Grand Knight Report

Knights of Columbus Council No. 5803, 1255 E. Patricia Ave. Simi Valley, CA

Brothers,

On December 1st I had the pleasure of working alongside our Brother Knights in support of the handi-capables luncheon. As in previous years, the Girl Scouts decorated the hall and sang Christmas carols, while the usual suspects manned the kitchen. Now, if I were to take the safe approach, I'd thank everyone who participated and move on. However, I'd be cheating you out of great little story.

While the food was being served, several of the Brothers observed something truly remarkable. One of the Girl Scouts walked up to her mother and asked the question, "Momma, why do I want to cry and at the same time feel so happy inside?" The young mother responded by saying, "Sweetheart, that's humility you're feeling". This short exchange between mother and daughter was uplifting beyond words. You see, when we are willing to pay attention, our Lord shows us that real hope does exist. In this story "hope" isn't an empty slogan or an application on the latest iPhone, it is God's infinite wisdom and love reflected through the eyes of a child. Needless to say, this was a great event. Thanks to our chairman PGK Rick Ostrich and everyone who participated.

Due to conflicting schedules, we were unable to secure the parish hall for this year's toy giveaway, thus the format has changed. Instead of having a party with Santa Clause, the gifts were handed out in back of the rectory in conjunction with the weekly food giveaway. I'm almost certain there will be wailing and gnashing of teeth over the breach in tradition. Never the less, I assure you it was unavoidable. Now here's the good news; the change in procedure eliminated the distasteful snatch and grab we were subjected to last year. In addition, parents had the option of giving their kids the presents on Christmas morning. To our chairman PGK Cliff Wirtz, PGK Norm Ouellette and the rest of our faithful Brothers, thank you for a job well done!

We are still looking for someone to take over as bereavement committee chairman. If you are interested please contact me or our Deputy Grand Knight, Christopher Smith.

I feel that I would be remiss in my duties as Grand Knight if I failed to address the next topic head-on. I am pleased to report that Supreme has taken a hard position on this matter which I support without question! Recently both Mazie Hirono (D-Sen.) Hawaii and Kamala Harris(D-Sen.) Calif. have come out with a series of question suggesting that attorney Brian Buescher (U.S. 7th Circuit Court nominee) may be unfit to serve due to his Catholic faith and membership in the Knights of Columbus. Kathleen Blomquist, spokesperson for the Knights of Columbus, told CNA that the senators' questions echoed the kind of anti-Catholicism seen in previous generations of American history. "Our country's sad history of anti-Catholic bigotry contributed to the founding of the Knights of Columbus, and we are proud of the many Catholics who overcame this hurdle to contribute so greatly to our country," Blomquist told CAN. "We were extremely disappointed to see that one's commitment to Catholic principles through membership in the Knights of Columbus—a charitable organization that adheres to and promotes Catholic teachings—would be viewed as a disqualifier from public service in this day and age".

In closing I want to thank everyone for a fantastic 2018. I am so proud of how the Council has adapted to the ups and downs, and I'm confident your perseverance will see us through in the months ahead. I pray that our Lord Jesus Christ will provide you with the courage to meet each day renewed in faith.

God Bless,
Robert W. Smith

New Years Resolution Prayer

Our Pope, bishops and priests have constantly asked us to pray, pray and pray. With all that's going on in our world today, it sounds like very good advice.

As we begin the new year, it is a good time to examine our prayer life. How is your prayer life? How is your relationship with God? Most of us could probably answer both questions -ok - but it could be better. If this is our response maybe we should consider two further questions: How could any prayer life be better? What would "better" look like?

This is the point where many people get stuck. They know that they desire a better relationship with God, but they are not really sure how to improve their prayer life. Some people may even feel embarrassed to admit that they do not really know how to pray.

A stable and consistent prayer life can be difficult to develop. But let us not focus on the challenges at first. Let us acknowledge that the desire to encounter Christ is a more profound and meaningful way is already a sign that God's grace is at work in our life. If you know it can be better and you want it to be better, this is a good starting point.

More on prayer in next month's Deacon's Corner.

Vivat Jesus!,

Insurance Report

What are you Buying?

Sometimes, we can have a wrong impression of what we are spending our hard-earned money for.

For example, you don't spend 50 cents to buy a paper; you spend that money to buy news. You don't buy eyeglasses; you buy vision. You don't buy an awning; you buy shade.

See what I mean? The same holds true for life insurance. You're not buying life insurance in case you die. You buy an education for your children, or a life income for your wife, or a pension plan for the old man you will eventually be. (It's been said the difference between an "old man" and an "elderly gentleman" is money!) You buy peace of mind, happiness, and more than a little contentment when you buy life insurance.

Call me today for an appointment.
Your future is my concern.

What is the Purpose? Where is the Heart?

