In this Sunday's Gospel, the landowner entrusts his vineyard to some tenants. In spite of their acts of violence against the landowner's servants, he continues to send his servants hoping to receive produce from the vineyard. Eventually they even kill the Landowner's son. As Jesus tells this parable, it is clear that God's people have rejected the invitation to encounter God in Jesus. In our day, God is always making Himself known to us and waits patiently for us to make a response to his invitation to deepen our friendship with God. As God reveals himself to us each day, may we embrace God's goodness to us and deepen our friendship with him.

'COME & SEE' WEEKEND RETREAT

November 17 - November 19
Boston

The "Come & See" weekend is for men between the ages of 18-39 who are interested in discerning religious life with the Capuchin Franciscans of the Province of Saint Mary. It is a weekend of learning about the Capuchin Charism and Spirituality, prayer, rest, and getting to know the Friars. If you or anyone whom you know would be interested in attending this weekend please contact Fr. Erik Lenhart via e-mail at VOCATIONS@CAPUCHIN.ORG
