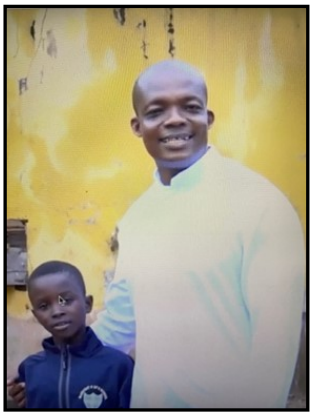
TUESDAY IS ELECTION DAY

After election day on Tuesday, who will miss the incessant series of campaign adds which barrage our televisions and mailboxes? Still, the underlying issues which face our nation cannot be ignored and should motivate us as Catholics to seek the truth behind the divisive rhetoric and vitriol. Therefore, we each have a responsibility to vote with a formed conscience, focusing on the moral and social teachings of the Church and upholding the dignity of all life, starting with the most innocent and vulnerable.

Our civil liberties and human rights always run the risk being threatened, especially when political and cultural ideologies clash; No doubt the case today in our age of social media. As Christians, we must rise above the finger-pointing and scapegoating which occur when societal problems seem almost insurmountable. Instead, let us prayerfully look to the Lord to guide our elected officials in their governance and problem-solving; We pray that they may know the responsibilities and limitations of their offices, lest anyone attempts to assume what is only God's prerogative. For our part, let us stive ever more fearlessly to live our faith in truth and love, trusting that God holds the real power over our lives, family, and country.

FATHER PAUL GHANA PROJECT



I had the opportunity to speak with our former student priest, Father Paul Esibu, this past week. Whereas our weather is cooling down, Fr. Paul mentioned how hot it still is in Ghana. He shared too, that upon returning to Africa after over two years in the U.S., he had noticed a change for the better in terms of education for the youth. Our conversation continued along those lines, exploring how Divine Redeemer can best support the young people of his diocese in their Christian formation, starting with basic needs. Be sure to check out the Divine Redeemer Ghana Mission website, https://fouronetwohope.com, to catch the latest developments and ways that you can get involved.

Confirmation

Congratulations to the ninth graders of Divine Redeemer Parish who received the Sacrament of Confirmation on Sunday, October 9, 2022. We were pleased to welcome Auxiliary Bishop of Pittsburgh, Most Reverend Mark A. Eckman, who confirmed the candidates.

May the Holy Spirit continue to bless and guide these young men and women all the days of their lives!

Congratulations!

ST. JAMES SCHOOL NEWS

Here is St. James Schools new faith-based extracurricular for our middle school boys!

The Reading and the Rosary Group for girls has been so successful with our girls over the years that Mrs. Riley started a Reading and the Rosary Group for boys. This group prays together, reads together, and does numerous service projects throughout the year.

Check out these smiles! Our 4th grade & 4 year-old preschool prayer buddies met each other for the first time today. The preschoolers made cards for their buddies in anticipation of getting together, and the 4th graders helped them with a buddy project in which they got to know each other better. Our buddy program is a key part of what builds our St. James community into a family for all of our students, no matter how young or old they may be.

Packed with love and loaded with grateful hearts, 34 boxes of retired textbooks from St. James School started their journey abroad to build up educational institutions in international communities in great need of resources.
Thank you to members of our 8th grade class who stayed after school to load boxes of books into the trailer provided by DTCare.

May these resources bless their recipients as much as they have blessed our students at St. James.

Our principal, Mr. Sean Murray, stopped by Our Lady of the Sacred Heart High School to personally express our school community's gratitude for OLSH's sponsorship of our St. James Feast Fest. As a token of our appreciation, Mr. Murray presented a sponsor thank you sign to Mrs. Terry Donoghue, President, and Mr. Tim Plocinik, Principal, signed by a group of our students.

We are so grateful to the generous businesses, schools, institutions, and individuals who sponsor our events throughout the year. They wouldn't be a success without you! Thank you, OLSH, for your support!

