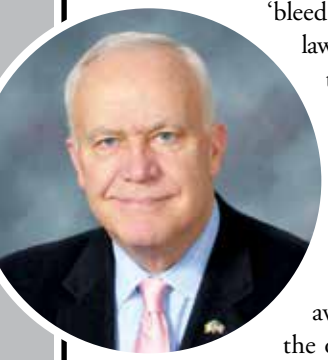
Holy Name High School Mission Statement

The mission of Holy Name High School is to educate young men and women to proclaim the good news of the Gospel, empowering them to lead Christ-like lives, thus discovering their potential and value in the process of becoming responsible and caring citizens of the global community.

Good to be Home

Dear Alumni, Parents and Friends:



Since coming to Holy Name High School as a freshman in 1963, I have loved being a part of this community. As a Holy Name student, I met fellow 1967 graduate, Susan Cejka Kenneally, who is now my wife of 49 years. We sent three of our children, Terry Jr. '86, Sean '87 and Erin '89, to Holy Name, and I eventually became involved in the education commission, as well as the Advisory Board, at the school. I 'bleed green,' and throughout my law career, I have been very proud to tell those who ask that my alma mater is Holy Name.

Because of my life-long commitment to Holy Name, I knew I wanted to take on this role as president when it became available. I believe strongly in the overall mission of Catholic, co-educational high schools, and in this role, I will be able to help make sure Holy Name's own mission of educating and empowering young men and women to lead Christ-like lives continues to remain intact. I want to give back, and provide additional direction to an institution that helped shape me into the man I am today.

You may wonder what the president is responsible for at a diocesan high school. Primarily, I oversee both the advancement and business offices, with my main focus being on fundraising. Right now, my team and I are focusing on raising money for three specific areas: the Holy Name Fund, the renovation of our science labs and the turf field project.

I am excited to say that the turf field installation is now done, and I welcome you to come visit the school to see this new, beautiful addition to our campus. Making this field a reality took a concerted, coordinated effort, and I thank all those who played a role in moving it forward. The field really is a nice resource to offer to our students, and I look forward to seeing it utilized daily in the near future!

While the turf field is now done, as a school community, we still have work that needs to be accomplished to reach both our Holy Name Fund and science lab renovation goals. I am committed to beginning and completing all the goals we set forth. Most importantly, I am eager to work with you, our alumni, parents and supporters, to see what we can do to provide the facilities and experiences our students need to develop their skills and become well-rounded young adults.

The year ahead looks promising, as so many great people are working hard, and important projects are in motion. I can't wait to continue working on completing all the goals set forth for 2017, and hope you will join me in supporting projects that will further strengthen and grow the Holy Name community.

All Hail Holy Name,

Construction on Cicerchi Field is Complete

Construction on Cicerchi Field, which began in August, was completed in November 2016. The playing field now features a synthetic turf field surface, and will be used for athletic practices, as well as JV and freshman football, girls soccer, boys soccer and lacrosse home games.

Holy Name partnered with FieldTurf, a company that has done both the gameday and practice fields at The Ohio State University, among others, to install Holy Name's turf field successfully. In addition to FieldTurf, Holy Name worked with The Vasco Group to prepare for the construction efforts. They removed the existing grass field, broke up asphalt, tore down trees, leveled the field, installed a new drainage system and put down an initial gravel surface, all before the turf could be placed.

Prior to the field construction beginning in August, a groundbreaking ceremony took place to kick-off the project. Major donor Rich Cicerchi, whom the field is named for, was on-hand, as well as other field donors, the Holy Name administration, advisory board members and alumni.

"This is one of the biggest building projects executed in Holy Name's history," said Holy Name President Terrence Kenneally '67. "I'm proud that we are able to move this initiative forward, and make it a reality during this school year. This field will be something many of our students, whether they are athletes or enrolled in physical education classes, can use regularly."

With the field now completed and available to show visitors, Holy Name Principal Shelbrey Blanc '95 said it will be something the school will enjoy showing to prospective students. "We already have a beautiful school building, and this is a new amenity that we will be happy to show future Namers when they come to visit," she said. "It is great to be able to show potential families that we are continuing to grow our facilities."

