WORD AND SACRAMENT

The experience of the disciples journeying to Emmaus is our experience, too. As the First Eucharistic Prayer for Various Needs puts it: "as once for the disciples, so now for us, [Jesus] opens the Scriptures and breaks the bread." The pattern of the Emmaus experience is reflected in the structure of the Eucharistic celebration: we recount the works of scripture and seek to understand how they cast light on what is happening in our lives; but it is only in the breaking of the bread that our eyes are truly opened to the meaning of God's revelation and the meaning of our lives. The Liturgy of the Word and the Liturgy of the Table form a unity; the scriptural word of God prepares our hearts to receive Christ, the living Word, sacramentally, and our reception of the living Word opens our eyes to the meaning of the scriptural word and to its implications for us. Just as the disciples at Emmaus, word and sacrament together empower us to proclaim the good news of the risen Jesus, to tell of how we met him on the way, and of how he was made known to us in the breaking of the bread.

REMEMBER OUR FAITHFUL DEPARTED

In your charity kindly remember the souls of Raymond T. Vorell, Sr. and Carl J. Rouge, and all who have gone before us. Dear God, death, as much as birth, is a part of the circle of life. Hear our prayers for those who have died. Give us comfort in our grief, and hope in your eternal love. May all those who have served you on earth share in the fullness of joy in your heavenly kingdom. Bring us all to the glory of the resurrection. Amen.

Dear Parish Family,

I enjoy watching sports. Though I never was one to play basketball, or baseball, or football on a competitive basis, there are times when I enjoy catching a game on TV or even in person. Every sports team has one goal in mind of being the last one standing, of being able to engage in that familiar championship tradition of jumping up & down, high-fiving, hugging, pouring champagne over each other's heads, and hoisting the trophy into the air. We experienced it once here in Cleveland over the past few years and I hope that we're able to experience it again soon.

Winning a sports championship is great, but what's even better is the Resurrection. But yet, when we find the apostles encountering the Risen Lord, we don't find any type of championship celebrations. There was no champagne back then, but when the Risen Lord appears in their midst, there's no hugging, no jumping up & down, no trophy being hoisted, but rather, as we hear today, they were troubled and filled with fear. The Risen Lord asks them today, "Why are you troubled?"

It'd be great if the reality of the Resurrection meant no more trouble. It'd be great if knowing that the Risen Lord was with us removed all fear, anxiety, and worry from our lives. But even with the knowledge that Jesus is alive, they were troubled and so too are we, troubled with fears of this pandemic, worries of struggles that we're experiencing in our personal lives. But Jesus doesn't criticize the disciples for their being troubled, he doesn't condemn them, rather he shows them His hands and feet, He shows them His wounds.

He's showing them that the wounds of Good Friday, His that He went through and ours that we are still going through, can and will be transformed into the joys of new life. The struggles that we're going through right now can end up being ways through which God transforms us. Our challenges, our troubles, can be invitations to new life. Maybe we're not jumping up and down for joy like we've won the championship just yet, but the Risen Lord reminds us that the struggles of Good Friday always have the possibility of being transformed into the joys of Easter.

—Fr. John

CATHOLIC HOME MISSIONS APPEAL

Strengthening the Church at Home

What is a "Home Mission" Diocese?

Home mission dioceses are those Catholic dioceses in the United States, its territories, and former territories that cannot provide basic pastoral services without outside help. Basic pastoral services include Mass, the sacraments, religious education, and ministry training for priests, deacons, religious sisters, and laypeople. Right now, over 40% of dioceses in the United States and its territories are considered home missions. Next week we will take up the Catholic Home Missions Appeal. Please prayerfully consider how you can support this appeal.
