Messages from our pastor, Fr. Joe Robillard...

Change is always difficult and usually unwelcomed in our lives. These days of changes, maintaining social distancing, closed schools and no public Masses have been forced upon all of us. We were not expecting these, and if asked, they are changes we do not want. We are all having to cope with change in these days of Coronavirus.

One of the great things about being human is a tremendous ability to change and adapt to new situations and environments. It is one of the hallmarks of the success of the human species. Change is not only about survival, but it is also the invitation to conversion. As Christian Catholics, we are about conversion, which we have equated to turning away from sin.

The Greek work for conversion is "metanoia" which means to change the way you think or see life. If you see things differently then you are motivated to change how you behave. For example, if you see how your behavior affects those around you in a negative way, that you realize that you are hurting the people you say you love. Then if you love them, you change what it is you are doing.

This season of Easter that we are beginning is the celebration of the resurrection of Jesus from the dead. To be honest, I am not really sure what "resurrection from the dead" looks like. I do know it has a two-fold invitation for all of us. The first is an invitation to trust. Since we cannot really know what resurrection of the dead looks like, we trust that it is a good thing. The reason we trust that it is good is because of the one who promises resurrection to us, Jesus, who did rise for the dead.

The second invitation to us is one of hope. What we see in this life is but a shadow of what eternal life is all about. Yes, there is more to life than what we see in front of us now. I believe that our celebration of the Mass each day is a foretaste of the heavenly banquet, all saints and sinners sitting around the table nourished by our Savior Jesus Christ. Because it is not something that we have completely right now it is a hope.

All that is happening to us at this time in history is also an invitation into trust and hope. It does not mean we have the answers, nor do we just sit back and do nothing. It does mean that we are at peace and we approach this crisis of health with charity for all.

I hope that this crisis will soon be over. I hope that it will change us in a positive direction. I trust that God has endowed us with the wisdom to see this crisis as to what is possible and better for all people.

To our parishioners:

As you know, with the celebration of Mass taking place on-line and not having our usual form of the communication during Mass, we have been challenged to figure out how to keep the Church going by different means. We are moving all our meetings to on-line forums. Faith Formation classes are resuming on a Google platform. Our parish staff is calling parishioners.

The challenge of calling you these days is that there are so many scams going on that some of us have gotten into the habit of not answering our phones if the phone number is not recognized. This has been a struggle for our parish staff to reach out to parishioners. If you see 714-774-2595 come up on your caller ID, it is from us.

I would like you to direct as many people as you can to our website as well. So many of our parishioners have no idea that we have a website. It would be a great favor to us if when you communicate with your family and friends by telephone, e-mail, or text, that you direct them to our website. We are offering daily Mass by livestreaming in English at 8:30 am every weekday and at 8 am on Sundays. It can also be seen later in the day by accessing our website.

This past weekend we received $5,896 in donations. This is only a quarter of what we normally receive. I encourage you to continue to support the Church by using our on-line giving program of Faith Direct or by using your bill pay feature on your on-line banking. You can also mail your donation to the Church or drop it off at the parish office.

My last invitation to you is to join in prayer. I suggest that we all join in prayer beginning a 6 pm every day. You can pray the Rosary, the Divine Mercy Chaplet, the Liturgy of the Hours or silent meditation. We need to pray for each other and for those who are suffering the most. There will be many who will become ill. Many will die. We need to pray for all the medical professionals who are risking their health and lives to care of the sick. We need to pray for all who have lost their jobs and are worried about what they will do to sustain their families. We need to pray for people in other countries who will fall ill to this virus but do not have access to the medical attention they need. Most of all, we need to pray that we stay in the Lord's peace and trust in His divine will.

"Peace be with you." This is the greeting the risen Lord gives to his disciples when he appears to them after the resurrection. This is our hope that we give to each other now through our Faith and our prayers, and we look forward to being able to join together in person to share this greeting as family, friends, and fellow parishioners.

