Holy Resurrection is a parish family that proclaims the Word of God through our unique Byzantine Catholic worship, spirituality, and tradition. We foster a deep and committed relationship with Jesus Christ through the Holy Mysteries, education, prayer, and Christian fellowship. Through evangelization, we strive to bring Christ into our families and communities.

PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS - From today's Sunday, we will sing after every Divine Liturgy Beneath Your Compassion and pray the Prayer for Vocations.

PRAYER REQUESTS - For the Andy Mascella and for Rob Fetsko's continued recovery. If there is anyone you would like prayed for please submit their names to htssbulletin@gmail.com by Monday so that they will be included for the following week's bulletin.

MYRRH BEARERS - All women from Holy Resurrection Parish are invited to join The Myrrh-Bearers Group. We come together and pray the Akathist for our priests of the Eparchy of Parma. Each woman will spiritually adopt a priest whom God has chosen for her and will offer up prayers, Holy Communion, and sacrifices for the sanctity of the adopted priest. Our next meeting will be on Saturday, Oct 15th, 10:00 am. For more details or questions, contact Sarah McNeill: sarahfetsko33@gmail.com / 440-681-9348.

CHURCH CLEANING - Every third Saturday following Myrrh Bearers, from 11am-1pm. We need your help. As you know, the parish doesn't have custodial services and relies on the volunteerism of parishioners to be cleaned. There is a signup sheet on the bulletin board outside the gym doors. We would greatly appreciate if you considered signing up to assist in weekly cleaning. This is separate from the monthly "deep cleaning" as these things need to be done weekly to get the church and gym ready for Sunday.

WEEKLY MEETINGS FOR WOMEN AND SAVE THE DATE - Save the Date for a women's day retreat to be led by Mother Gabriella of Christ the Bridegroom Monastery at Holy Resurrection Parish on Saturday, December 3rd. This day of prayer and reflection is intended for women of all ages and stages in life.

To prepare for the retreat, we invite all women of the parish to participate in weekly meetings on Sundays after Liturgy, starting on Sunday, September 17th, to explore the identities of daughter, sister, and mother that all Christian women are called to become. .Contact Alyssa Stachowiak at alyssa.stachowiak@gmail.com with questions about the retreat and podcast.

Please invite any women that you feel may benefit from exploring and renewing their identities as Catholic women to participate in these meetings and retreat day. For more information about the Abiding Together podcast or to listen on your own, visit www.abidingtogetherpodcast.com.

Prayer for Vocations

O God, great in might and inscrutable in wisdom, marvelous in counsel above the sons of men, Father of all perfect gifts: You the same Lord, enlighten with Your Holy Spirit the hearts of young people and call them to follow your only Begotten Son and our Savior, Jesus Christ, the Good Shepherd! Give them the courage and generosity necessary to overcome all obstacles to their vocation, for you complete what is lacking! Give to the parents that faith, love and spirit of sacrifice which will inspire them to offer their children to Your service and rejoice whenever one of their children is called to follow Christ in a special way of priesthood or religious consecration. We implore you through the intercession of the Most Pure Theotokos and ever Virgin Mary! Amen!

THE BYZANTINE CATHOLIC EPARCHY OF PARMA

OFFICE OF THE BISHOP

September 13, 2022

Dear Brother Priests, Deacons, Nuns, and all my Brothers and Sisters in Christ!

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, Who has blessed us in Christ with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly places [...] in Him we have redemption through His blood, the forgiveness of our trespasses [...] In Him we have obtained an inheritance (cf. Eph 1:3.7.11), the everlasting life!

In order that this treasure may be fully shared with the men and women of our days, the Lord Himself urges us to pray for workers (Lk 10:2) who will go and bring the good news!

As the shepherd of this Eparchy, by the authority entrusted to me by the successor of the Blessed Apostle Peter and by the ancient canons gathered in the Code of Canons for the Eastern Churches, I am fully responsible for the formation and education of future priests and deacons for our Eparchy. I am aware of the fact that the religious, priestly, diaconal, as well as married life are gifts of the divine mercy. Each vocation is the Lord's calling. Each vocation is the way of salvation for those called. Through each vocation a person is called to live the excellent way of love, agape, offering himself or herself for others and thus growing into the fullness of Christ, that is, to be saved.

