Every gift makes a difference, no matter the size.*

My dear family in Christ,

Last weekend's gospel about the narrow way and this weekend's gospel about choosing the lower place are powerful reminders of what Our Lord considers important and essential versus what the world values as most important. The gospel emphasizes losing our ego, stripping away selfishness and focusing on the service of others as more important than ourselves. The world wants us to consider our own desires and wishes above all else. The world wants us to pursue those things that will bring a moment of happiness or pleasure, while the Lord wants us to chase after those things that help us grow in virtue and holiness. As we are reminded in the gospel, we can't serve two masters; we have to choose one over the other—the way of selfishness or the way of selflessness.

Now, as in so many parts of our lives, the call to selflessness must be properly balanced according to our vocation and calling in life. Parents entrusted with the welfare of their children cannot completely abandon the need to make choices which will benefit their children while the same decision may seem to hurt others. While we may wish to deepen our spiritual lives through added fasting to our regular ascetical practices, if the fasting impinges upon our ability to fulfill our primary responsibilities and vocations, we should make changes to our fasting routine.

Finding the proper balance between seeking to better ourselves (a good and necessary goal) and simply giving into every selfish inclination (a not-so-necessary goal) is likely going to be a lifetime chore for the majority of us. To achieve the proper balance between being self-absorbed and being other-centered requires regular prayer, careful reading of the scriptures, and a willingness to seek the lower seat. Another way of saying this is to seek true and honest humility. Not falsely declaring our unworthiness, but acknowledging our dependence upon the grace of God to accomplish anything in his name.

This is definitely not an easy thing to achieve, but it is absolutely necessary. Let's pray for the willingness to seek the lower places in life, so that we might be invited up higher by the Lord.

In Christ,

Msgr. John J. McDermott, VG

NEWS FROM
August 31—September 6, 2019

FOR THE DIOCESE OF BURLINGTON

Vermont Catholic
COMMUNITY FOUNDATION

Supporting the Catholic Church and Beyond

Annual Meeting

The Vermont Catholic Community Foundation Inc. invites the faith community to attend its third annual meeting Sept. 13 to celebrate the contributions made by individuals and/or groups to the community through their acts of charity, service and faith.

Date: Friday, September 13, 6–8 p.m.

Place: Old Lantern Inn & Barn,
3260 Greenbush Road, Charlotte, VT 05445

Thanks to the extreme generosity of Old Lantern Inn and Barn, Misty Knoll and other sponsors, this event is free to the faith community, but there is limited sitting. You must register by Sept. 10, at vtcatholicfoundation.org/annualmeeting.

The Vermont Catholic Community Foundation is a separate nonprofit from the Diocese of Burlington that was established in 2015 to build a strong foundation for the Catholic Church in Vermont. During the last four years, the foundation has grown to more than 67 funds supporting schools, parishes, cemeteries, ministries and charitable causes throughout the state. Each fund established in the foundation is restricted to a specific cause or ministry to provide funding in perpetuity based on the donors' intentions.

Funds like the Gokey Fund help people like Sandy, a mother of three who had her teeth extracted years ago, receive dentures which, she said, changed her life: "I am now comfortable attending my kid's events. I am confident at my job. My health is better as I can eat a broader range of nutritional foods. I am smiling at everyone all the time! I have never been happier."

John Fitzgerald and Mary Ellen Fuller, classmates at Cathedral High School, sent their eight children and nine grandchildren to Rice Memorial High School and established the Rice Memorial High School Fuller Fitzgerald Fund to ensure others could afford to attend. All eight of the Fitzgerald children surprised their mother with a gift doubling the fund and financial aid capacity.

The Dr. Thomas G. Howrigan Fund, established with a bequest, leaves a beautiful legacy of faith and on-going operational support for St. Patrick Parish in Fairfield.

The foundation reflects the core values of the Catholic faith and brings the Catholic community together to express those values in various ways. Whether it is providing support for dentures; financial aid to students who could not otherwise afford a Catholic education; or resources to care for Catholic cemeteries, the foundation provides many pathways for individuals and Catholic entities to create funds that will support specific purposes now and in the future.
