to the global pandemic as well as for those who have died, for the healing of those afflicted, their families, health care providers, and the employers and employees keeping essential retail outlets such as food stores and pharmacies open.

The Vatican will have their Holy Week liturgies but without public attendance. St. Peter's Square is closed to the public.

A prayer offered by His Holiness, Pope Francis, during the Wednesday audience held on March 11, 2020:

O Mary, you always shine on our path as a sign of salvation and of hope. We entrust ourselves to you, Health of the Sick, who at the cross took part in Jesus' pain, keeping your faith firm. You, Salvation of the Roman People, know what we need, and we are sure you will provide so that, as in Cana of Galilee, we may return to joy and to feasting after this time of trial. Help us, Mother of Divine Love, to conform to the will of the Father and to do as we are told by Jesus, who has taken upon himself our sufferings and carried our sorrows to lead us, through the cross, to the joy of the resurrection. Amen.

Under your protection, we seek refuge, Holy Mother of God. Do not disdain the entreaties of we who are in trial, but deliver us from every danger, O glorious and blessed Virgin.

We are in need of items for door prizes and more!

Email and text scams

(originally published in 2018, but this continues to happen, not only at our parish but others in our Diocese as well)

If you have an e-mail account, you know that there are many people attempting to rob you of your money or personal information. The best thing to do is immediately delete any e-mail you think is suspicious. Recently, many parishioners received an e-mail that looked like it was from me asking for financial help for someone I knew who was sick. It was very clever how they had used the first part of my e-mail but attached it to a different e-mail service.

We priests do not solicit funds for personal reasons from parishioners. If you receive an e-mail from any one of us asking for funds or gift cards, please immediately send it to your junk mail file. Also, please contact the parish office to let us know right away.

Thanks, Fr. Joe

*Note that recent scam attempts have been sent via text message to people's phones. They also appear to be coming from Fr. Joe, and also are asking for money or gift cards. These are scams. Do not respond to them.

REFLEXIONES SOBRE LA PALABRA

Primera lectura — Samuel ungió a David para ser rey (1 Samuel 16:1b, 6-7, 10-13a).
Salmo — El Señor es mi pastor; nada me falta (Salmo 23 [22]).
Segunda lectura — Levántense de entre los muertos, hijos de la luz (Efesios 5:8-14).
Evangelio — De esto estoy seguro: Yo era ciego pero ahora puedo ver (Juan 9:1-41 [1, 6-9, 13-17, 34- 38]).

El Señor es mi pastor, nada me faltará

El ciego de nacimiento. Una vez más tenemos una página maravillosa del Evangelio de Juan. Es la descripción más amplia y dramática de la realización de un milagro (llamados signos en este Evangelio) en toda la Sagrada Escritura. Lo dramático lo vemos porque trata de simbolizar el estado de ceguera en el cual se encuentran los hombres, si Dios no viene a su encuentro para abrirles los ojos y así puedan ver.

Jesús vio al pasar a un ciego. La mirada de Jesús revela la actitud divina frente a cualquier dolor del ser humano. Antes que el hombre pueda ver a Jesús, ya Este lo ha visto, ha observado su mal. Jesús no fue el primero en verlo, pero si quien se detiene. Sin que el ciego invoque su intervención, Jesús se acerca para curarlo, poniéndole sobre los ojos un empasto de saliva y lodo. Los antiguos pensaban que la saliva tenia virtudes terapéuticas y los rabinos prohibían en el sábado –el día en que sucede el milagro- toda curación que no fuera requerida por un peligro de muerte.

1 Samuel 16, 1. 6-7. 10-13
En aquellos días, dijo el Señor a Samuel: "Ve a la casa de Jesé, en Belén, porque de entre sus hijos me he escogido un rey. Llena, pues, tu cuerno de aceite para ungirlo y vete".

Cuando llegó Samuel a Belén y vio a Eliab, el hijo mayor de Jesé, pensó: "Éste es, sin duda, el que voy a ungir como rey". Pero el Señor le dijo: "No te dejes impresionar por su aspecto ni por su gran estatura, pues yo lo he descartado, porque yo no juzgo como juzga el hombre. El hombre se fija en las apariencias, pero el Señor se fija en los corazones".