Sometimes I think that if God would just let me know what His purpose for me is, my direction in life would be clear. In the Bible, when the Lord spoke to a prophet or an angel came down from heaven, there was a serious task at hand and some difficult times ahead. But at least you knew that God is with you and all things are possible through Him.

Purposes can be big or small, short-term or long-term, self-centered or serving others, and change depending on what is happening in our life at that moment. Maybe your purpose at hand is a life serving God, taking care of your family or something more mundane and temporal like talking to a stranger.

Just having a well defined purpose is not enough. We need the drive to do what it takes to achieve our goals. It is our emotions that compel us to move forward or not.

The heart is the organ that is the source of our passion and allows us to feel emotions. Without the heart we would become emotionless beings wandering through life like machines.

If we embrace the power of the heart this can motivate us to do incredible things that one would logically believe are not possible. Examples of this might be a mother protecting her baby, the martyrs of the church or the life of St. Teresa of Calcutta. This passion can also lead to negative results (i.e. Hitler, adultery, abortions, etc...), so we need to be discernful.

If we live a God-centered life we will focus on letting our actions express our love for God in everything we do. Let us strive to upgrade our purpose, and practice the presence of God at all times which will lead our actions to be congruent with our hearts.

Now, go forth, upgrade your purpose, let your heart drive you, and proclaim the gospel with your actions.

Vivat Jesus,

Let us pray: May the Holy Spirit give me what I need to be a better servant to your will.

Fitness Report

Exercise for Survival

I want to promote once again the idea of exercise for maintaining youthful capabilities. Like prayer and fasting, it covers many sins of omission – of lying around watching the TV and eating junk food, which I am fond of.

It is my saving grace, other than prayer and fasting, that keeps me somewhat slender, muscled and agile, even though I spend literally every night from 7-11PM watching TV and frequently eating junk food, which I do close to dinner – like desert – so I don't go to bed with food in my stomach and have heartburn half the night.

But strength training, which I do a couple times a week, in a way that takes me to the limits of my strength each workout, keeps me looking pretty good for an old guy. I use a 3-day workout sequence of Pushing, Pulling and Legs on three different days. It's easy to remember, I don't have to keep notes or carry a book around to remember what to do. Muscles I worked last time are still somewhat sore, telling me not to work those parts this time. I'm in and out of the gym in about ½ hour; I don't waste a bunch of time on aerobics, because it only makes muscle evaporate; I just push the muscles I'm working to the failure point in 3-4 sets and do some stretching and leave.

That's my secret to keeping fit, along with eating plenty of meats and eggs and vegetables and some berries (and not too much junk food or booze) to overwhelm the benefits of the exercise.

Now I do this at the new Fitness19 gym that opened last month in the old Larwin Square on LA Ave, by the 99c store. Amazingly, they hired me as a Trainer, so I get to share these strategies with old and new friends if they join the gym and invest in a few training session. Come, join, and let me work with you to make a massive change in how you look and function. Live better, stronger, longer and enjoy life with fewer limitations from aging. I'm there M-T 9:00 AM to 1:00PM and Th-F from 1:00PM to 5:00PM. You will love this gym – it's brand new, super clean, and the equipment is awesome. Come in, check it out, and it has the best pricing in town. If I get enough demand, I'll add some hours to serve my friends.

“Gift of Membership”

Worthy Brothers,

Merry Christmas and Happy New Year to you all!

This is a season of giving. God gave us His Son to be Incarnate within the Virgin Mary. We, in turn, traditionally share gifts with family and friends during the Christmas Season.

We as Brother Knights, can share the “Gift of Membership” all year long. It has become even more of a gift this year with the rollout of the Faith in Action programs. They are firmly rooted in Faith and designed to be shared with entire families. Men who accept your “Gift” will have opportunities to grow in Faith, modeling spirituality and service to their families and friends.

The best gifts are those that are personal and uniquely selected for the recipient. Therefore, we Brother Knights must also personalize our offer of the “Gift of Membership” so it is tailored to the needs and interests of our Prospects. Here is how to do that:

When you meet a Catholic man who is not a Knight, get to know him. Ask about his life, his family, his interests. Try to discover what are some of the activities that he, his family, and his friends like to do. Inquire about each of our Faith in Action categories to get to know him better.

- Faith - Find out what kind of prayer and spiritual activities are important to him and his family. Mention some of the Faith programs that your Council organizes and supports and ask if he and his family would like to participate.
- Family – What does his family do to have fun and to bond? Invite him and his family to some of your Council’s Family programs.
- Community – Discuss some of the Community programs that the Knights have organized and sponsored in your parish. Let your Prospect know that a family that joins in community service together is bonding in a way that strengthens the family along with providing much needed service.
- Life – Review some of the activities that your Council has done to support life. Be sure to talk about Pro Life activities, Special Olympics or other activities that help people with intellectual disabilities, service to the elderly and all actions that show our support of Life from birth until natural death.

