REMEMBER IN PRAYER

The sick and recovering in the parish as well as those that have not the courage or strength to ask for our prayers.

Dear Parish Families,

I hope that you had a wonderful Fourth of July holiday this past weekend. Even though these summer days are filled with less activity than during the rest of the year it seems that they still pass quickly. I certainly don't want to rush it, but soon we'll be talking about back-to-school and the activities of fall.

This week also began a new journey for our parish families as we began our new office structure. I certainly want to again thank Irene Smith for all her dedication and help at St. Vincent de Paul over the years. Thank you too to Ann McKenzie for all her help. Ann, who has been our Administrative Assistant at St. Patrick's for just over a year now takes on a new role as our Joint Parish Administrative Assistant. Thanks to Ann for being willing to take on the additional responsibility and being a sounding board for me as we seek to do our best to make sure that this process goes as smoothly as possible and that the needs of each parish family are taken care of. As I shared when I first announced the news, there likely will be (or already have been) some bumps along the way, so please be patient, but we will get them figured out and be stronger together as we all work to proclaim that the Kingdom of God is at hand.

Looking ahead, though we now have one central office for both parishes, I will not be in it at all this week beginning on Tuesday. Angel will be taking some time off to spend at "Spa Grandma" and I will be heading out of town to stay with some friends in the southern part of our country. As Fr. Robert would say, I will see you again on Friday, July 18th when I return to the office. In the meantime, try not to miss me too much (I know how hard that will be ;)) and Fr. Robert will be sharing with you in next week's column while I am away.

Have a blessed week and continue to pray for each other!

Dave Van Vickie, a popular speaker who presents on topics related to spiritual warfare, our call to holiness, and authentic Catholic spirituality, and Fr. Bob Franco, the Bishop's Liaison for Charismatic Renewal in the Cleveland Diocese. Auxiliary Bishop Michael G. Woost will be the celebrant for the Vigil Mass, and Matt Fafrak will lead us in contemporary praise music throughout the day and evening.