FIRST PRIZE (45 pounds of premium McIlhaney beef and a $200 gift card) - Divine Redeemer parishioner, Marcy Davis

THIRTY-SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME YEAR C

Gathering Hymn - We Gather Together

Text: 12 11 12 11; Wilt heden nu treden; tr. by Theodore Baker, 1851–1934, alt.
Music: Neder-landtsch Gedenckclanck, 1626.

Confiteor

I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned, in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do, through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault; therefore,
I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin, all the Angels and Saints, and you, my brothers and sisters, to pray for me to the Lord our God.

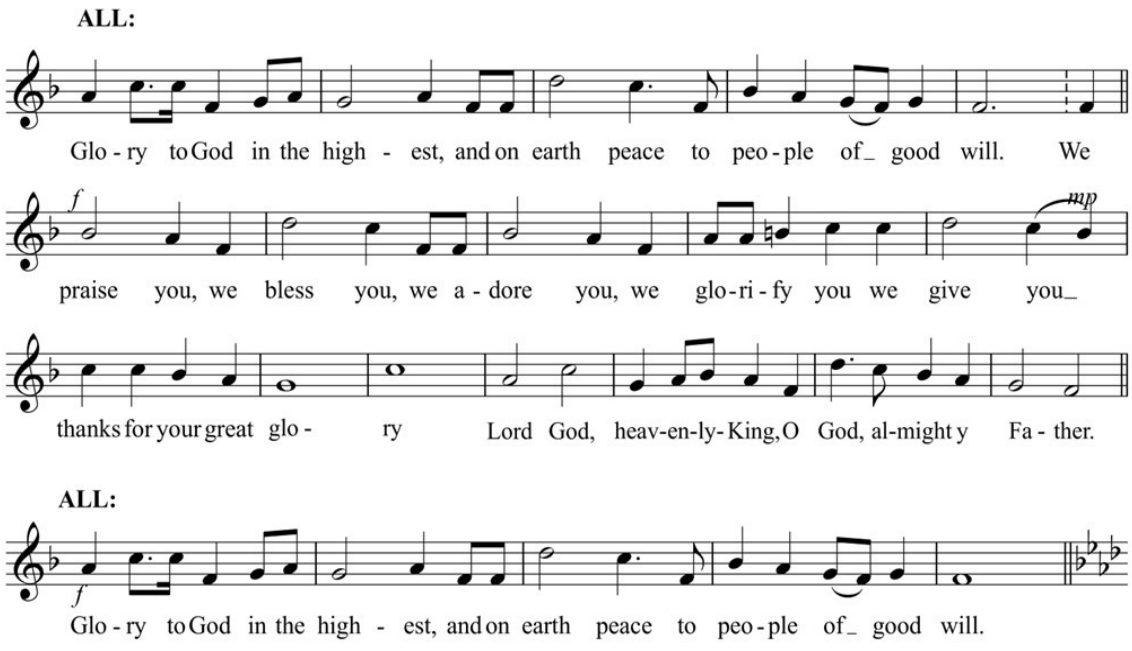
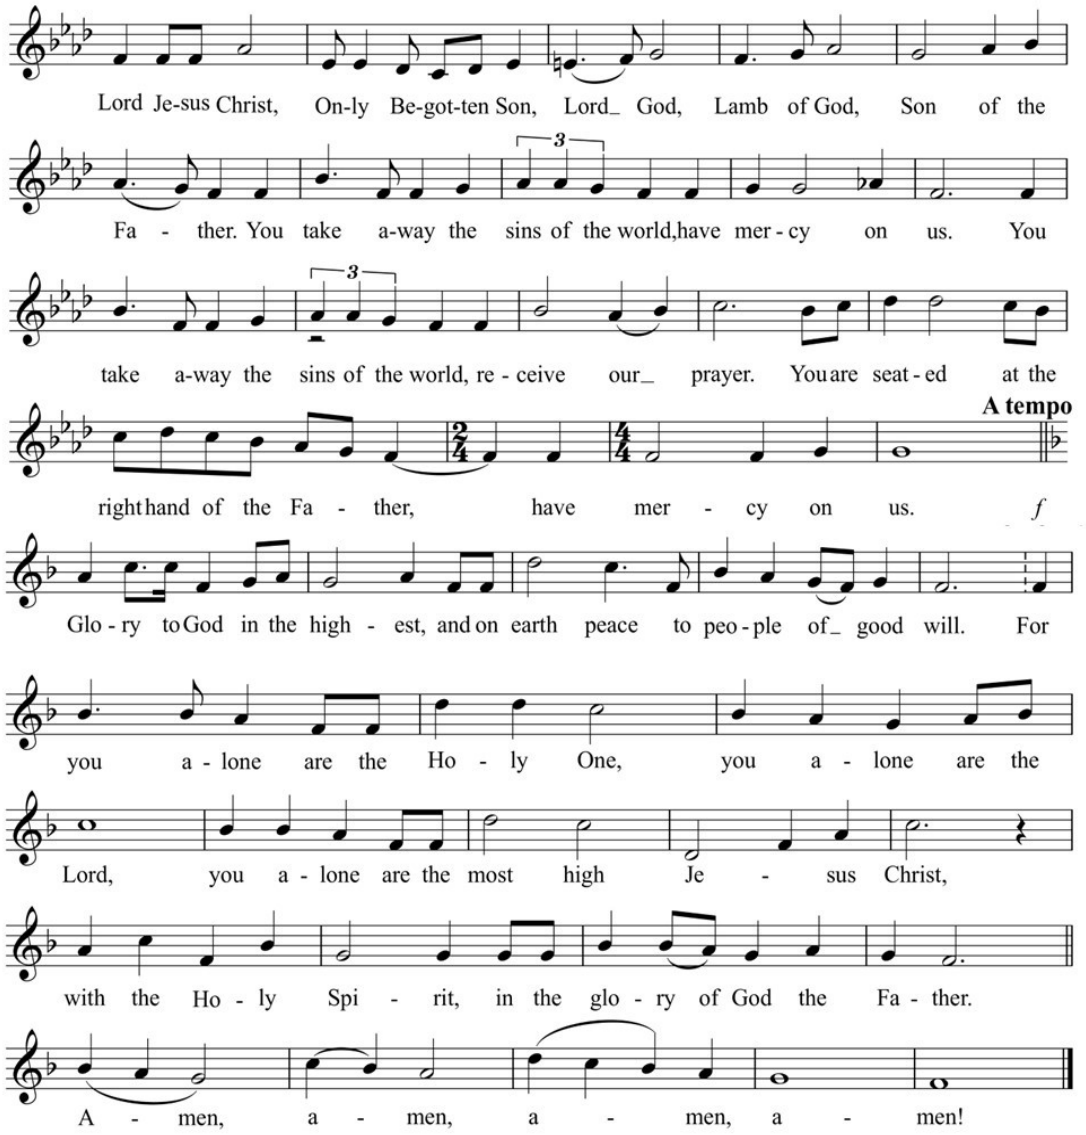
Gloria