Our “Gift of Membership” will be accepted and cherished if you can find his “Hot Buttons.” What is it that motivates him and his family?

The Knights have programs for every important activity that interests him. Good Catholic men will be drawn in by our focus on Faith and Family. Therefore, keep Faith and Family foremost in your conversation at all times.

Please forward this message to any Brother Knight who may choose to use it to help build your Council.

Yours in Service,

Michael Brault

Superbowl LIII Party

Feb. 3, 2019

The date is fast approaching for those who supported Monday night football over the season.

Thanks to all who prepared and cooked a meal in which everyone was great. You are on the reservation list for your hard work.

Now the hard part.... we have only so much room, so we have to limit the number of reservations we can accept. If your name is not on the reservation list, you will not be able to attend.

We will start taking reservations on January 17th. Call John Linscott Sr. at (805) 527-7188. If I'm not there leave a message with your phone number and I will get back to you to confirm.

After cooks and workers, we will be taking reservations for 42 more people. The cost is $12.00 per person that covers the dinner and munchies during the game.

Doors will open at 2pm (you may not come early as we will still be setting up)

It will be a fun day for all. And who knows you could be the winner of our grand prize of $500.00. Drawing to take place at the end of game you must be there to win.

Thank you & God bless

Fr. John Moloney presents
"Guess Who's Coming to Dinner?"
Saturday January 26th – beginning at 6:00 p.m.

Are you a new parishioner who'd like to meet other parishioners members in a warm, friendly setting? Are you a longtime parishioner who'd like to meet some new people? Would you like to enjoy a night out while supporting our priests? Then this is the event for you!

Here's how it works: Some parishioners volunteer early on to host a group of diners, committing to prepare a several-course meal showcasing their culinary skills. Everybody else is invited to buy tickets to dine.

On the evening of the event, the diners gather at the rectory backyard for a pre-cocktail party with our priests, they learn where they will be dining, then head off to their mystery home for a festive meal with some other St. Rose Parishioners and their guests.

Each mystery home will also have a "special guest" in attendance!

Guests and hosts alike will love this wonderful fundraiser! 100% of the proceeds of this event will go towards the building of new private rectory home for our priests. This will also free up badly needed office and meeting space in what is now our current rectory. We have already raised $200,000 for this project, with building to begin in 2019!

Tickets for this fun evening of food, fellowship and drink are only $35 per person now through January 15 and increase to $45 each from January 16 until we sell out.

For more information on hosting a dinner or to purchase some tickets, contact Cliff & Paula Wirtz at 805-208-8970 or by email at cawpaw@aol.com

A rectory is like a small apartment type complex, with private space for each priest bedroom, bath, and small sitting area. In addition, there are shared common areas: living room, chapel, library/study, kitchen and dining.

"Priests are on call 24/7. It's important for clergy to have a place they can call home, a place to get away for quiet time and reflection."

For generations to come, the new rectory will give our wonderful parish priests a comfortable, quiet retreat to call home.

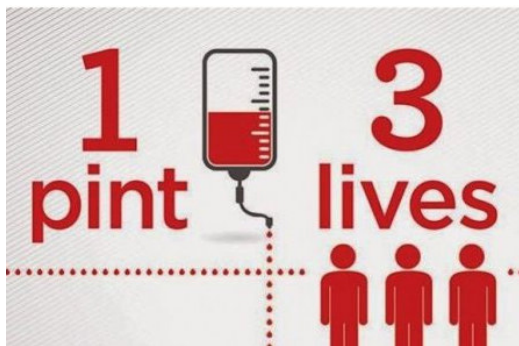

BINGO WORKERS

We are in need of more pull tab workers and we still need a caller and a 2 call back people. Training is free and it is not a hard job. For pull tabs you basically sell lottery tickets to the players. If you are new to the council please call me so I can get you on the Bingo Schedule. If you can't work a specific weekend in February or have a shift preference please email me at bingo@kc5803.org. I produce the schedule around the 2nd Wednesday of the month before. So get me any special requests for February by January 8th.

I have also begun to post the bingo worker schedule online at www.kc5803.org.

FEBRUARY BLOOD DRIVE

Please take the time to help your community by giving blood at the Knights of Columbus Quarterly Blood Drive on Saturday February 16, 2019 at St Rose of Lima parish hall from 8 AM to 12:30 PM. United Blood Services provides blood to our local community hospitals and during local and national emergencies. Call Paul Friedeborn at 805-395-1126 or United Blood Services on line.

Homeless Dinner

The upcoming homeless dinner is on January 18th at the kc hall. If you can come by and help please show up at the hall between 3 and 4pm.

Questions, please call Rick Ostrich at 805-501-8818.

Homeless Breakfast

The next homeless breakfast is January 12th at 7am., we also have one on January 21st at 9am.

Call me if you would like more details.
