Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Leviticus 13:1-2, 44-46; 1 Corinthians 10:31-11:1; Mark 1:40-45

Just before we go into the Lenten season we are given another look at Jesus' healing ministry. Today's episode involves the healing of a leper. The New Testament uses the word "leper" to describe a number of skin diseases, all of which render the sufferer "unclean": that is, unfit to engage in the ordinary day-to-day exchange with the rest of the community. The lepers suffered an additional burden, namely, the community saw them as sinful—the disease was an indication of some sort of moral depravity on the part of the leper.

When a leper came to Jesus, as we hear today, he was courting great risk. But he also had great faith, and because of that faith, Jesus made him whole. Jesus broke through the negative power that was so visibly present by His touch and His word. Jesus took on the forces of darkness, sin, rejection, exclusion from community and turned them around at once.

There was a power emanating from the Lord that drew people to Him: it was a power of compassion, light, healing of body and spirit. The Lenten Sundays will bring all this to light in a more explicit manner.

Next week's readings:

Genesis 9:8-15; 1 Peter 3:18-22; Mark 1:12-15

Each person we meet is Jesus in disguise.

Lenten Guidelines:

Fasting & Abstinence: Catholics aged 14 and older abstain from meat on Ash Wednesday, Good Friday and all the Fridays of Lent. In addition, on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday, Catholics from age 18—59 fast, limiting themselves to one full meal and two smaller meals each day.

Prayer: Catholics are encouraged to pray more during Lent, especially with Scripture. Lent is also an ideal time to receive the Sacrament of Reconciliation in preparation for the celebration of Christ's Passion, Death and Resurrection.

Almsgiving: Moved by the sacrifice of Christ, many Christians combine almsgiving with fasting, giving to the poor the money they saved by eating, drinking or buying less as they rely more on God's abundant grace.

Help Wanted: Part-time janitorial position available at Notre Dame School to help with cleaning from 3:15—5:30 p.m. when school is in session. For more information contact Randy Greenfield, 512 718-4634.

Let's look at Lent differently?

2020 was a year we had to look at everything differently.

2021 is continuing to be a time to look at things differently.

Let's start by looking differently at Lent this year.

If you've always thought of Lent as a time for ashes and giving up chocolate, it's time to think differently.

Let's look at Lent as a time to change up our routines and do what God calls us to do all year long: fast, pray, almsgiving.

A time to turn away from what is physically and spiritually separating us from God. A time to change the way we look at our lives, and look for God's presence and listen for Christ speaking to us.

A time to rethink what it means for us to trust.

A way to do this is every day pick a quote from the day's Mass reading (readings are available in "The Word Among Us" booklets), or find a short reflection or prayer to say with your family and maybe an activity to do together.

Hopefully by Easter Sunday your family will be ready to experience Easter with greater joy and peace and faith in God.

"Catholic Charities has helped me out in so many ways. Helping me believe in myself and gain my confidence back is the best thing about my Circle. I knew there were good people in the world but I didn't know they would help people like me."

"This past year was full of pain and grief for my family and after coming to my breaking point, I reached out to Catholic Charities for grief counseling. The EMDR therapy helped me work through my grief and pain in a way that was so helpful. We laughed, we cried, we worked together to begin my healing. Through Catholic Charities counseling, I am able to say that I am starting to become the person that I have always wanted to be."

"Catholic Charities has helped me with my immigration paperwork for years. I'm so grateful to be able to continue to live and work here legally. I wouldn't even know where to start with the process and cannot imagine doing this on my own."

90 years of providing HELP and creating HOPE

"It was over 40 years ago that I put my son up for adoption and I always wondered what he was doing and where he was. When we started the post-adoption search process, we both knew it could go either way but ours is a happy story with lots of happy tears. My son agreed to meet and we are so grateful to have a new beginning together thanks to Catholic Charities!"

"Thanks to affordable housing at Catholic Charities, I was finally able to get out of an abusive relationship and I have a new outlook on life. My apartment is coming together and I'm so happy."

Dear friends,

Monsignor Jim Barta once said to me: Quakers are known as peacemakers, and Amish as furniture-makers (and living simply), but what are Catholics known for? What comes ready to mind are things like rituals, rules, and the rod of punishment; Bingo, fish fries, capes, and swords. Those aren't bad, but not really powerful enough to attract or retain members in the Catholic Church. So, what is? Here's the deal, Parker: We are followers of Jesus in his Catholic Church.

"No one among them was in need." – That was said of the first Christians, in the Acts of the Apostles, because they shared with the poor. Can that be said of our generation too? It can if we share - that's what Jesus wants us to be known for! Yes, devout prayer, a beautiful Mass, great RE or Catholic school, but not without serving the poor.

When Catholic Charities makes its appeal for 2021, help them to help the poor. And helping them (please, God) will help us to be able to answer Monsignor Barta honestly: We Catholics are known for helping people who can't provide for or protect themselves.

Confident of your generosity, and grateful for it, I am.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Michael Jackels

Michael O. Jackels
Archbishop of Dubuque

"We Catholics are known for helping people who can't provide for or protect themselves."

For us, living by his teaching and example are vital, and the most important is love of God and neighbor. Loving God by loving our neighbor is practiced by helping people who can't protect themselves – like the unborn and immigrants – or provide for themselves, such as the poor.

Protecting and providing for others is pure and undefiled religion. It is the basis on which Jesus will judge us: those who did will enjoy heaven, those who did not will not. It also has the ability to cover a multitude of sins and it can thwart the worldly allure and spiritual threat of power, privilege and perks.

Celebrate 90 years of providing HELP and creating HOPE with your gift today!