The cost to excavate the site and to install the turf surface is estimated to be around $750,000. Although construction is now finished, fundraising efforts to complete this project are still on-going. If you would like to monetarily support the turf field project, please contact Mr. Kenneally at 440-886-0300 ext. 139, or at tkenneally@holynamehs.com.

KRAKOWIAK OVERSEES TURF FIELD CONSTRUCTION

Many Holy Name supporters will recognize Andy Krakowiak '73, who previously worked at Holy Name as a teacher, coach and assistant principal. After spending the last 18 years at Elyria Catholic High School, Krakowiak has returned to Holy Name as the director of special initiatives. Currently, he is the on-site turf field project manager.

"I believe there will be a number of positive benefits to this project for our students," said Krakowiak. "Aesthetically, there can be little question that the new field will be quite an attractive addition to the Holy Name campus. From a feasibility standpoint, much more productive field time should become available for the various athletic teams, as well as any co-curricular student endeavors.

Andy Krakowiak '73, Director of Special Initiatives

Additionally, the safety of our students will be enhanced dramatically. Ruts, soft spots and uneven conditions will be a thing of the past. I hope the new field and the efforts put forth to make it a reality will be appreciated by all Holy Name students in the years to come."

Highlights from a Dynamic Fall

Shelbrey Blanc '95

PRINCIPAL

It's hard to believe the first quarter of the 2016-2017 school year has ended. With the second quarter under way, here are some academic highlights from the beginning of this year:

Holy Name's College Credit Plus Program (CCP) continues to grow, with 161 sophomores, juniors and seniors taking classes on Holy Name's campus that will count for both high school and college credit. CCP courses include Hitler and the Holocaust, United States History, Civilizations, College Composition, French IV and Spanish IV. Holy Name faculty members who teach these courses are adjunct professors at either Cuyahoga Community College or Notre Dame College.

Along with growing our CCP program, we continue to expand our standardized test prep services. Every sophomore, junior and senior received an ACT Test Prep Book, which will be used in math, science and English classes. On-campus ACT tutoring, along with practice tests, are offered for free to both juniors and seniors throughout the school year. Tutoring happens weekly, while the free practice tests are offered on select Saturdays.

Our STEAM Club – Science, Technology, Engineering, Arts and Math – has grown in size. A group of students attended a STEM Innovators-in-Training event at the Cleveland Public Auditorium. The sessions focused on the four critical aspects of innovation: the engineering process, enterprise process, content, and skills and leadership.

This Fall, Jay Asher, the author of The New York Times Best Seller, Thirteen Reasons Why, visited Holy Name. He spoke to juniors and seniors about why he chose to write a book that addresses teenage suicide, and why he feels everyone should be careful how they treat others, as you never know how it will affect them. After the assembly, Mr. Asher had brunch with 13 students, further discussing with them how they can treat everyone with the respect they deserve.

Next summer, Holy Name is offering a trip to Ireland to all current sophomore, junior and senior students! From Thursday, June 15 to Sunday, June 25, 2017, students will explore Dublin, Northern Ireland and Achill Island. Holy Name Latin Teacher, Peter Knittel, is helping to organize the trip.