We take this journey together seeking the true peace found in the risen Lord, Jesus Christ. Alleluia.

We are calling all of our parishioners

On behalf of Fr. Joe, members of our parish staff are calling all of our parishioners that we have on file. To improve our communication capabilities, we will be asking you to confirm your contact information, email, and cell phone numbers. We want to stay connected with you and be sure that you have access to the latest parish information.

You can also give us a call to update your information or register with the parish.

SEEDS OF FAITH

There is a brevity, a certain terseness, in the scripture readings for Easter Sunday. Peter's speech in Acts is built of direct, pointed sentences. Paul's letters are based on straightforward creed-like statements. Even the Gospel story only briefly recounts what will turn out to be one of the most remarkable events in human history—the resurrection of Jesus from the dead. Advertising agents call these encapsulated points of information "bullet points." Scripture scholars call them kerygmata, or "kernels" of our faith. Actually, "kernels" or "seeds" are good terms for these statements, since throughout the Easter season, we will hear in the Acts of the Apostles, the Letters of Paul, and the Gospel accounts of the days following the Resurrection exactly how these kerygmata began to flower, how they continued to grow through the life of the early church. May these Easter "seeds" of faith serve a similar purpose for us, too, so that the life of the Risen Christ will flourish in us and through our witness in the coming days.

THE EASTER OCTAVE

Sunday, April 12 - Sunday, April 19, 2020

Eastertime lasts fifty days: seven weeks of seven days (seven equals Biblical perfection) plus one day: perfection plus! Like an eight-day Jewish wedding, or a child who can't bear to let go of Christmas, birthdays, and school vacation, the Church celebrates the Easter Octave: "the marriage of heaven and earth," as the Vigil calls Jesus' resurrection; our new members' baptismal rebirth; our renewal of baptismal vows; our hearts' "divine vacation" (Latin vacare, "to be empty"), newfound time and space for love of God and neighbor. Make home an Easter garden! Adorn the dining table with a pillar candle (your "paschal candle"), a bowl full of water, a vase of flowers or bowl of sprouting grain with Easter eggs. Even non-singers can handle the three-fold Gospel Alleluia! Let that be your grace before meals, perhaps with a prayer recalling Emmaus (Luke 24:13-35): "Be known to us, Risen Lord Jesus, as you were to the first disciples, in your word, in the breaking of bread, and in everyone we meet." —Peter Scagnelli, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

We ask that God in His compassion might protect those who are suffering, relieve the pain of those who are sick, give strength to those who are taking care of them, and welcome the deceased into eternal peace.

From Pope Francis' Mass on Sunday, March 29

From Vatican News

"I am thinking of the many people who are weeping", Pope Francis said, introducing the liturgy for the Fifth Sunday of Lent at the Casa Santa Marta chapel. People who are isolated, in quarantine, the elderly; people who are alone, in the hospital, parents who do not foresee receiving their salary and do not know how they will feed their children, he continued. "Many people are weeping. We too, from our hearts, accompany them."

Spiritual communion

After the Pope received communion, he invited all those watching or listening to the liturgy to make a spiritual communion. He used the prayer composed by St. Alphonsus di Liguori:

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Blessed Sacrament.

I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul.

Since I cannot now receive you sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart.

I embrace You as if you were already there,
and I unite myself wholly to You.

Never permit me to be separated from You.

A Prayer Amid an Epidemic

by Kerry Weber, of America magazine, March 30, 2020

Jesus Christ, you traveled through towns and villages "curing every disease and illness." At your command, the sick were made well. Come to our aid now, in the midst of the global spread of the coronavirus, that we may experience your healing love.

Heal those who are sick with the virus. May they regain their strength and health through quality medical care.

Heal us from our fear, which prevents nations from working together and neighbors from helping one another.

Heal us from our pride, which can make us claim invulnerability to a disease that knows no borders.

Jesus Christ, healer of all, stay by our side in this time of uncertainty and sorrow.

