On the cross, tortured. Dying. As he struggled for air and was barely able to breathe, Jesus didn't hang in silence. He spoke to those around him, to complete strangers and to his family and friends.

Jesus was speaking to us in his final hours. In his Seven Last Words, Jesus shows us how he has fulfilled his saving mission and sends us forth to follow in his footsteps.

Sunday Gospel Reflection

The First Sunday in Lent
March 5th & 6th

Luke 4:1-13

Gospel Summary

Each year, at the beginning of Lent, the lectionary has us hear the story of the devil tempting Jesus in the desert. This year we hear Luke's version. Following his baptism, Jesus went out into the desert for forty days during which time he ate nothing. Knowing that Jesus would be hungry, the devil tempted him to turn a stone into bread. When Jesus did not, the devil showed him all the kingdoms of the earth, promising Jesus all the glory and power of them if Jesus would worship the devil. Again Jesus refused. Finally, Satan took Jesus to the top of the temple in Jerusalem and told him to jump because God's angels would save him. Jesus refused each of the three temptations by quoting scripture from the book of Deuteronomy thus making clear his obedience to God.

Reflection for Parents

Sometimes we think only of the divinity of Jesus and forget how difficult these temptations must have been for the human Jesus. We face far lesser temptations every day and some we resist while others we give in to. When we think of obedience like daily exercises, it becomes habit and we condition ourselves to obey God. Through our example and guidance, parents can help their children do the same thing. If the temptations are hard to resist, we know Jesus understands our difficulty because he went through a similar experience. He will be there for us when we ask for his help.

Bringing the Good News Into Your Family

Now, at the beginning of this Lent, make a list of all the temptations each family member faces at home, at school, at work, in the neighborhood. Next to each temptation write down ways you will work to avoid them. Allow all family members to help one another with suggestions and make a time in each day of Lent to pray for each person as he/she works to resist the temptations he/she faces.

Adult Faith Formation 2022

For Lent, we are offering weekly faith sharing sessions called "Reflecting on the Lenten Scriptures" on Mondays, starting March 7th from 1:30 to 3:00PM in the parish meeting room next to the parish office. The discussions will be guided by the Sunday gospel readings.

There is no cost. You do need to bring a bible. If you do not have one, we do have a few bibles on hand. A light snack of cheese, crackers and fruit will be served.

If you are interested in attending, please contact Deb Brinkhus at the parish office, 607-324-5811.