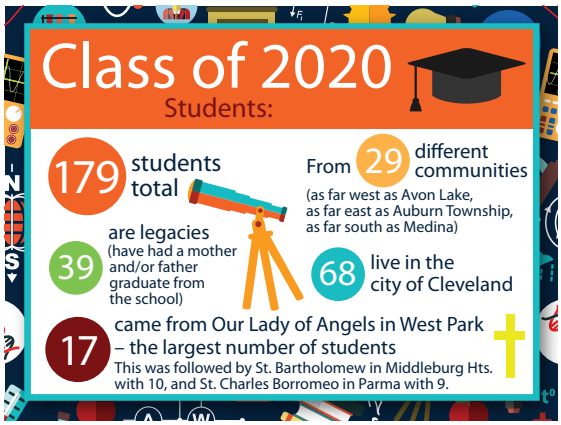
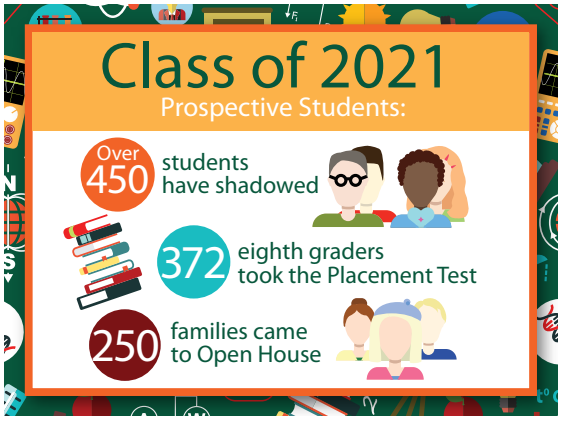
DIRECTOR OF ADMISSIONS

The Holy Name Admissions Office had a busy summer, preparing for the Class of 2020 to become the newest group of Namers. As the infographic below shows, our freshmen come from all over Northeast Ohio, and each one of them brings unique talents that are great additions to our school community.

This fall has also flown by, with many prospective students and their families visiting Holy Name. Open House on Sunday, October 8 was well-attended, and student tour guides did a great job helping guests learn about our curriculum, faith-based programs and co-curricular activities. With strong numbers at Open House, as well as for shadowing and placement exams, we expect the Class of 2021 to again be a well-rounded group of students.





Gratitude, Appreciation and Thanks

President Terrence Kenneally '67 expressed these sentiments as he recognized Holy Name's closest friends and benefactors who attended the President's Reception this past November. "I am proud to be part of this community that is founded on faith – Holy Name is, first and foremost, a Catholic high school. Although this night may be titled the President's Reception, this evening has very little to do with me. This evening is about you," he said.

The program included heartfelt testimonials from Holy Name students who thanked the guests for their support and shared their stories about the strong friendships they have made, the co-curricular and academic success they have experienced and the faith-based atmosphere that they enjoy being a part of every day. The President's Reception celebrates the generosity and support of those who have joined the President's Leadership Circle through their annual or special initiative gift.

Run for the Roses: Rising Tide Gala Auction Goes the Distance

On April 23, nearly 250 Holy Name alumni, parents and friends dressed in their derby best came together in support of Holy Name's signature event, Rising Tide Gala Auction: Run for the Roses. On display in the school's gymnasium was the creativity and talents of parents and alumni who spent hours transforming the gym into Churchill Downs.

A $10,000 tuition raffle, silent auction items, a wine pull and spectacular live auction packages such as dinner prepared by one of Cleveland's top chefs, Chris Hodgson, were just a few highlights of the evening. Mobile bidding allowed guests to enjoy the delicious fare provided by Driftwood Catering without having to interrupt their evening to rush back to the silent auction table to check on their bids. Student ambassadors were on hand to provide guests with special one-on-one attention for mobile bidding if they desired.

Thanks to the master of ceremonies, Bob Hale, it only took minutes for Holy Name to raise over $78,000 during the live auction for the Namers in Need fund. This fund provides the young men and women of Holy Name with financial assistance. Due to the generous support of all attendees, the Gala Auction raised a record-breaking $180,000 to ensure a strong future for Holy Name!

Alumnus Provides Media Internships

Thanks to Scott McCafferty '85, five Holy Name students this summer learned the ins and outs of running a media company. The students worked at WTWH Media, where McCafferty is the managing partner and co-founder.

WTWH is a business-to-business media company that has been recognized on the Inc. 5000 List of America's Fastest-Growing Companies six years in a row (2011-2016). McCafferty, who began WTWH in 2006 and was recently named a 2016 EY Entrepreneur Of The Year® finalist in the Northeast Ohio Region, wanted to give students the opportunity to see first-hand how a media company operates, what work is involved and what skills can be utilized.

