BISHOP’S APPEAL

As of September 29, 2021, Christ the King - St. Anthony parish is now up to 64% of our Bishop’s Appeal goal. Thank you for your generosity! If you have not yet made a gift to the appeal or would like to make an additional gift online, visit vermontcatholic.org/giveonline.

“An embrace of Lady Poverty means that we try to live freely by getting out from under the possessions that own us. This can range from adopting a Franciscan-like life of voluntary poverty to the more common effort to cut down on consumption of needless luxuries. The purpose in either case is to forgo what we don’t need in order to imitate better the holy poverty of Christ, to appreciate better our fellow humans, and to contribute to a more equitable distribution of resources. But genuine freedom...isn’t simply a matter of throwing off externalities that burden us. It entails a relinquishment of internal acquisitiveness. In addition to ridding ourselves of goods that weigh down our spirits, we must wean ourselves from our psychological desire for them. Doing the one without the other simply won’t suffice. We can steel ourselves to a life of material poverty yet still remain enslaved by our lusts, vanity, and jealousies.”

—from the book Perfect Joy: 30 Days with Francis of Assisi by Kerry Walters

"A man must go through a long and great conflict in himself before he can learn fully to overcome himself, and to draw his whole affection towards God. When a man stands upon himself he is easily drawn aside after human comforts. But a true lover of Christ, and a diligent pursuer of virtue, does not hunt after comforts, nor seek such sensible sweetnesses, but is rather willing to bear strong trials and hard labors for Christ."

— Thomas a' Kempis

Pray:

*God of heaven and earth,
I recognize that my life isn't mine.
You have given me all things, even life itself.
My life from you is a beautiful gift.
I pray for openness of mind,
especially in the midst of a challenge and when you call me to things
upon which I struggle to surrender.
Your will be done, Lord, not mine.
I surrender to you.
Amen.*

IN REMEMBRANCE

COVID-19 UPDATE—VACCINES

Parishioners are encouraged to review the statements of the Holy See and the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops regarding the morality of the vaccines which are presently available. Links for these statements can be found at www.vatican.va and www.usccb.org. Our diocesan website also has pertinent information www.vermontcatholic.org. The Pfizer and Moderna vaccines are considered morally licit; other vaccines present greater moral issues.

COVID-19 PROTOCOLS LIFTED

In light of the lifting of all Covid-19 restrictions by the State of Vermont, we can return to full capacity in our churches! We will continue to provide hand sanitizer in at the entrances of the churches. We will still refrain from shaking hands at the Sign of Peace for the coming months. Thank you for your patience and support during these challenging times.

CHRIST OUR HOPE

As you know, Christ the King - St. Anthony Parish will receive 60% of the funds we raise during the Christ Our Hope: Building a Vibrant Church campaign. Parish leadership will use those funds to re-pave St. Anthony’s parking lot and improve traffic flow, and replenish our parish savings. The other 40% of campaign funding will strengthen diocesan faith formation programs (evangelization, education, and youth ministry), as well as outreach through emergency assistance delivered by Vermont Catholic Charities. To watch the full campaign video and learn more about the goals visit: www.christourhopevt.org. We understand this is a difficult time for many who may not be able to financially contribute above their annual Bishop’s Annual Appeal gift. We ask that you first consider an annual appeal gift and, if you are not able contribute to the campaign, please pray for its success, and support our volunteers and leadership. With Christ at the center of this campaign, we know whatever we raise will be used for His glory.

RELIGIOUS ED CLASSES BEGIN

The next class for all students is Sunday, Oct. 10th, at 4:00 PM. The following class will be on Sunday, Oct. 24th. Email Mrs. Cade at mcade@vermontcatholic.org or call her at 703-772-7917 for more information.

FOR THE DIOCESE OF BURLINGTON

Catholic school superintendent's prayer: 'hope-filled joy that flows from authentic peace'

Jeanne Gearon, superintendent of schools for the Diocese of Burlington, was recently interviewed about the past and current school years by Vermont Catholic Managing Editor Cori Fugere Urban. Here is their Q and A:

Q: For the 2020-21 school year, how did Vermont Catholic schools adjust for the pandemic safety protocols?

A: The principals worked collaboratively with the Office of Catholic Schools to draft a guiding document titled: "United in Faith, Returning with CARE: Communities and Academics Reimagined Effectively." This document provided a framework for responding to the pandemic that each school in turn used to craft its local protocols and procedures.

I cannot say enough how the efforts at the local level from the principals, teachers and school staffs made it possible for our students to experience in-person learning on a full-time basis. The support they received from the pastors/priests who minister to our schools as well as from the students' families and all members of each school community was phenomenal. The work they undertook and the sacrifices they endured were not easy, and it only happened because everyone worked together to place the needs of the students at the forefront.

Q: How did the pandemic affect enrollment?

A: Preschool through grade 12 enrollment for the 2019-2020 school year in Vermont was 1,908. For the 2020-2021 it was 1,835, and the projected enrollment for 2021-2022 was 1,990.

Q: To what do you attribute this change in enrollment?

A: As a Diocese, last year we experienced an overall enrollment decline of around 4 percent. I believe that this was largely due to families opting to home school due to concerns regarding the pandemic.

For the upcoming school year, diocesan-wide, we are projecting around an 8 percent enrollment increase. There are many reasons for this, one of which may have been our ability to provide consistent in-person learning last year. Our schools welcoming students back full-time and remaining full-time throughout the year may have sparked interest within the community to explore more deeply what we have to offer.

Q: According to "Data Brief: Catholic School Enrollment and School Closures, Post-Covid-19" from the National Catholic Educational Association, a report released in February, the Covid-19 pandemic can be seen as one of the most transformative catalysts for educational change in the United States. Schools of all types — public, charter, private, parochial, online or homeschool — have been significantly impacted as a result of the pandemic's disruptions to communities and society. What is your comment?

A: While the pandemic is certainly not something anyone wanted to have occur, nor, I suspect, do any of us want it to reoccur, there is the reality that it forced us to think outside the box. We discovered things about ourselves that we did not know before both as individuals and as a community. Schools are made up of people, and as each of us learns more about ourselves, our schools are changed. We have to look for the positives from this pandemic, and if one of those positives is that we have learned how to provide education in more meaningful ways for students, then this is indeed a blessing.

Q: Why are Catholic schools needed in Vermont today?

A: Catholic schools are one of the options Vermonters have who are seeking a faith-based education for their children. Many parents value this, and they sincerely want their children to be educated within a spiritually rich environment. If the Catholic schools were not in Vermont, then the Vermonters seeking this for their families would have far fewer options.

Q: What is your hope for Vermont Catholic school students, teachers, staff and families for this school year?

A: I pray daily for our school communities, and just as this past year was a year like no other, I pray that the upcoming school year is also a year like no other. During this year of St. Joseph, we have no one better to turn to who can teach us how to journey through hardship with grace and come out of it with a renewed sense of hope-filled joy that flows from authentic peace. That is my prayer for each school community, each principal, each teacher, each staff member, each student, each family — hope-filled joy that flows from authentic peace.

Catholic schools in the Diocese of Burlington are supported by the Bishop's Annual Appeal.