Be with those who have died from the virus. May they be at rest with you in your eternal peace.

Be with the families of those who are sick or have died. As they worry and grieve, defend them from illness and despair. May they know your peace.

Be with the doctors, nurses, researchers and all medical professionals who seek to heal and help those affected and who put themselves at risk in the process. May they know your protection and peace.

Be with the leaders of all nations. Give them the foresight to act with charity and true concern for the well-being of the people they are meant to serve. Give them the wisdom to invest in long-term solutions that will help prepare for or prevent future outbreaks. May they know your peace, as they work together to achieve it on earth.

Whether we are home or abroad, surrounded by many people suffering from this illness or only a few, Jesus Christ, stay with us as we endure and mourn, persist and prepare. In place of our anxiety, give us your peace.

Jesus Christ, heal us.

Prayers for Healing and for the Sick

For Healing: Gracious Lord, remember in your mercy those who suffer today. Give strength and encouragement to those who minister to their needs. Remember your promise not to let them be tested beyond what they are able to bear. Above all, give them the reassurance that you are with them as they walk through this valley of the shadows of death. And in your good time send healing of body and spirit. [Name those who need healing or help in their suffering.] In Jesus' name, Amen.

For the Sick: God of mercy, when I'm sick I often find it hard to pray. So I offer this moment of prayer when I'm well for all those who may now be too weak, too tired or too depressed to pray and to believe at this time in your goodness and mercy. May this be a healing moment for them, as it was for the woman in the Gospel who touched the hem of your garment. Amen. Sr. Marguerite Zralek, OP

HELP OUT OUR ADVERTISERS

Our Sunday bulletin is an important way for us to communicate with you, especially during these days of the Coronavirus pandemic. It might be the only way that we can reach some of you. Every bulletin that you receive is paid for through the generosity of the businesses that you see advertised on the back cover. Most of these advertisers are members of our local community, and many belong to our parish. We urge you to think of them when you decide to have a meal or other item delivered to your door. Tell the business owners that you appreciate their support of our parish through their advertisements in the bulletin. This is one small way that we can work within our own community to weather the challenges that we face. Together we can help each other make it through. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.

Holy Virgin of Guadalupe,

Queen of the Angels and Mother of the Americas.
We fly to you today as your beloved children.
We ask you to intercede for us with your Son,
as you did at the wedding in Cana.

Pray for us, loving Mother,
and gain for our nation and world,
and for all our families and loved ones,
the protection of your holy angels,
that we may be spared the worst of this illness.

For those already afflicted,
we ask you to obtain the grace of healing and deliverance.
Hear the cries of those who are vulnerable and fearful,
wipe away their tears and help them to trust.

In this time of trial and testing, teach all of us in the Church to love one another and to be patient and kind.
Help us to bring the peace of Jesus to our land and to our hearts.

We come to you with confidence,
knowing that you truly are our compassionate mother,
health of the sick and cause of our joy.

Shelter us under the mantle of your protection, keep us in the embrace of your arms,
help us always to know the love of your Son, Jesus. Amen.

Virgen Santísima de Guadalupe,
Reina de los Ángeles y Madre de las Américas.
Acudimos a ti hoy como tus amados hijos.
Te pedimos que intercedas por nosotros con tu Hijo, como lo hiciste en las bodas de Caná.

Ruega por nosotros, Madre amorosa,
y obtén para nuestra nación, nuestro mundo,
y para todas nuestras familias y seres queridos,
la protección de tus santos ángeles,
para que podamos salvarnos de lo peor de esta enfermedad.

Para aquellos que ya están afectados, te pedimos que les concedas la gracia de la sanación y la liberación.
Escucha los gritos de aquellos que son vulnerables y temerosos, seca sus lágrimas y ayúdalos a confiar.

En este tiempo de dificultad y prueba, enséñanos a todos en la Iglesia a amarnos los unos a los otros y a ser pacientes y amables.