"The biggest takeaway I wanted the students to leave with is that the barriers to entry for media have forever changed, and that every one of them can create a media business if they apply the basic skills we shared with them during the internship," said McCafferty. "I hope they now see that careers in media go beyond journalism; they include accounting, graphic design, web design, video production, social media, statistics and sales."

The students included Colleen Beckloff '17, Lizzie Groth '17, Charlie Jindra '17, Erin Roche '17 and Julia Wright '18. The WTWH team helped bring the students up-to-speed on how to select a website domain name, set up a website and social media accounts, create content for the web, and produce videos. They also introduced students to the back end of a business, sharing how to go on a sales call, as well as the best accounting practices to follow.

"I liked learning more about how to create a media organization," said Erin. "I now have more of an appreciation for social media and the process of putting content online."

Colleen pointed out that she was happy to work in a professional office setting for the summer, and "loved the writing component of the experience." Julia found it interesting how much teamwork is involved in a media company. "The focus was on working together with the WTWH employees and the other students, which I liked," said Julia.

In addition to enjoying their work with the WTWH team, several of the students said meeting Content Marketing Institute Founder Joe Pulizzi, the author of Content Inc., was a highlight from the summer experience. "Mr. Pulizzi mentioned taking what you like and what you know how to do, and combining them to do something unique," said Lizzie. "You can make what you enjoy marketable, and that can be applied to everything."

All of the students agreed that the knowledge they gained at WTWH will help them in their future endeavors. "After being at WTWH this summer, I now am used to focusing on one project for a long period of time," said Charlie. "This will help me in both college and my future profession."

"The biggest takeaway I wanted the students to leave with is that the barriers to entry for media have forever changed, and that every one of them can create a media business if they apply the basic skills we shared with them during the internship." – SCOTT MCCAFFERTY '85

Class of 2016 Graduates 130 Students

On May 27, 130 members of the Holy Name Class of 2016 graduated from St. Columbkille Parish in Parma. The moving ceremony was highlighted by an inspiring speech delivered by Parma Municipal Court Judge Deanna O'Donnell '83, who addressed the group and reminded them that "with great power, comes great responsibility." Class Valedictorian Elizabeth Springer also spoke, encouraging her fellow students to always keep in mind "to whom much is given, much is expected." Elizabeth is now attending Miami University.

Awards were given to the many students who excelled academically and artistically as well as in citizenship and service. This class has been accepted to both in-state and out-of-state private and public colleges and universities, and over 60% of the class has been offered scholarships and awards in excess of $8 million. Congratulations to the Class of 2016!

'Ab initio'

From the Beginning, Four Alumni Lawyers Have Embodied the Namer Spirit

In courtrooms and law firms across the country, a common legal Latin phrase used is ab initio, meaning 'from the beginning.' The men and women featured here – Scott Opincar '87, Kelly Reblin '89, Heather Lennox '85 and Christopher Weber '85 – have shown promise and embodied the Namer spirit since their days as Holy Name students.

Today, all four are successful lawyers, practicing at McDonald Hopkins and Jones Day Law Firms in Cleveland, Kegler, Brown, Hill & Ritter in Columbus and The Kroger Co. in Cincinnati. Throughout their careers, they have remembered – and continued to live out – the important lessons about family, faith, leadership and scholarship that they learned during their beginnings at Holy Name.

Scott Opincar '87

Education: University of Akron (B.A., 1991); Cleveland-Marshall College of Law (J.D., 1994)

Law Firm: McDonald Hopkins; has been practicing law for 22 years

Title: Member

Additionally, he works with franchisees, franchisors, dealers and distributors in a variety of franchising and dealership commercial matters. Also counsels companies on a variety of business law matters.

Career Accomplishments: Enjoys solving complex problems. Has worked on large cases involving companies with $1 billion of annual revenue and smaller cases involving local, family-owned businesses that simply need time to restructure their balance sheets and operations. "The best day for me is when I know that I helped a company survive or when I create value to maximize the return on investment for the stakeholders."

