Next weekend we celebrate:
Feast of the Dedication of the Lateran Basilica in Rome
The oldest of the Four Major Basilicas, it is the ecclesiastical seat of the Roman Pontiff. Dedicated both to John the Baptist and John the Evangelist, it also owns the title of the 'mother of all catholic churches'.

St Bernard of Clairvaux (1090-1153) Doctor of the Church on the Feast of the Dedication of St John Lateran

Today's feast, brothers, ought to be all the more devout as it is more personal. ...It is ours because it concerns our church, ours because we ourselves are its theme. You are surprised and even embarrassed, perhaps, at celebrating a feast for yourselves. ...Your souls are holy because of the Spirit of God dwelling in you, your bodies are holy because of your souls and this building is holy because of your bodies.

NIGHT

If LaMelo Ball can go 6'7", you can go Saint-level.

You've heard the meme – now let's flip it. "6'7" might be nonsense, but your life isn't. Join us for a chill night where we'll talk about what it really means to become a Saint – the process, the stories, and why holiness might be closer (and more possible) than you think. Bring your friends, your questions, and your sense of humor. We promise: no boring lectures, just real talk about becoming the person God created you to be.