Ayúdanos a llevar la paz de Jesús a nuestra tierra y a nuestros corazones.
Acudimos a ti con confianza, sabiendo que realmente eres nuestra madre compasiva, la salud de los enfermos y la causa de nuestra alegría.

Refúgianos bajo el manto de tu protección, mantennos en el abrazo de tus brazos, ayúdanos a conocer siempre el amor de tu Hijo, Jesús.
Amén

Salmo responsorial: Leccionario Hispanoamericano Dominical © 1970, Comisión Episcopal Española. Usado con permiso. Todos los derechos reservados.

Este es el día del triunfo Del Señor, Aleluya

Éste es el día del triunfo del Señor. Es la proclamación de la más grande alegría que jamás se había hecho en la atormentada historia de la humanidad: un hombre, Jesús de Nazaret, hombre como nosotros, el Hijo de Dios venido a nuestra historia, murió crucificado entre inenarrables dolores, está ahora vivo y presente entre nosotros para no morir ya jamás. Y aun mas, Jesús se ha vuelto el Hombre nuevo y Hombre verdadero, principio de novedad de vida para cualquiera que a Él se confíe en la fe, en la esperanza y en el amor.

Hechos 10, 34 37-43

En aquellos días, Pedro tomó la palabra y dijo: "Ya saben ustedes lo sucedido en toda Judea, que tuvo principio en Galilea, después del bautismo predicado por Juan: cómo Dios ungió con el poder del Espíritu Santo a Jesús de Nazaret, y cómo éste pasó haciendo el bien, sanando a todos los oprimidos por el diablo, porque Dios estaba con él.

Nosotros somos testigos de cuanto él hizo en Judea y en Jerusalén. Lo mataron colgándolo de la cruz, pero Dios lo resucitó al tercer día y concedió verlo, no a todo el pueblo, sino únicamente a los testigos que él, de antemano, había escogido: a nosotros, que hemos comido y bebido con él después de que resucitó de entre los muertos.

Él nos mandó predicar al pueblo y dar testimonio de que Dios lo ha constituido juez de vivos y muertos. El testimonio de los profetas es unánime: que cuantos creen en él reciben, por su medio, el perdón de los pecados''.

1 Corintios 5, 6-8

Hermanos: ¿No saben ustedes que un poco de levadura hace fermentar toda la masa? Tiren la antigua levadura, para que sean ustedes una masa nueva, ya que son pan sin levadura, pues Cristo, nuestro cordero pascual, ha sido inmolado.

Celebremos, pues, la fiesta de la Pascua, no con la antigua levadura, que es de vicio y maldad, sino con el pan sin levadura, que es de sinceridad y verdad.

Evangelio

Lectura del santo evangelio según san Juan 20, 1-9

El primer día después del sábado, estando todavía oscuro, fue María Magdalena al sepulcro y vio removida la piedra que lo cerraba. Echó a correr, llegó a la casa donde estaban Simón Pedro y el otro discípulo, a quien Jesús amaba, y les dijo: "Se han llevado del sepulcro al Señor y no sabemos dónde lo habrán puesto".

Salieron Pedro y el otro discípulo camino del sepulcro. Los dos iban corriendo juntos, pero el otro discípulo corrió más aprisa que Pedro y llegó primero al sepulcro, e inclinándose, miró los lienzos puestos en el suelo, pero no entró.

En eso llegó también Simón Pedro, que lo venía siguiendo, y entró en el sepulcro. Contempló los lienzos puestos en el suelo y el sudario, que había estado sobre la cabeza de Jesús, puesto no con los lienzos en el suelo, sino doblado en sitio aparte. Entonces entró también el otro discípulo, el que había llegado primero al sepulcro, y vio y creyó, porque hasta entonces no habían entendido las Escrituras, según las cuales Jesús debía resucitar de entre los muertos. Palabra del Señor. R. Gloria a ti, Señor Jesús.

