THOUGHT FOR THE DAY

“Teach us, good Lord, to serve you as you deserve, to give and not to count the cost to fight and not to heed the wounds, to toil and not to seek for rest, to labor and not to ask for any reward, save that of knowing that we do your will.” -St. Ignatius of Loyola

WELCOME! & THANK YOU! for coming to celebrate the Holy Eucharist with us today; please know that you are always welcome to our Church. If you are new to our faith community and are interested in becoming members of our parish, please call the parish office at 701-754-2860.

Labourers in the Harvest

Like 10:1-12, 17-20

I am sending you out as lambs in the midst of wolves. In today's Gospel reading, Jesus sends out seventy-two disciples to tell the people in the towns that He is coming, and to heal the sick. He tells them that they should pray to the Lord of the harvest to send out labourers into his harvest.

Jesus compares the souls of the people to a harvest. He needs people who will go out into the world and gather the souls for Him, and tells the people that they should pray that God will send out these labourers. Do you know who these people are? They are the priests and other missionaries who work to bring people to Jesus.

Do you think that God might be calling you to be a labourer in the harvest of souls? Pray every day that you will know how you can best serve God. Also pray that God will send many holy priests and missionaries into the world.

God Bless America

HAPPY
4TH OF JULY

"And you will know the truth, and the truth will set you free". John 8:32

Freedom consists not in doing what we like, but in having the right to do what we ought.'

America has always wanted to be a land of the free. Today, the challenge facing America is to find freedom's fulfillment in the truth: the truth that is intrinsic to human life created in God's image and likeness, the truth that is written on the human heart, the truth that can be known by reason and can therefore form the basis of a profound and universal dialogue among people about the direction they must give to their lives and their activities.

Surely it is important for America that the moral truths which make freedom possible should be passed on to each new generation. Every generation of Americans need to know that freedom consists not in doing what we like, but in having the right to do what we ought.

How appropriate is Saint Paul's charge to Timothy! "Guard the rich deposit of faith with the help of the Holy Spirit who dwells within us" (2 Tim 1:14). That charge speaks to parents and teachers; it speaks in a special and urgent way to you, my brother Bishops, Successors of the Apostles. Christ asks us to guard the truth because, as he promised us: "You will know the truth and the truth will make you free" (Jn 8:32). Depositum custodi! We must guard the truth that is the condition of authentic freedom, the truth that allows freedom to be fulfilled in goodness. We must guard the deposit of divine truth handed down to us in the Church, especially in view of the challenges posed by a materialistic culture and by a permissive mentality that reduces freedom to license. But we Bishops must do more than guard this truth. We must proclaim it, in season and out of season; we must celebrate it with God's people, in the sacraments; we must live it in charity and service; we must bear public witness to the truth that is Jesus Christ. Saint John Paul II, Homily at Camden Yards, Baltimore, October 8, 1995

Life is First: "Without respect for life, without respect for the family, society simply does not exist...all [other] rights presuppose the right to life. If the right to life is not defended, the defense of all these other rights is useless. It becomes a lie, because it would mean that the defense to the right to work, to society, etc. applies only to some, and not to all." (Bishop Elio Sgreccia, Vice-President of the Vatican's Pontifical Academy for Life, May 2004 television interview for Defending Life, EWTN).

"He said to them, 'The harvest is abundant, but the laborers are few...'" LUKE 10:2
As Catholics, we are all called to serve. Each of us has been given "charisms" otherwise known as gifts from the Holy Spirit to help build God's Church. Our charisms can only be used for good. We know that we are using them in the right ministry when we are filled with joy and we want to share stories about our charitable works. Discern how God is calling you to use your charisms. Say "yes" to what God is calling you to do and then do it! Share your joy and invite others to do the same.
