Thank you

Dear Divine Redeemer,

Thank you for offering such a wonderful Corpus Christi celebration. I'll let others tell the stories – but I can assure you that hearts and lives were touched by our wonderful procession through the streets of Sewickley.

So many good people helped in so many ways! The Knights of Columbus, the Women's Guild, and various parishioners all worked together to provide excellent food.

So many people helped with the procession – and the bell choir sounded wonderful, and with the use of a battery powered, wheeled amplifier, we were able to sing the hymns together better than ever before! I lost count of the parishioners (and soon to be parishioners) who carried flags, drove the rescue van (which was definitely needed), and helped to direct the traffic. The Knights carried the Eucharistic Canopy – which is more difficult than you might imagine, as is carrying the banner of our Lady of Guadalupe.

Our altar servers and seminarians did wonderful work leading us through the streets. And Fr. Brian carried our Lord every step of the way in the days heat. And – our photographer – who kept running back and forth and surely walked 3 times more than anyone else (she happens to be 8.5 months pregnant too). Oh – and did you see the video that our communications team made?

Ambridge Do it Best provided the bounce house that was popular with the kids after Mass on Saturday, and after the celebration on Sunday, they also provided cornhole boards for us. Special thanks to the kind souls who took shifts managing the bounce house for our kids to enjoy. Kona Ice came too!

You are wonderful – and it took everyone to make it the success that it was!

A Brother in Christ,
Jim Haupt, Pastoral Associate

We remember all those who have gone before us, in hope, to meet the Lord. As members of our parish family we pray for them and thank God for the time we spent with them here on earth.

May the choirs of angels come to meet them and speed them to paradise.

May her soul and all the souls of the faithful departed rest in peace.