LA PRIMACÍA DEL DOMINGO

¿Por qué la Iglesia no celebra la memoria de los santos en domingo? Porque el domingo es el día en que resucitó el Señor; es el primer día de la semana, es el día en que los primeros cristianos, desde la tarde del sábado, comenzaron a celebrar la Eucaristía. La celebración del domingo es la inmersión en el "octavo día", es decir, en el tiempo de Dios. Es el día que corona la semana en su más bello esplendor: la resurrección del Señor. Por tal motivo "se considera el domingo como el día festivo primordial". La Constitución sobre la Sagrada Liturgia nos recuerda que el domingo es "la fiesta primordial que debe presentarse e inculcarse a los fieles" y las Normas Generales para el Calendario y el Año Litúrgico reafirman su importancia al estipular que, dada la importancia del domingo, sólo una solemnidad o fiesta pueden reemplazar su celebración. Cuando se habla de reemplazar su celebración, quiere decir, el uso de lecturas y oraciones propias que el Misal Romano contiene para la celebración de dicha fiesta.

En su primer discurso después de haber recibido el Espíritu Santo (Cf Hechos 2, 12-36), san Pedro proclama con valentía
y entusiasmo el hecho de la Resurrección.
Tal evento estará siempre al centro de la fe de los cristianos.
En nuestro Credo Jesús es el Viviente,
El hijo de Dios que, al venir al mundo,
Asumió la condición humana y ofreció su vida para redimirnos.

Pequeñas reflexiones

Apuesta por la vida Continúa…..

No importa la edad que tengas, que tu pasado no determine quién tú quieres llegar a ser. No vivas aferrado a tu pasado porque la única verdad es tu presente — tu hoy —. La ranita se atrevió a dejar el pozo donde posiblemente hubiera muerto. La niña apostó por Dios y no se arrepintió. Y tú ¿por quién vas a apostar, por la vida (Dios) o la muerte?

Dale una oportunidad a Dios y dile, toma mi pasado de dolor, humillación, etc., sea cual sea y dame verdadera vida. Esta chica que pensó que no la iba hacer; hoy es feliz, no tiene todo, pero nada le falta.

Tiene a Dios y una familia. Terminó su carrera en psicología, está actualmente estudiando dos maestrías, sirve a Dios, tiene un trabajo y es la que te escribe hoy. Al igual que la ranita opté por la vida. La vida de Dios en mí acabó con la depresión, me dio paz, alegría, gozo, esperanza, vida, una vida que no muere. Una vida que sana heridas, dolores y te da fuerza para superarte y echarle ganas a la vida misma.

Agradecida, al igual que la ranita con Dios porque los comentarios negativos, las heridas y humillaciones de mi pasado no determinaron quien soy ahora —ni me llevaron a la muerte definitiva —. Tomé la decisión más inteligente: apostar por la vida (Dios) y renunciar a la muerte — no me arrepiento —. Y a ti te digo: ¡di no, al no puedo, no valgo, soy un fracaso —apuesta por la vida, no te arrepentirás—!

¡Yo creo en ti!

Todos tenemos una historia que merecemos contar, susurrar o gritar. A veces creemos no tener nada que decir porque pensamos que para contarlo debe ser algo extraordinario, estremecedor y hasta creemos la mentira de que lo que tenemos que decir "no importa". Mi nombre es Marie N. Ramírez Pagán, soy puertorriqueña y tengo una maestría en Consejería en Rehabilitación. A lo largo de mi vida, he tenido el privilegio de acompañar y escuchar las historias de jóvenes mujeres y hombres a nivel psicológico, como consejera, y en acompañamiento espiritual como agente de Pastoral Juvenil.

Proveer un espacio de escucha comprensiva, ayudando, guiando y acompañando es donde he encontrado mi llamado. Es de gran satisfacción ser testigo de la transformación de un ser humano, sobre todo a nivel espiritual. Continuará…