Community Outreach: Currently is the chairman of the Holy Name High School Advisory Board. Also is a past president of the Ohio chapter of the Turnaround Management Association, and a past chair of the commercial and bankruptcy law section of the Cleveland Metropolitan Bar Association.

Most Memorable Experience at Holy Name: Meeting his wife, Nicole Wieczorek Opincar '88. Also remembers great friends, challenging courses and being thankful for the opportunity to be a Holy Name student.

Family: Married to his wife, Nicole Wieczorek Opincar '88. They have two children, Nicholas '17 and Kristin '20.

SCOTT OPINCAR ON...

How Holy Name prepared him for a job in the legal profession: Holy Name laid the foundation to prepare me for higher education, both academically and socially.

I once was able to cross-examine one of my teachers, Al Gizzi, during a class. That assignment made me realize that the legal profession might be an option for me.

Why it is important to support Holy Name: I am simply thankful that my parents sacrificed to send me to Holy Name. I am passionate about the school because it helped me get to where I am now. I want to make sure that other students have that same opportunity. HN is a special place.

What he hopes for Holy Name in the future: I hope that Holy Name continues to be a place where students can come to learn, question and grow for the next 100 years.

"I am passionate about the school because it helped me get to where I am now. I want to make sure that other students have that same opportunity."

— SCOTT OPINCAR '87

Kelly L. Reblin '89

Community Outreach: Assists husband, Jonathan Franklin, who is a high school basketball coach, with an AAU program called Cincy Swish as time permits throughout the year.

Most Memorable Experience at Holy Name: Mr. Joe Ehrbar's history class freshman year. "It was there that I became interested in practicing law, as Mr. Ehrbar made the aspect of laws in societies seem so incredibly important to the formation, the history and the success of the various societies that we studied. I wanted to be a part of that process."

Family: Married to her husband, Jonathan Franklin.

KELLY REBLIN ON...

How Holy Name prepared her for a job in the legal profession: The curriculum offered at Holy Name requires students to be disciplined and organized in order to do well and succeed both in the classroom and in my case, on the athletic field. A specific teacher that helped aid in the honing of these skills was my Spanish Teacher, Felicia Anderson. I still use the skills that I acquired under the tutelage of Señora Anderson in my daily practice. The study of a foreign language requires the organization of thoughts and sentence structure and the discipline to effectively communicate an argument or analysis, which is a necessity in the practice of law.

Why it is important to support Holy Name: Holy Name is my home. Regardless of where I live or how long I've been gone, I know that I can return, see friendly faces and feel just as welcomed as the first day of my freshman year.

As a graduate of Holy Name, I feel that I have a responsibility to contribute to the community and to carry on the traditions of Holy Name – whether it's financially, through volunteering my time or even just attending events when I am in the area. Holy Name has made such a significant impact on my life. I would not be where I am today without the support of the school's faculty, staff and alumni. I believe that I owe that same support to the future generations of students who attend Holy Name.

What she hopes for Holy Name in the future: I wish for continued success for Holy Name in whatever form that takes – whether it is in the classroom, on the athletic field or in the growth of the virtues and ideals for which Holy Name stands. Holy Name is such a special place and has much to offer future generations of Namers.

"Holy Name is my home. Regardless of where I live or how long I've been gone, I know that I can return, see friendly faces and feel just as welcomed as the first day of my freshman year."

— KELLY REBLIN '89

Heather Lennox '85

Education: John Carroll University (B.A., 1989, summa cum laude); Georgetown University Law Center (J.D., 1992, cum laude)

Law Firm: Jones Day

Title: Partner-in-Charge

Areas of Practice: Large corporate and municipal restructurings

Career Accomplishments: The 13th woman to head one of Jones Day's 42 offices worldwide, and the first to lead the Cleveland office. Led the restructuring of the City of Detroit, and is a member of the National Bankruptcy Conference, a group of 100 top practitioners, judges and academics that help advise Congress on bankruptcy policy.

