WHY ALL THE FUSS ABOUT BUILDINGS?

I have to admit, every time we come across a feast day for the dedication of a church, I am tempted to tune out and yawn. I mean what's all the fuss about buildings? Doesn't the Bible tell us over and over again not to focus on the external, the material and the riches of this world? Aren't we supposed to be all about forming hearts and saving souls, about the Church rather than a church?

Well, if the Church has proclaimed this day a feast, then it must have some great significance, so let's find it. The Archbasilica of St. John Lateran in Rome is the cathedral of the Bishop of Rome. In other words, St. Peter's in Vatican City is not the Pope's home church. His cathedral, his bishop's seat, is found at St. John Lateran. This basilica was built on terrain donated by Emperor Constantine himself and celebrated the freedom of worship granted by the Edict of Milan. Wow.

Ok, so maybe this isn't just any old church. Originally this feast was only celebrated in Rome, but in 1726, it was placed on the worldwide calendar. This building holds special significance, reminding Catholics of the courage of the early Christians who fought for freedom of religion and the unity of the universal Church with the Holy See.

Bringing it a little closer to home, this feast could also be a reminder to us of the respect that is due to our own parish church. Do we see it as a place of honor, reverence and community worship? Do we dress, act and keep silence in an appropriate way, considering we are in the physical presence of Almighty God? Do we offer ourselves together with Christ in the Eucharistic sacrifice, uniting ourselves with Catholics throughout the world?

May we celebrate our universal Church today and may we thank God for all of the churches that have been built and dedicated to allow us a space to worship freely. Maybe we should make a fuss about these beautiful buildings after all.

¿POR QUÉ TANTO ALBOROTO POR LOS EDIFICIOS?

Debo admitir que, cada vez que nos encontramos con un día festivo para la dedicación de una iglesia, siento la tentación de no prestar atención y bostezar. Es decir, ¿por qué tanto alboroto por los edificios? ¿Acaso la Biblia no nos dice una y otra vez que no nos centremos en lo externo, lo material y las riquezas de este mundo? ¿No se supone que deberíamos dedicarnos a formar corazones y salvar almas, a la Iglesia en lugar de a una iglesia?

Bueno, si la Iglesia ha proclamado este día como fiesta, entonces debe tener un gran significado, así que busquémoslo. La Archibasílica de San Juan de Letrán en Roma es la catedral del Obispo de Roma. En otras palabras, San Pedro en la Ciudad del Vaticano no es la iglesia natal del Papa. Su cátedra, su sede episcopal, se encuentra en San Juan de Letrán. Esta basílica se construyó en un terreno donado por el propio emperador Constantino y celebraba la libertad de culto otorgada por el Edicto de Milán. ¡Qué increíble!

Bueno, entonces quizá no se trate de una iglesia cualquiera. Originalmente, esta fiesta sólo se celebraba en Roma, pero en 1726 se incorporó al calendario mundial. Este edificio tiene un significado especial, recordando a los católicos la valentía de los primeros cristianos que lucharon por la libertad religiosa y la unidad de la Iglesia universal con la Santa Sede.

En un contexto más cercano, esta fiesta también podría ser un recordatorio del respeto que se debe a nuestra parroquia. ¿La consideramos un lugar de honor, reverencia y culto comunitario? ¿Nos vestimos, actuamos y guardamos silencio de forma apropiada, considerando que estamos en la presencia física de Dios Todopoderoso? ¿Nos ofrecemos junto con Cristo en el sacrificio eucarístico, uniéndonos a los católicos de todo el mundo?

Celebremos hoy nuestra Iglesia universal y demos gracias a Dios por todas las iglesias que se han construido y dedicado para brindarnos un espacio de culto libre. Tal vez debería haber mucho alboroto por estos hermosos edificios después de todo.

SAINT FRANCES XAVIER CABRINI

NOVEMBER 13

Burly longshoremen glared at the woman in widow's dress who interrupted their drinking to beg money, in broken English, for her orphanage. The bar exploded in laughter as one man responded by spitting in her face. "That was for me," the woman smiled. "Do you have anything for the children?" Given today's national debate, could it be as much God's sense of humor as God's will for our sanctification that our first "American" saint should be an immigrant and naturalized citizen? Frances Cabrini, adopting the name "Xavier," confided to Pope Leo XIII her longing to follow her Jesuit patron to Asia. But the Pope replied, "Not East—West!" So she and her Missionary Sisters of the Sacred Heart exchanged exotic dreams of China for the impoverished reality of Italian ghettos across the United States and Central and South America. Before her death, Frances had founded seventy educational, health care, child, and family service institutions. Today, from Siberia to Ethiopia, in sixteen countries, Mother Cabrini's sisters and lay associates embody her practical spirituality: "Let's get to work! We'll have eternity to rest!"