It has always been the custom of Christians to first turn to the Lord for help, light, and wisdom. In our noisy and distracting culture we are especially in need of the light of the Holy Spirit to follow the Lord and not our desires, to change the culture by the Gospel and not the Gospel by our culture. Therefore, out of my fatherly love and care for all of you and our future, I urge and beg you to pray daily for vocations, vocations to marriage, the priesthood, and the religious life!

I ask the priests of our Eparchy to celebrate the Divine Liturgy for this intention. My proposal is to have each parish sign up for one specific day in the month to celebrate the Eucharist for vocations. Also, after every liturgy I ask our parish communities to sing Beneath Your Compassion and pray the prayer for vocations that will be available in each parish. Furthermore, I encourage all the suffering, the homebound, and elderly to pray and offer their challenges to the Lord, asking Him to renew us!

Extending my episcopal blessing to you and your families, through the intercession of the Most Holy Theotokos, I am,

Sincerely yours in Christ,

+Milan Lach

The Most Rev. Milan Lach, S.J.
Bishop of the Eparchy of Parma of the Ruthenians

Instructions Regarding Sacraments at Holy Resurrection

Mysteries of Initiation (Baptism, Chrismation & Eucharist) - Infants: Parents must be active members of the parish family. Pre-Baptism instructions are required (one session with both parents and godparents).
- Adults: The CCEO requires a longer and more thorough preparation of an adult catechumen. Discernment (i.e. initiation into the spiritual life, so-called mystagogy) and study (i.e. catechesis) in the length of half a year is recommended.

Mystery of Crowning: At least one party must be an active member of the parish family. Please schedule the first meeting with a priest at least half a year in advance for the initial preparation. The Pre-Cana program is required and 3 sessions with Fr. Lukas (if Pre-Cana does not take place, it will be replaced with an additional 6 sessions on the practical aspects of marital life). The ceremony is celebrated according to the prescriptions of the liturgical book of the Byzantine Rite.

Mystery of Reconciliation: Celebrated Saturdays at 2:30pm in the Church; also upon individual request and regularly before or after every Divine Liturgy.

Mystery of Anointing: In non-emergency cases it is celebrated upon request; ideally in Church the Sunday before undergoing any surgical or other medical procedure. In cases of emergency, please have your relatives reach the priest on his cellphone (both call and text recommended).

Holy Communion for the Homebound: Parishioners confined to their homes or nursing homes due to health reasons are visited monthly. Please let us know if you are ill and confined to home.

Hospital Calls: Please notify the Parish Office when you or a member of your family is hospitalized. Be sure to let the hospital know that you are Catholic and if you would like the Catholic Chaplain to visit with Holy Communion. If it is an emergency, make sure that your relatives reach the priest on his cellphone (both call and text recommended).

Funerals: Contact funeral director of choice to meet and do the initial arrangements with the funeral home; ask the funeral director to call the Parish Office to arrange a date and time. A meeting of the priest and the family of the deceased is highly recommended before the funeral.

Sponsor Requirements: Requests for sponsor certificates are directed to a priest. Individuals must be practicing members of the parish, at least 16 years of age, and have received the Sacraments of Baptism, Eucharist and Confirmation. If married, they must be in a marriage accepted by the Catholic Church.

Christ Continues to Catch People in the Nets of Preaching

He told Simon and his companions to sail off a little from the land and to let down the net for a catch. But they replied that they had been toiling the whole night and had caught nothing. However, in the name of Christ, they let down the net, and immediately it was full of fish. By a visible sign and by a miraculous type and representation, they were fully convinced that their labor would be rewarded, and the zeal displayed in spreading out the net of the gospel teaching would be fruitful. Within this net they should most certainly catch the shoals of the heathen.

But note that neither Simon nor his companions could draw the net to land. Speechless from fright and astonishment for their wonder had made them mute, they beckoned to their partners, to those who shared their labors in fishing, to come and help them in securing their prey. For many have taken part with the holy apostles in their labors, and still do so, especially those who inquire into the meaning of what is written in the holy Gospels. Yet besides them there are also others: the pastors and teachers and rulers of the people, who are skilled in the doctrines of truth. For the net is still being drawn, while Christ fills it, and calls to conversion those who, according to the Scripture phrase, are in the depths of the sea, that is to say, those who live in the surge and waves of worldly things.