Community Outreach: In the 2016-2017 Leadership Cleveland class. Also has been a board member with the Cleveland Rape Crisis Center and Providence House, and is currently a board member with the Cleveland American Red Cross, Business Volunteers Unlimited and PlayhouseSquare.

Most Memorable Experience at Holy Name: Enjoyed Dan Moderick's English class, as "he did a terrific job of engaging his students and encouraging them to think for themselves and develop their creativity and writing abilities."

Family: Married with two children, a son who is in high school and a daughter who is at the University of St. Andrews in Scotland.

"Being a co-educational high school, Holy Name gave me more confidence in the legal world. Students should not sit back and wait for opportunities to come to them – raise your hand!"

— HEATHER LENNOX '85

HEATHER LENNOX ON...

How Holy Name prepared her for a job in the legal profession: It was a great beginning for in-depth and creative thinking, as well as good writing skills. The writing, reading and critical-thinking skills and knowledge I learned in Mr. Dan Moderick's English courses have been very critical in my success as a lawyer. Thanks, Mr. Moderick!

Catholic high schools, like Holy Name, prepare students well for college. In today's world, even in manufacturing jobs or trade positions, young people must have advanced skills, and Holy Name prepared me, and will prepare students, for any higher education – from universities to schools for skilled employment.

Why students should take advantage of their co-educational high school experience: Being a co-educational high school, Holy Name gave me more confidence in the legal world. Students should not sit back and wait for opprotunities to come to them – raise your hand! All young adults, in particular young women, need to be confident and take ownership of projects. Don't sit back and wait for a leader to emerge; be that leader and take responsibility.

Why it is important to volunteer: I believe you should give back to the community you live in. I follow the principle of "to whom much has been given, much is expected."

Christopher Weber '85

Education: John Carroll University (B.A., 1989, cum laude); University of Toledo College of Law (J.D., 1992, cum laude, Order of the Coif)

Law Firm: Kegler, Brown, Hill & Ritter

Title: Managing Director

Areas of Practice: Civil litigation, including trial and appellate work. Also advises lawyers and law firms throughout Ohio concerning their obligations under the ethical rules applicable to lawyers.

Career Accomplishments: Has argued five cases to the Supreme Court of Ohio. Is now "excited for the opportunity to serve as the Firm's Managing Director, and to lead the Firm in a manner consistent with their core values of respect, integrity and the "power of the team."'

Most Memorable Experience at Holy Name: Gathering at the Shrine of the Virgin Mary following each football game, where the team was joined by families and supporters in prayer.

Family: Married to his wife, Elise, for 17 years. They have two daughters, McKenna (13) and Delaney (10).

CHRISTOPHER WEBER ON...

How Holy Name prepared him for a job in the legal profession: Holy Name prepared me academically and spiritually for the legal profession. The college preparatory curriculum provided the foundation necessary to succeed at the undergraduate and law school levels, which opened the door to my legal career. Holy Name's culture focused on spirit, team work and collegiality, values which have remained a core part of my daily professional life.

Why it is important to support Holy Name: Holy Name epitomizes school spirit and a sense of community. I will never forget my experiences at Holy Name, whether in the classroom, on the athletic fields or socializing with my friends and classmates. Holy Name is special. It develops young people into living lives centered on respecting and caring for all those in our community. Alumni support is critical to the continued development of that mission.

How faith plays a large role in his life: I was blessed to be raised in a Catholic family, and to attend a Catholic grade school, high school and college. My wife and I strive to live our lives and raise our daughters in accordance with the teachings of Christ. Our daughters attend Catholic school, which provides opportunities for our family to grow together in Christ.

"Holy Name is special. It develops young people into living lives centered on respecting and caring for all those in our community. Alumni support is critical to the continued development of that mission."

Splash Magazine Earns Literary Award

At the end of last school year, the 2016 edition of Splash Literary Magazine received a 2016 Award of Excellence in Design from schoolprinting.com (powered by JS Printing). The award recognized Splash for 'outstanding achievement in design and layout in a literary magazine.' Splash, which is published near the end of each school year, features original student poetry, fiction and non-fiction stories, as well as original student artwork. Students in all grades are invited to submit their entries in February, and then a committee selects those entries that will be included in the publication that comes out in the late spring.

