SEND IN THE CLONES?

In St. Paul's time, the Church was so new that everyone remembered how they came to the faith. That's not a bad thing. Even today, in helping with the RCIA, I like to hear how the new converts were drawn to the Lord. But it seems that some people in Paul's time actually boasted about who baptized them. They acted as if they were better Christians because of the person whose preaching first attracted them.

Paul, of course, would have no part in those rivalries. In fact, you can almost hear Paul laughing when he talks about people who consider Christ as just another leader of one of the factions. Christ should be the sign of unity for all Christians, not just one congregation. It may be even more difficult to seek unity today, with so many Christian churches and a modern view of diversity as somehow better than unity. While no one says they want to divide the body of Christ, I'm sure you know someone who thinks the only way to have a unified Church is for everyone to pray the same way they do.

Yet even Paul did not expect all believers to be clones of one another. He frequently wrote about people having many different gifts, yet all working to build up the Body of Christ. He doesn't mean that those gifts are divisive or that the Church survives in spite of them. Those differences are necessary; we need all the gifts that the Spirit gives us. So what can we do to help unify the Church?

First, do what Jesus himself did—pray for unity in the Church (John 17:20–21). Pray that you come to know what your own gifts are, have the courage to use them for the Church, and appreciate the gifts of others. Second, Paul was very aware of his own weaknesses. That's what he is talking about in the last line of the reading. Jesus had to die before he could rise from the dead. Without the cross, we would have never heard of the Resurrection. So also, without weakness, how can we experience God's strength? Instead of looking down on those with whom we disagree, look up to see what God may be revealing to you through that person's differences.

¿ENVIAR A LOS CLONES?

En tiempos de San Pablo, la Iglesia era tan nueva que todos recordaban cómo llegaron a la fe. No es una cosa mala. Incluso hoy, al ayudar con el RICA, me gusta escuchar cómo los nuevos conversos se sintieron atraídos al Señor. Pero parece que algunas personas en tiempos de Pablo incluso se jactaban de quién los bautizó. Actuaban como si fueran mejores cristianos por la persona cuya predicación los atrajo inicialmente.

Pablo, por supuesto, no quería participar en esas rivalidades. De hecho, casi se puede oír a Pablo reírse cuando habla de quienes consideran a Cristo como un líder más de una de las facciones. Cristo debería ser el signo de unidad para todos los cristianos, no solo para una congregación. Quizás sea aún más difícil buscar la unidad hoy en día, con tantas iglesias cristianas y una visión moderna de la diversidad como algo mejor que la unidad. Aunque nadie dice que quiere dividir el cuerpo de Cristo, seguramente conoces a alguien que piensa que la única manera de tener una Iglesia unida es que todos recen de la misma forma que él.

Sin embargo, ni siquiera Pablo esperaba que todos los creyentes fueran clones unos de otros. Con frecuencia escribió sobre personas con dones diferentes, pero todas trabajando para edificar el Cuerpo de Cristo. No quiere decir que esos dones causen división ni que la Iglesia sobreviva a pesar de ellos. Esas diferencias son necesarias; necesitamos todos los dones que el Espíritu nos da. Entonces, ¿qué podemos hacer para ayudar a unificar la Iglesia?

Primero, haz lo que Jesús mismo hizo: reza por la unidad en la Iglesia (Juan 17,20-21). Reza para que llegues a conocer tus propios dones, tengas la valentía de usarlos para la Iglesia y aprecies los dones de los demás. Segundo, Pablo era muy consciente de sus propias debilidades. De eso habla en la última línea de la lectura. Jesús tuvo que morir antes de poder resucitar. Sin la cruz, jamás hubiéramos oído de la Resurrección. Así también, sin debilidad, ¿cómo podemos experimentar la fuerza de Dios? En lugar de menospreciar a quienes tienen una opinión diferente, miren hacia arriba para ver lo que Dios pueda estarles revelando a través de las diferencias de esa persona.

MINISTERIOS CATÓLICOS

Children of God

The 2026 Catholic Ministry Appeal Commitment Sunday is next weekend! Once a year we are asked to make a gift to sustain the good works funded by the appeal which offers vital services and assistance to those in need across our communities. We are asking every family to participate to help our parish make our goal. By participating in the appeal, we renew our commitment to the Lord with a response to His call to serve our brothers and sisters.

Just like your Amazon Prime or Disney+ / ESPN/Hulu subscriptions, consider the CMA a subscription except this one is giving back to the community that supports your family in the Catholic faith. Here are your three EASY “subscription” options that you can commit to next weekend:

- OPTION A - $5/week
- OPTION B - $25/month
- OPTION C - $220 one-time gift

Thank you for helping us to reach our goal as a team and for supporting our many ministries! Go to mhr Tampa.org to learn more about the 2026 CMA!

Hijos de Dios

¡El Domingo de Compromiso de la Campaña del Ministerio Católico 2026 es el próximo fin de semana! Una vez al año se nos pide que hagamos una donación para apoyar las buenas obras financiadas por esta campaña, que ofrece servicios y asistencia vitales a quienes lo necesitan en nuestras comunidades. Les pedimos a todas las familias que participen para ayudar a nuestra parroquia a alcanzar nuestra meta. Al participar en la campaña, renovamos nuestro compromiso con el Señor, respondiendo a su llamado a servir a nuestros hermanos y hermanas.

Al igual que sus suscripciones a Amazon Prime o Disney+ /ESPN/Hulu, considere la Campaña Anual de la Arquidiócesis (CMA) como una suscripción, con la diferencia de que esta contribuye a la comunidad que apoya a su familia en la fe católica. Aquí tiene tres opciones sencillas de contribución a las que puede comprometerse el próximo fin de semana:

- OPCIÓN A - $5 por semana
- OPCIÓN B - $25 por mes
- OPCIÓN C - $220 donación única

¡Gracias por ayudarnos a alcanzar nuestra meta como equipo y por apoyar nuestros numerosos ministerios!

SAINT ANGELA MERICI (C. 1474-1540)
 JANUARY 27

Born in Northern Italy, orphaned in childhood, Angela Merici faced a society in which education was largely the privilege of wealthy young men and based primarily in monastic schools. This reality shaped Angela's insightful conviction that society's disorder was caused by disorder in the home, and a lack of model Christian mothers the result of neglecting the education of young women. Transform the Christian family by placing an educated wife and mother at its heart, Angela believed, and the whole world would be renewed in Christ!

So she gathered a small group of unmarried women, many of them Franciscan Tertiaries (lay affiliates) like herself, and set out to educate poor girls, free of charge, in their homes. She and her band of teachers called themselves "companions," pioneering a new form of non-cloistered religious life for women, bearing witness to evangelical simplicity in the midst of the world, not as a formal "order" but as the "Company (compagnia) of Saint Ursula." Known today as the Ursulines, Angela Merici's spiritual daughters continue serving the Church and society in a rich diversity of ministries.