Liturgy of the Word

First Reading

2 Mc 7:1-2, 9-14

A reading from the second Book of Maccabees

The King of the world will raise us up to live again forever.

It happened that seven brothers with their mother were arrested and tortured with whips and scourges by the king, to force them to eat pork in violation of God's law.
One of the brothers, speaking for the others, said:
"What do you expect to achieve by questioning us?
We are ready to die rather than transgress the laws of our ancestors."

At the point of death he said: "You accursed fiend, you are depriving us of this present life, but the King of the world will raise us up to live again forever.
It is for his laws that we are dying."
After him the third suffered their cruel sport. He put out his tongue at once when told to do so, and bravely held out his hands, as he spoke these noble words: "It was from Heaven that received these; for the sake of his laws I disdain them; from him I hope to receive them again."
Even the king and his attendants marveled at the young man's courage, because he regarded his sufferings as nothing. After he had died, they tortured and maltreated the fourth brother in the same way. When he was near death, he said, "It is my choice to die at the hands of men with the hope God gives of being raised up by him; but for you, there will be no resurrection to life."

THIRTY-SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME YEAR C

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 17:1, 5-6, 8, 15, R. v.15b

(R.) Lord, when your glory appears, my joy will be full.

Hear, O Lord, a just suit;
attend to my outcry;
hearken to my prayer from lips without deceit. (R.)

My steps have been steadfast in your paths,
my feet have not faltered.
I call upon you, for you will answer me, O God;
incline your ear to me; hear my word. (R.)

Keep me as the apple of your eye,
hide me in the shadow of your wings.
But I in justice shall behold your face;
on waking I shall be content in your presence. (R.)

Second Reading

2 Thes 2:16 – 3:5

Brothers and sisters:
May our Lord Jesus Christ himself and God our Father,
who has loved us and given us everlasting encouragement
and good hope through his grace, encourage your hearts and strengthen them in every good deed and word.

Finally, brothers and sisters, pray for us,
so that the word of the Lord may speed forward and be glorified,
as it did among you,
and that we may be delivered from perverse and wicked people,
for not all have faith.
But the Lord is faithful;
he will strengthen you and guard you from the evil one.
We are confident of you in the Lord that what we instruct you,
you are doing and will continue to do.
May the Lord direct your hearts to the love of God and to the endurance of Christ.

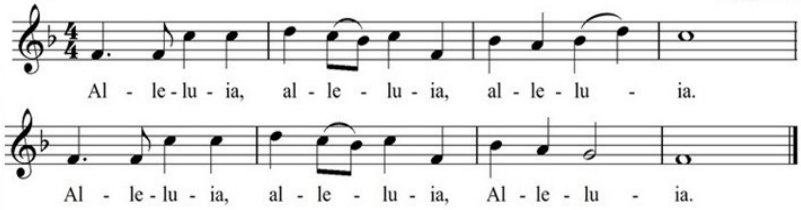
Gospel Acclamation

L. Valenzi



Gospel

Lk 20:27-38

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke

He is not God of the dead, but of the living.

Some Sadducees, those who deny that there is a resurrection, came forward and put this question to Jesus, saying,
"Teacher, Moses wrote for us,
If someone's brother dies leaving a wife but no child,
his brother must take the wife
and raise up descendants for his brother.

Now there were seven brothers; the first married a woman but died childless.
Then the second and the third married her, and likewise all the seven died childless.
Finally the woman also died.
Now at the resurrection whose wife will that woman be? For all seven had been married to her."
Jesus said to them,
"The children of this age marry and remarry; but those who are deemed worthy to attain to the coming age and to the resurrection of the dead neither marry nor are given in marriage.
They can no longer die, for they are like angels; and they are the children of God because they are the ones who will rise.
That the dead will rise
even Moses made known in the passage about the bush,
when he called out 'Lord,'
the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob;
and he is not God of the dead, but of the living, for to him all are alive."

Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, BOW: and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Communion Hymn - Shepherd Me, O God

REFRAIN: Shepherd me, O God, beyond my wants, beyond my fears, from death into life.

1. God is my shepherd, so nothing shall I want,
   I rest in the meadows of faithfulness and love,
   I walk by the quiet waters of peace.

2. Gently you raise me and heal my weary soul,
   you lead me by pathways of righteousness and truth,
   my spirit shall sing the music of your name.

3. Though I should wander the valley of death,
   I fear no evil, for you are at my side,
   your rod and your staff, my comfort and my hope.

4.You have set me a banquet of love in the face of hatred, crowning me with love beyond my pow'r to hold.

5.Surely your kindness and mercy follow me all the days of my life; I will dwell in the house of my God for evermore.

Shepherd me, O God...
