Worship Songs for the Twenty-Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time—September 12-13, 2020

Entrance Antiphon: Give peace, O Lord, to those who wait for you, that your prophets be found true. Hear the prayers of your servant, and of your people Israel.

Entrance Hymn - Sing to the Mountains

Bob Dufford

Refrain: Sing to the mountains, sing to the sea. Raise your voices, lift your hearts. This is the day the lord has made. Let all the earth rejoice.

I will give thanks to you, my Lord. You have answered my plea. You have saved my soul from death. You are my strength and my song. (Refrain)

Holy, holy, holy Lord. Heaven and earth are full of your glory. (Refrain)

This is the day the Lord has made. Let us be glad and rejoice. Death has lost and all is life. Sing of the glory of God. (Refrain) Responsorial Psalm: The lord is kind and merciful, slow to anger, and rich in compassion..

Presentation of Gifts - Christians, Let Us Love One Another

Picardy

Christians, let us love one another, As we share the true living bread. Jesus is our God and our brother; With his flesh and blood we are fed.

Refrain: Ev'ry one who loves is born of God. Jesus is our life. God is love.

We who break this bread are one body, We who share this cup are all one. Children of our Father in heaven, We are heirs with God's only son. (Refrain)

We who eat and drink at this table Die and rise again with our Lord. Drawing from our Rock living water, Giv'n to all who thirst for accord. (Refrain)

Recessional Hymn - City of God

Dan Schutte

Awake from your slumber! Arise from your sleep! A new day is dawning for all those who weep. The people in darkness have seen a great light. The Lord of our longing has conquered the night.

Refrain: Let us build the city of God. May our tears be turned into dancing! For the Lord, our light and our love, has turned the night into day!

We are sons of the morning; we are daughters of day. The One who has loved us has brightened our way. The lord of all kindness has called us to be a light for his people to set their hearts free. (Refrain)

God is light; in him there is no darkness. Let us walk in his light, his children one and all. O comfort my people; make gentle your words. Proclaim to my city the day of her birth. (Refrain)

O city of gladness, now lift up your voice! Pro-claim the good tidings that all may rejoice! (Refrain)

For missal and hymnal customers of 50+ books, we're offering free permissions to sing, project and reprint the copyrights found in your worship aid for livestreamed celebrations of the liturgy. These permissions will expire after November 28, 2020 and only apply to copyrights (songs, psalmody and Mass settings) that are solely owned, published or administered by OCP. We hope that this will provide parishes with the support they need to continue serving their communities.

Break the Cycle of Poverty: Support the Catholic Campaign for Human Development

On Sept. 19/20, we'll be taking up a collection for the Catholic Campaign for Human Development. CCHD addresses the root causes of poverty in America by supporting community-controlled, self-help organizations of low-income people. Here in our Diocese, four life-changing community organizations have been approved for major CCHD national grants.
They include a farmworker organization, a workers' center, a land trust of low-income people becoming homeowners in inner city Rochester, and a refugee organization empowering their members to know their rights as tenants. In addition, 25% of the funds we collect will remain in our diocese to fund smaller, local antipoverty projects. By supporting this collection, you are giving people on the margins a hand up, not a handout.

The Pastor's Two Cents

Why Forgive?

The central message of our Christian faith is clearly evident in our readings for this weekend. While it is central to our faith, it is the most difficult to live. It is FORGIVENESS! In his article, Forgiveness: Taking the Word to Heart, J. Randall O'Brien writes:

WHY FORGIVE? The words jumped off the face of Time magazine, January 9, 1984, even as the cover picture shocked the world. With his left arm in fatherly fashion around Ali Agca, the Turkish gunman who had attempted to take the Pontiff's life, Pope John Paul II tenderly embraced the right hand that had aimed and fired a near deadly round into his person on May 13, 1981. Whispering words of pardon, the Pope forgave his would-be assassin. A whisper, perhaps, to Agca, the Patriarch's words and action reverberate loudly around the world till this day as an altar call to the spiritually deaf. In forgiving his young, misguided enemy the Head of the Catholic Church offered a troubled, hate-filled world an unforgettable image of grace. Even among Christians, many of whom appear to be more comfortable with Christ in print than in practice, the Pope's action was disarming. The church leader known to millions of Catholic Christians worldwide as The Holy Father shared, "I spoke to him as a brother whom I have pardoned, and who has my complete trust." In forgiving his potential killer, Pope John Paul II was taking the Word of God to heart. For the whole emphasis of the New Testament is on forgiveness of sins, reconciliation, and holy living manifested and made possible by the love of God through the Cross of Jesus Christ (Romans 5:5-6; 1 John 4:9).

It should not have shocked believing people that the Holy Father, now Saint, Pope John Paul II forgave the man who tried to kill him. It should not have shocked believing people that in October of 2006, following the tragic Amish school shooting of 10 young schoolgirls, in the midst of their grief over this shocking loss, the Amish community didn't cast blame, they didn't point fingers, they didn't hold a press conference with attorneys at their sides. Instead, they reached out with grace and compassion toward the killer's family and offered forgiveness to the killer, who also killed himself.

Such forgiveness is central to our Catholic Christian faith. Yet, it can be so rare, so shocking. Total unconditional forgiveness is the greatest challenge for a person of faith to live. Jesus not only calls his followers to this important action; he also exhibits it on the cross, the ultimate act of forgiveness which is our only hope for mercy and eternal life.

Some will tell us that it is also healthy to forgive and not hold grudges; that it will unburden us and help us to live more at peace. However, the reason we must forgive is because Jesus did, and does, and therefore so must we.

Are you having trouble forgiving someone? (Politicians? Church leaders? Parents? Children? Brothers? Sisters? Neighbors?) Whoever it is, Jesus' message is the same ...forgive them.

May the Eucharist we receive as the ultimate Sacrament of forgiveness and mercy fill us with the grace to forgive as we are forgiven.

Don't forget, "The Lord is with you!" Fr. Stan

Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults (RCIA)

“Lord, God You created us and you give us life. Bless these children and add them to your family. May they be joyful in the life you won for us through Christ our Lord. Amen”

- Prayer over the Elect –Rite of Election

If you or anyone you know is interested incoming into the Catholic Church or learning more about the process of becoming Catholic, please call Peg Griswold, 382-2251 or the OLV Parish Office at 324-5811. An informational meeting will be held September 20, 2020 after the 10:45 Mass in the Parish library.

GRANDPARENT DAY—SEPTEMBER 13TH

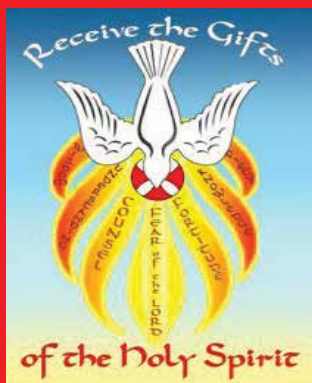

“Grandparents are wonderful evangelizers and often the conduit to passing on the faith in their family.”

In honor of grandparents, our diocese has set up a grandparent page on their web site at <https://oec.dor.org/evangelization/grandparents-2/>. The web site has many activities and resources for families and grandparents to help in passing on the faith to our children.

Grandparents, thank you for all that you do for our faith and our children!

Excerpt of the blessing for grandparents for families to use from the US Catholic Bishops:

Lord God almighty,
bless our grandparents with long life,
happiness, and health.
May they remain constant in your love and be living signs of your presence to their children and grandchildren.
We ask this through Christ our Lord.
Amen.