Roberto Santiago ’18 featured in Cleveland magazine

Readers of Cleveland magazine’s September edition likely saw Roberto Santiago ’18 representing Holy Name in the magazine’s annual Private Schools feature. Roberto was chosen after Cleveland magazine learned of his unique Eagle Scout project, where he coordinated the creation of 18 to 20 sawdust carpets for Holy Week at La Sagrada Familia Church, his parish in Cleveland’s Detroit Shoreway neighborhood. After successfully managing this project in 2015, Roberto did so again in 2016, helping his church community prepare the materials for the sawdust carpets up to four months ahead of time.

At Holy Name, Roberto, who attended Metro Catholic School, participates in both football and track and field, is active in campus ministry and serves as a student tour guide. The full article that appeared in Cleveland magazine can be found online at http://bit.ly/2fQE0Uy.

Students Volunteer at Arts for All

On May 12, several students volunteered at Arts for All Northeast Ohio, held at the Cuyahoga County Fairgrounds in Berea. At this event, which gives individuals with mental and physical disabilities the opportunity to participate in the arts, Holy Name students help at the various art project stations. This year, the students assisted participants with coloring pictures, cleaned up work areas and danced with their new friends while live music was played. However, the students’ favorite area to help at was the face painting table, which was enjoyed by all involved! Holy Name plans to continue to be involved with Arts for All, as students have helped at this event, formerly known as Very Special Arts, for several years.

Actors and Actresses Shine During Holy Name Theater Performances

Holy Name's Theater Department kicked off the 2016-2017 season with the Fall Play, Lost in Yonkers. Written by Neil Simon, Lost in Yonkers won the 1991 Tony Award for Best Play, and a 1991 Pulitzer Prize for Drama.

Set during World War II, the play featured two brothers, Jay (Austin Hojdar '20) and Arty (Matthew Stracensky '20), who recently lost their mother. The boys are sent to live with their strict, German grandmother, Grandma Kurnitz (Tess Smith '19) and lovable but unique aunt, Bella (Claire Leff '17). Their father, Eddie (Aaron Herrmann '17) leaves to pay off large debts he incurred during his late wife's illness. Throughout the 10 months they are at their grandmother's house, the boys also spend time working at their grandmother's store, "helping" their gangster uncle, Louie (Kyle Wadley '17) and meeting their vocally challenged aunt, Gert (Anna Regan '18).

Due to outstanding acting, as well as excellent directing by Tina Callari '81 and a diligent backstage crew, the Holy Name Lost in Yonkers cast did an excellent job bringing to life the play's messages about love, responsibility and the importance of family.

Callari also directed last spring's school musical, Anything Goes. From the spot-on acting, singing and dance numbers, to the terrific costumes and beautiful set design, the production was professional and polished from start to finish.

Holy Name is fortunate to have talented student actors, actresses, musicians, technicians and artists who devote their time to making every theater performance a successful one. Please come see them at the One Act Festival on Saturday, March 11, 2017 at John Carroll University, as well as at this year's Spring Musical, Seussical the Musical, set for Friday, April 7 through Sunday, April 9 in Holy Name's Manning Auditorium.

This year's Fall Play was Lost in Yonkers.

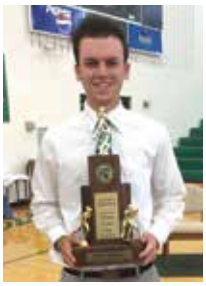
Athletics Update

Ashley Rings and Ryan Madden Named 2016 Athletes of the Year

Class of 2016 graduates Ashley Rings and Ryan Madden were selected as their class's female and male athletes of the year, respectively. To receive this award, a student-athlete must have major athletic accomplishments over their four years at Holy Name, while also exhibiting good leadership and character qualities, as well as being a positive representative of Holy Name.

