Today is Pentecost. Fifty days after the Resurrection, Jesus with the Father sends the Holy Spirit upon the Apostles and followers completing the work of Redemption. With Pentecost the Church is born. Filled with the Holy Spirit, the many disciples under the leadership of the Eleven form the body of Christ on earth, the Church. The commission: be witnesses of the life, death and Resurrection of the Lord for the forgiveness of sins and preach the Gospel of life. Baptize in the name of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, extending the Spirit of the living God into their hearts and souls. Transform human society by your share in divinity to reflect the Will of God. We rejoice with great gladness today. The double Alleluia at the dismissal returns today as the closing bookend of the Easter Season to demonstrate our joy.

We pray today for the Holy Spirit to burn with fervor in our hearts. Fire is an interesting symbol of the Holy Spirit as it destroys and is frightening. When I was a kid, I had a recurring nightmare about burning buildings. In my early 20s our neighbor had a housefire. We had lost electricity from a storm. When it came back on during the night, the stove which had been left on when the power went off, caused something to ignite. It must have been that old nightmare, but I could not bring myself to go outside to witness the activity, fearful of the flames. Yet, we speak of the fire of the Holy Spirit. We will hear the invocation in today's Liturgy, "Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful and kindle in them the fire of your love." God manifested His Spirit on that first Pentecost with tongues of flames as Acts tells us. We can interpret the fire of the Holy Spirit as a force that burns away our sins. However, the Holy Spirit has had a symbolic meaning for centuries as we know from Jesus' statement that he came "to bring fire to the earth" and how he wished "it were blazing already." (Lk 12:49) Fire symbolizes energy, heat, passion. Filled with the Holy Spirit, the Apostles and followers received that exuberant passion, commitment to Divine Love. They "caught on fire," were "all fired up" for the Faith, for the Gospel and life Jesus brought about. We make a plea to the Holy Spirit on Pentecost Sunday for ourselves as the Church today that we may be enthusiastic members of the living body of Jesus Christ, not cool but hot with passion for the Lord and all that He brings.

Today at 10:30, Lexus Thomas will be confirmed, sealed with the Gifts of the Holy Spirit. Bishop Caggiano extends permission to the Pastors on this day to confirm adults. Lexus has studied the Faith and prayed with our RCIA team. She is ready to complete her initiation into the Body of Christ. We are proud of you Lexus, and we congratulate you! Be a courageous and enthusiastic witness of Jesus.

In response to the change in guidance from the CDC and the Governor's announcement, Bishop Caggiano has issued the following changes concerning masks at Mass.

Those who ARE fully vaccinated are no longer required to wear a mask at Mass.

PENTECOST SUNDAY

Those who are NOT fully vaccinated MUST continue to wear a mask at Mass.

While there is no way for us to enforce this requirement, we ask the unvaccinated to follow it borne out of our commitment to protect human life. Of course, any of us who are fully vaccinated may want to continue to wear the mask. Please feel free to do so. We have kept a portion of the church marked off to ensure social distancing even though it is no longer required so that anyone with compromised immunity or who is not yet comfortable indoors in the company of many others can feel at ease.

The Annual Catholic Appeal is going along. Thank you for giving some thought to my talk a few weeks ago. The Development Office sent me figures last week which show 69 donors and contributions totaling $38,375 toward our $58,000 goal. May I continue to encourage you to keep the Appeal in mind and decide to make a gift. Repeating myself, no gift is too small. It is appreciated. It says that you are partnering with the Church to provide food, housing, mental health services; to train seminarians and deacons; to support retired priests; and to offer faith programs for children and adults. Thank you!

—Fr. Mecca

Confirmation Retreat

The teens in our CREW high school leadership program, led a retreat this weekend for all our confirmation students in Religious Ed. The retreat took place Friday evening, and all day Saturday. The theme of the retreat was "Blessed, Broken, Given" -deriving from Luke 24:13-35 also known as the Emmaus story. The Confirmandi were asked to insert themselves into this scripture and pull out the ways in which God has blessed them with friends, family, gifts and talents. They were then led through an afternoon examining their interior life, and some of the outward physical actions they commit that cause them to be separated from God or broken. And then finally, leading up to a closing Mass with their families, they were led to receive the unconditional love and mercy God has for them by how He gives them the sacrifice of His Son at Mass in the Body and Blood.

We are grateful to Fr. Mecca for helping us on our retreat, and to all the parishioners for their love, prayers, and support!

Please continue to keep praying for the teens on CREW and the Confirmandi.

Check back soon for pictures!

COMUNIDAD HISPANA SAN PEDRO

Información sobre la Eucaristía Primera Parte

A lo largo de los siglos la Iglesia y los santos han animado a los fieles a amar la Eucaristía, e incluso hay quienes han dado su vida por protegerla. Hoy en la Solemnidad del "Corpus Christi" te presentamos 10 cosas que todo cristiano de saber en torno a este gran milagro:

1. Jesús instituyó la Eucaristía

Jesús reunido con sus apóstoles en la última cena instituyó el sacramento de la Eucaristía: "Tomen y coman; esto es mi cuerpo..." (Mt, 26, 26-28). De esta manera hizo partícipes de su sacerdocio a los apóstoles y les mandó que hicieran lo mismo en memoria suya.

2. Eucaristía significa "Acción de gracias"

La palabra Eucaristía, derivada del griego εὐχαριστία (eucharistía), significa "Acción de gracias" y se aplica a este sacramento porque nuestro Señor dio gracias a su Padre cuando la instituyó. Además, porque el Santo Sacrificio de la Misa es el mejor medio de dar gracias a Dios por sus beneficios.

3. Cristo se encuentra de forma íntegra en el Sacramento del Altar

El Concilio de Trento (siglo XVI) define claramente: "En el Santísimo Sacramento de la Eucaristía se contiene verdadera, real y sustancialmente el Cuerpo y Sangre de nuestro Señor Jesucristo, juntamente con su Alma y Divinidad. En realidad Cristo íntegramente". Asimismo, en el Derecho Canónico de la Iglesia ninguna otra festividad recibe tanta atención como la Solemnidad del Corpus Christi.

4. Los sucesores de los apóstoles convierten el pan y el vino en Cuerpo y Sangre de Cristo

En la Santa Misa, los obispos y sacerdotes convierten realmente el pan y el vino en el Cuerpo y Sangre de Cristo durante la consagración; el proceso es llamado Transubstanciación. La Solemnidad del Corpus Christi es una de las cinco ocasiones en el año en que un Obispo no puede estar fuera de su diócesis, salvo por una urgente y grave razón.