Así fueron pasando ante Samuel siete de los hijos de Jesé; pero Samuel dijo: "Ninguno de éstos es el elegido del Señor". Luego le preguntó a Jesé: "¿Son éstos todos tus hijos?" Él respondió: "Falta el más pequeño, que está cuidando el rebaño". Samuel le dijo: "Hazlo venir, porque no nos sentaremos a comer hasta que llegue". Y Jesé lo mandó llamar.

El muchacho era rubio, de ojos vivos y buena presencia. Entonces el Señor dijo a Samuel: "Levántate y úngelo, porque éste es". Tomó Samuel el cuerno con el aceite y lo ungió delante de sus hermanos. A partir de aquel día, el espíritu del Señor estuvo con David.

Efesios 5, 8-14
Hermanos: En otro tiempo ustedes fueron tinieblas, pero ahora, unidos al Señor, son luz. Vivan, por lo tanto, como hijos de la luz. Los frutos de la luz son la bondad, la santidad y la verdad. Busquen lo que es agradable al Señor y no tomen parte en las obras estériles de los que son tinieblas.

Al contrario, repruébenlas abiertamente; porque, si bien las cosas que ellos hacen en secreto da vergüenza aun mencionarlas, al ser reprobadas abiertamente, todo queda en claro, porque todo lo que es iluminado por la luz se convierte en luz.

Por eso se dice: Despierta, tú que duermes; levántate de entre los muertos y Cristo será tu luz.

Evangelio
Lectura del santo evangelio según san Juan 9, 1. 6-9. 13-17. 34-38

En aquel tiempo, Jesús vio al pasar a un ciego de nacimiento. Escupió en el suelo, hizo lodo con la saliva, se lo puso en los ojos al ciego y le dijo: "Ve a lavarte en la piscina de Siloé" (que significa 'Enviado'). Él fue, se lavó y volvió con vista.

Entonces los vecinos y los que lo habían visto antes pidiendo limosna, preguntaban: "¿No es éste el que se sentaba a pedir limosna?" Unos decían: "Es el mismo". Otros: "No es él, sino que se le parece". Pero él decía: "Yo soy".

Llevaron entonces ante los fariseos al que había sido ciego. Era sábado el día en que Jesús hizo lodo y le abrió los ojos. También los fariseos le preguntaron cómo había adquirido la vista. Él les contestó: "Me puso lodo en los ojos, me lavé y veo". Algunos de los fariseos comentaban: "Ese hombre no viene de Dios, porque no guarda el sábado". Otros replicaban: "¿Cómo puede un pecador hacer semejantes prodigios?" Y había división entre ellos. Entonces es volvieron a preguntarle al ciego: "Y tú, ¿qué piensas del que te abrió los ojos?" Él les contestó: "Que es un profeta". Le replicaron: "Tú eres puro pecado desde que naciste, ¿cómo pretendes darnos lecciones?" Y lo echaron fuera.

Supo Jesús que lo habían echado fuera, y cuando lo encontró, le dijo: "¿Crees tú en el Hijo del hombre?" Él contestó: "¿Y quién es, Señor, para que yo crea en él?" Jesús le dijo: "Ya lo has visto; el que está hablando contigo, ése es". Él dijo: "Creo, Señor". Y postrándose, lo adoró. Palabra del Señor. R. Gloria a ti, Señor Jesús.

"Escucharon hermanos, la lectura del evangelio en donde se narra que, al pasar Jesús, vio a un ciego de nacimiento.

Pues bien, si el Señor lo vio, no paso de largo: por lo que tampoco nosotros debemos pasar de largo junto al ciego que el Señor no quiso evitar, máxime tratándose de un ciego de nacimiento, detalle que el evangelista no subraya en vano….. El Señor le hizo el don de la salud, logrado curar. Corresponde, de hecho al Creador rectificar las deficiencias de la naturaleza, puesto que él es el autor de la misma.

Por eso añadió: "Mientras estoy en el mundo, soy la luz del mundo". Que es como si dijera: todos los ciegos podrán recuperar la vista, con tal de que me busquen a mí que soy la luz. Contempladme también vosotros y quedareis radiantes, de modo que podáis ver.