Ashley played varsity girls soccer for four years. In 2015, she helped lead the team to a regional semifinal appearance. Ashley earned the team's Namer Award, and received an All-Great Lakes Conference Honorable Mention, Great Lakes Conference Scholar Award and All-Greater Cleveland Honorable Mention. She also was a track team captain, running for all four years. Ashley was in the top 10 percent of her graduating class. She participated in campus ministry and student government, and was a National Honor Society member. Ashley has continued her soccer and academic career at the University of Findlay.

Ashley Rings

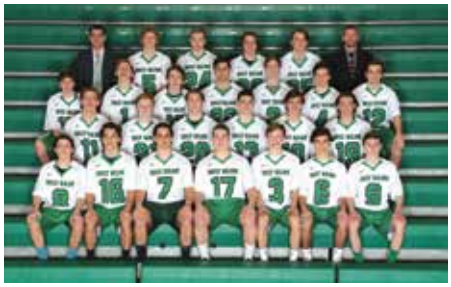


Ryan Madden

Ryan was a three-sport athlete, competing in cross country, hockey and baseball. During his senior season of cross country, he received the Namer Award. His talents as a hockey goalie helped the team advance in the playoffs, and at the end of the 2015-2016 season he was named the team's co-MVP. Additionally, Ryan played both catcher and first base on the Green Wave baseball team. He received second honors each quarter he was at Holy Name. Ryan now attends Bowling Green State University.

Lacrosse Team Wins Playoff Game

Under the direction of first-year coach Conor Regin, the Holy Name Varsity Lacrosse Team earned a 12-2 victory this past May over Toledo Central Catholic in the first round of the Ohio High School Lacrosse Association's 2016 Division II - Northwest Region Playoffs. In the second round of the playoffs, Holy Name fell to Westlake, 13-3.



Three Athletes Advanced to Track and Field Regionals

Behind strong performances at the Division II District Meet at Bedford, three Holy Name Track and Field athletes qualified for the Division II Regional at Austintown Fitch last spring: Sean Halloran '16, who finished second in the boys discus throw at districts; Malique Burton '17, who finished third in the boys shot put; and Nicole Sabol '18, who finished fourth in the girls discus throw.

Sean Halloran

Malique Burton

Nicole Sabol

All three also had solid performances at the regional meet. Sean finished 11th overall in the discus throw, Malique finished seventh in the shot put and Nicole placed 14th in the discus throw. Although they did not qualify for the state meet, Holy Name is proud of them for representing the school well throughout the season.

Varsity Baseball Coach Dennis Markiewicz '71 Retires

Dennis Markiewicz, a 1971 graduate of Holy Name, has retired as Holy Name's head varsity baseball coach. He will be succeeded by Tim Carter, who previously coached the team from 1999 to 2006.

During his six seasons at Holy Name, Coach Markiewicz compiled a 94-58 record. He led the team to three regional appearances, as well as one Division II State Final Four appearance in 2011. Markiewicz was named Coach of the Year by the Greater Cleveland Baseball Coaches Association in both 2011 and 2015. "I want to thank the administration, my coaching staff and players, and the many families that have supported the program," said Coach Markiewicz. "I had six years at Holy Name, and enjoyed my time with my alma mater. I believe I have set up Holy Name to go in the right direction for the future with the young players that are coming back."

Dennis Markiewicz

Softball Team Strikes Out Cancer for Teammate's Family

Holy Name Girls' Softball Coach Jeanette Howard and her team made a big difference in the lives of one Holy Name family last spring: They donated to the family all of the proceeds from their Strike Out Cancer Charity Fundraiser, which took place at Ehrnfelt Recreation Fields in Strongsville, and featured six Catholic, Northeast Ohio high school teams. Nearly $3,000 was raised.

A cancer survivor herself, Coach Howard wanted her Lady Namers to give back to a local family in need of support. As a first-year coach at Holy Name, she quickly realized that need was evident right within her own program, as both of now-senior Avery Revay's parents battle cancer.

Along with an admission being charged to get into the games, Coach Howard had a concession stand open as well as gift basket raffles and a 50/50 to raise money for the Revay Family.
