HOLY DAY OF OBLIGATION

Friday, November 1st, is All Saints Day and a Holy Day of Obligation. Masses will be offered at Christ the King on Thursday, Oct. 31st, at 5:30 PM, and Friday, Nov. 1st at 8:30 AM. There will be a 12:05 PM Mass on Friday, Nov. 1st, at St. Anthony's.

My brothers and sisters,

As we prepare to celebrate All Saints Day, let's ponder these words of St. Bernard:

Calling the saints to mind inspires, or rather arouses in us, above all else, a longing to enjoy their company, so desirable in itself. We long to share in the citizenship of heaven, to dwell with the spirits of the blessed, to join the assembly of patriarchs, the ranks of the prophets, the council of apostles, the great host of martyrs, the noble company of confessors and the choir of virgins. In short, we long to be united in happiness with all the saints. But our dispositions change. The Church of all the first followers of Christ awaits us, but we do nothing about it. The saints want us to be with them, and we are indifferent. The souls of the just await us, and we ignore them.

Come, brothers, let us at length spur ourselves on. We must rise again with Christ, we must seek the world which is above and set our mind on the things of heaven. Let us long for those who are longing for us, hasten to those who are waiting for us, and ask those who look for our coming to intercede for us. We should not only want to be with the saints, we should also hope to possess their happiness. While we desire to be in their company, we must also earnestly seek to share in their glory. Do not imagine that there is anything harmful in such an ambition as this; there is no danger in setting our hearts on such glory.

When we commemorate the saints we are inflamed with another yearning: that Christ our life may also appear to us as he appeared to them, and that we may one day share in his glory....Therefore, we should aim at attaining this glory with a wholehearted and prudent desire. That we may rightly hope and strive for such blessedness, we must above all seek the prayers of the saints. Thus, what is beyond our own powers to obtain will be granted through their intercession.

Let's remember we celebrate All Hallow's Eve (Halloween) as a way to contemplate the saints who inspire us by their examples and assist us with their prayers.

In Christ,

Msgr. John J. McDermott, VG
